Since it opened in 2000, more than 25 million fans have entered the turnstiles of Minute Maid Park to witness magical moments on the diamond, including Jeff Kent's game-winning, walk-off home run in the 2004 NLCS vs. St. Louis, the first World Series game in the state of Texas in 2005, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit on June 28, 2007.

Since moving into the downtown ballpark, the Astros have won two National League Wild Cards and have made three National League Division Series appearances, two National League Championship appearances and one trip to the World Series. The Astros have been over the .500 mark in seven of the nine seasons since 2000 and own a .566 winning percentage (412-316) at Minute Maid Park.

During the past year, the Houston Astros were deeply saddened by the loss of four people who greatly influenced the organization.

NEIL HOHLFELD

Longtime Astros beat writer for the Houston Chronicle, Neil Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008. Hohlfeld, 56, covered the Houston Astros from 1979 until 1995 and went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M sports and NASCAR, through 2006, at which time he assumed an editing assignment. In the last year, he had returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FSN Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

DAVE SMITH

Former Astro reliever Dave Smith, 53, passed away on Dec. 17, 2008. Smith pitched for Houston from 1980-1990 and was a key member of the 1980 and 1986 Astros clubs that reached the National League Championship Series. Many of his records still stand in Astros history, including most innings pitched (760) and most wins by a reliever (53). Smith is also the franchise leader in games pitched with 563 during his 11 seasons.

DAVE ROBERTS

Left-handed pitcher Dave Roberts, 64, passed away on Jan. 9, 2009. A consummate pro, Roberts pitched for the Astros from 1972-75, averaging 35 starts and 12 wins a season. He was 47-44 with a 3.69 ERA in 140 games with Houston. Roberts tossed a complete-game, one-hitter to become the winning pitcher in the shortest game in Astros history, 1 hour, 26 minutes, on Aug. 24, 1974 vs. the Phillies.

PRESTON GOMEZ

As the eighth manager in Astros history, Preston Gomez guided Houston to a 128-161 record. Gomez posted a .443 winning percentage during in his two seasons as manager from 1974-75. He worked in Major League baseball for 64 years, serving as a player, coach, manager, scout and consultant. Gomez, 86, passed away on Jan. 13, 2009.

MINUTE MAID PARK

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

The Houston Astros believe being a meaningful part of the community is just as important as throwing strikes and hitting home runs. Throughout the year, Astros players, broadcasters, alumni, and staff partner with non-profit and civic groups around our region to help make the community a better place to live.

OVERVIEW

The Astros Community Affairs Department is the community outreach arm of the Houston Astros organization. The department handles a wide array of community functions including managing the Coca-Cola Astros Buddies Club, coordinating community ticket programs, fulfilling donation requests, arranging player and staff visits, scheduling the team mascot and hosting community groups at Minute Maid Park. Those interested in any Astros community programs can call 713-259-8000 or visit www.astros.com/community.

COCA-COLA ASTROS BUDDIES CLUB

Astros fans 14 and under can join the Coca-Cola Astros Buddies Club and receive cool and unique souvenirs along with four tickets ($60 value) to pre-selected Astros home games. The membership fee is only $15. For more information, fans can visit www.astros.com/community.

CHARITY TICKET PROGRAM

Non-profit groups serving individuals that for various reasons do not have the resources on their own to attend a game may apply for complimentary group tickets to pre-selected Astros games. The application period opens in March. For more information and an application, visit www.astros.com/community.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE AND HONOR ROLL PROGRAM

The Houston Astros administer two school ticket programs: the Perfect Attendance Program for elementary children and the Honor Roll Program for middle and high school students. Schools must enroll in the programs for their students to be eligible. Students at participating schools who attain perfect attendance or make the honor roll during any grading cycle of the second semester are eligible to receive tickets to pre-selected Astros games. For more information schools can visit www.astros.com/community.

"We have two missions: to be a champion, and to make a positive difference in the community."

—Drayton McLane, Jr.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

During 2008, the Houston Astros Community Affairs Department organized hundreds of community events both at Minute Maid Park and throughout Houston. The following are a few of those events:

- Spaulding for Children Match Event
- Sunshine Kids Holiday Party
- Sunshine Kids Visits to Minute Maid Park
- Umps Care – Umpire Meet and Greet
- Walter Reed Hospital Visit in Washington, DC
- Whataburger Fielder's Choice School Visits

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

During the summer months, the Astros team up with libraries in Houston and surrounding areas to reward children through the Summer Reading Program. Astros game tickets are awarded to children who read 20 books during the months of June, July and August.

DONATION GUIDELINES

The Astros commitment to the community includes assisting non-profits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations. All requests must be made on the non-profit organization's official letterhead and include basic information about the charity/event, a contact name, address, phone number and e-mail address, the date of the event and a copy of the organization's 501 (c)(3) letter. Request letters must be received at least six weeks in advance of the event and should be sent to: Houston Astros, Attention: Donations, P.O. Box 288, Houston, Texas 77001-0288, or faxed to: (713) 259-8981. Additional information is available at www.astros.com/community.

PLAYER AND STAFF APPEARANCES

All groups interested in requesting a player or front office staff appearance must complete and submit an appearance application at least four weeks in advance of the event. The application should be for a specific event with a specific date. The Astros recommend that events not center on an appearance and that groups approach an appearance as a bonus to the event because often requests are unable to be arranged due to the volume of requests and scheduling conflicts. Online applications are available at www.astros.com/community.

JUNCTION JACK

Community Affairs schedules all appearances by the Astros mascot, Junction Jack. He is available to make appearances at community, school, church or corporate functions. For rate information and to complete an online application visit www.astros.com/community.

SPRING TRAINING EVENTS

The Astros hosted two very special events during spring training in 2008. On March 5, Astros players and broadcasters celebrated the 11th anniversary of "Read Across America" during spring training. A program of the National Education Association, Read Across America is a reading motivation program for kids. The nationwide reading celebration takes place each year on or near March 2, the birthday of Dr. Seuss. Nearly 150 children of Narcoossee Community School were read to by the players and broadcasters at Osceola County Stadium in Kissimmee, Fla. Children from The Sunshine Kids were treated to a special trip to spring training and they had a chance to spend time with Astros players before attending the March 6 game against the Cleveland Indians.

ASTROS WINTER CARAVAN

The Astros 2009 Winter Caravan featured visits to schools, community centers, hospitals, and local businesses across Texas, Louisiana and Mexico. Two unique stops on the 2009 caravan included helping build a Habitat for Humanity home in Dickinson, Texas that continued the Astros' assistance for those in need following Hurricane Ike, and planting trees at the State Capitol in Austin as part of the team's ongoing Play Green™ initiative. The players spent their time promoting education at 13 different stops at various elementary schools, junior high and high schools and colleges. Participation in youth sports was the focus when the caravan conducted two youth baseball clinics in the Houston area and one in Mexico City, Mexico. Free autograph sessions were held for Astros fans at Landry's restaurants and 13 different Academy Sports + Outdoors locations. All total, 35 Astros players, coaches, and front office personnel made 56 stops in 21 cities over 13 days.

The 2009 Caravan visited the following cities:

ASTROS IN ACTION FOUNDATION

OUR MISSION

Through the strength of the National Pastime, we will enhance the quality of life in our community through educational, health and spiritual endeavors.

We support the efforts of non-profit organizations or programs related to: literacy, education/scholarships, health issues, faith-based organizations, and reviving baseball in the inner city.

HISTORY

The Astros in Action Foundation was formally introduced to the public on September 16, 2000, at the Jim Rome World Tour Stop #22 held at Minute Maid Park. During the event, fans were encouraged to participate in a silent auction that included local and national sports celebrity memorabilia. Fans also made donations to the Astros in Action Foundation as they entered the ballpark. In a matter of two hours, nearly $10,000 was raised to help "field the dreams of Houston."

EVENTS

The Astros in Action Foundation sponsors a number of community events during the course of the year. In 2008 alone, the foundation held the following events:

- Annual Astros Race for the Pennant
- Arnie in the Atrium for the Sunshine Kids
- Astros FanFest
- Astros Alumni Golf Classic
- Astros Tommy Bahama Celebrity Golf Classic
- Hometown Heroes
- Houston RBI Year-End Recognition Event
- Leadoff Luncheon
- Negro League Draft - Celebration of Bill Blair
- Reliant Energy Power Blast
- Urban League Clinic
- Wives Charity Softball Game
- Wives Pet Calendar

GRAND SLAM FOR YOUTH BASEBALL

OUR MISSION

Grand Slam for Youth Baseball makes it easier for boys and girls to play learn about and experience baseball, thus seeking to foster self-confidence, involvement, teamwork, and fun among area children.

HISTORY

On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and Minute Maid announced that they had "expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership." The agreement called for the ballpark to be rechristened Minute Maid Park; the continuation of the Minute Maid Squeeze Play; extended pouring rights, advertising and marketing; and a commitment "to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area."

This commitment to youth by both companies created Grand Slam for Youth Baseball. The program was officially announced on August 20, 2002 on the occasion of the unveiling of the large Minute Maid Park sign in center field.

OVERVIEW

The Houston Astros and the makers of Minute Maid partner together in a four-part program designed to bring the benefits of the National Pastime to the young people of Greater Houston. Named Grand Slam for Youth Baseball, the program was created to make it easier for boys and girls to play, learn about and experience baseball, thus seeking to foster self-confidence, involvement, teamwork, and fun among youth in Houston and the surrounding areas.

In addition to behind-the-scenes support and coordination, Minute Maid commits more than $100,000 annually to Grand Slam for Youth Baseball. The Houston Astros and Astros in Action Foundation complement the youth baseball program by committing fundraising assistance, game tickets, player appearances and use of Minute Maid Park.

FOUR-PART PROGRAM

Grand Slam for Youth Baseball comprises the following four components:

Sponsorship of the City of Houston Parks & Recreation Department's Youth Baseball Program

The 2009 season marks the seventh year Grand Slam for Youth Baseball has sponsored the City of Houston Parks and Recreation Department's free youth baseball, softball, and t-ball program for kids ages 4-18. GSFYB provides all t-shirts, caps, equipment, and instruction for the program. More than 2,200 Houston-area boys and girls benefit from the sponsorship each year.

Refurbishment of one youth ball field a year

The Astros and Minute Maid, through GSFYB have pledged to refurbish one youth ball field a year by providing landscaping, renovating facilities or helping with other needs. Employees of both organizations assist in the refurbishment efforts.

The first youth ball field to be refurbished through GSFYB was Settegast Park Ball Field in 2003 located in Houston's East End, only blocks from Minute Maid Park. Other refurbishment projects include:

- 2004 - Northeast Family YMCA
- 2005 - La Marque Little League's Bobby Beach Memorial Stadium
- 2006 - St. Monica Catholic Church Youth Baseball Fields #1 and #2
- 2007 - John Havard Field
- 2008 - L.S. Stiles Field
- 2009 - First Colony Little League Baseball Complex, Dream League (DL) Field 1

Create a baseball-related educational program

The Grand Slam for Youth Baseball Scholarship program was launched in 2005 to assist Houston-area high school senior boys and girls with college expenses. Through the program, Minute Maid and the Astros fund and support individual $2,500 college scholarships each year.

In 2008, 20 youth received scholarships and since inception $111,500 has been granted to young students.

Offer unique fund-raising opportunities for youth baseball/softball teams and leagues

Through GSFYB, the Astros and Minute Maid offer unique fundraising opportunities to help qualified 501(c)3 youth baseball and softball teams and leagues raise money for baseball/softball-related expenses. An example is the Grand Slam for Youth Baseball-branded concession stand at Minute Maid Park established in conjunction with ARAMARK. The stand is staffed by youth baseball and softball volunteers (ages 16 and over) during Astros games, with portions of the proceeds going to the teams and leagues. This portion of the GSFYB program has generated over $100,000 in proceeds for Houston area leagues and teams.

Information and applications for various Grand Slam for Youth Baseball programs can be found at www.astros.com/community or at www.gsfb.com

DRAYTON McLANE

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As Drayton McLane enters his 17th season as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Houston Astros Baseball Club in 2009, his philosophy remains consistent—bring a World Series championship to Houston, and make a positive difference in the community. Since he purchased the team in 1993, the Astros rank second in the National League and fifth in the Majors in winning percentage (.534) over 16 seasons from 1993-2008. The team has won 1,350 games while losing only 1,176 during Drayton's 16-year tenure of ownership.

The Houston Astros have enjoyed remarkable success on the field in recent years, reaching the postseason in six of the last 12 seasons with a Wild Card berth in 2004 and 2005, and National League Central Division titles in 1997, 1998, 1999, and 2001. Over the last 12 seasons, only the Yankees (11), Braves (9), and Red Sox (7) have made the playoffs more than Drayton's Astros (the Cardinals have also made the postseason six times in that span). In three of the last six seasons in which the team missed the postseason (2003, 2006, and 2008), the team was not eliminated from playoff contention until the final week of the season. Another highlight in Drayton's tenure occurred in 2001, when the Astros were named Organization of the Year by four outlets: TOPPS, SportsTicker, Baseball America and Baseball Weekly.

The success of the Astros has not been limited to the playing field. When he purchased the team, one of Drayton's main goals was to help make a positive difference in the community. This dream is being realized through both the players and the front office staff.

The Astros in Action Foundation was founded in 2000 and has served in thousands of projects, which work to strengthen the community, dispersing more than $4.2 million throughout the Houston community since 2000. The Astros organization attends charity events, visits children's hospitals and hosts underprivileged children at the ballpark. Drayton also serves on a number of boards and committees. He is actively involved with the Cooper Institute for Aerobics Research, Greater Houston Partnership, and the United Way. He serves as Chairman of the Board of Scott & White Hospital, immediate past chairman of Baylor University, on the board of directors of The Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A&M University, and provides leadership as an officer of the executive committee of the National Boy Scouts of America.

The Houston Astros' commitment to making a positive difference in the community was exemplified during the aftermath of Hurricane Ike, when Drayton, the Astros in Action Foundation, and the Astros players and staff made a combined $1 million donation to the Gulf Coast Ike Relief Fund. The team also enacted numerous initiatives during the final week of games at Minute Maid Park in September focused on relief for hurricane victims, including a blood drive, food and supply drives, and collection of donations for the Gulf Coast Ike Relief Fund.

The 2009 season marks the 10th anniversary of Minute Maid Park, and when the venue welcomed its first fans in 2000, few realized what a surge of energy it would bring to the downtown area. Drayton's passion for baseball and the Houston Astros franchise is shared by the citizens of Houston, as more than three million fans have visited the ballpark four times in the nine-year history of Minute Maid Park. 2007 marked the second consecutive season in which the club hit the three-million attendance mark – and the third in the last five years. In 2004, Houston fans set an attendance record and provided a level of excitement and enthusiasm that propelled the team to an 18-game home winning streak. Adjacent to historic Union Station, the street-level ballpark was designed to blend harmoniously into the diversity of its surroundings. Since construction began in 1998, the development around the ballpark has increased tremendously and has had a positive economic impact on the surrounding area. The 40,976-seat, state-of-the-art ballpark ushered in a new era of baseball in Houston, and the first nine seasons in the new downtown stadium have included some of the most successful in the history of the franchise by any barometer. In 2008, Minute Maid Park eclipsed the 25-million fan mark, exemplifying the popularity of both the Astros and the ballpark with Houston fans.

In the last five years, the Astros have hosted two Division Series, two League Championship Series, and two World Series games, as well as the 2004 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. The 75th edition of the Midsummer Classic was a treat for Astros fans and the city, as the world's top baseball talent converged on the city of Houston on July 13, 2004.

During the offseason following the 2006 season, Drayton and the Astros signed outfielder Carlos Lee to the largest contract in franchise history, a six-year, $100-million free-agent deal. Additionally, over the last four seasons, the club signed Roy Oswalt to a five-year, $73-million contract in August of 2006 and Lance Berkman to a six-year, $85-million deal in Spring Training of 2005, meaning these three stars will be in an Astros uniform until at least through the 2010 season.

Drayton's commitment to winning was never more evident than during the 2006 season, when the Astros had the fourth-highest payroll in the Majors and the highest in National League, in addition to the highest payroll in franchise history. The 2006 club was not eliminated from its quest for a third consecutive postseason appearance until the final day of the season. The 2005 season was the most successful season on the field for the Houston franchise in its history. The Astros reached heights not previously attained in franchise history, when the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series. On October 25, 2005, Minute Maid Park played host to the first World Series game played in the state of Texas.

Despite a 15-30 record through May 24 of the 2005 season, Drayton remained committed to the team's core group of players and believed that they could turn the season around. What followed was remarkable and historic, as the 2005 Astros rallied to become the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the playoffs after being as many as 15 games below .500 at one point during the season. The team won its first National League crown on October 19, 2005, defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in the last game ever played at Busch Stadium.

During his 16 years in Major League Baseball, Drayton has served on several MLB committees, including the Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Legislative Affairs, Ownership and Realignment committees, and the MLB Advanced Media committee.

After receiving his undergraduate degree from Baylor University and graduate degree from Michigan State University, Drayton returned to his hometown of Cameron, Texas, and began working in the family business, the McLane Company. What began as a small grocery distribution center grew, under Drayton's leadership, into an international firm with 18 divisions throughout the United States. Drayton worked his way through the ranks, beginning in the warehouse. Before merging the business with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. in 1991, Drayton had served as the company's President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board. He now devotes his time to McLane Group, the family holding company for M-C McLane International, McLane Advanced Technologies, McLane Portugal, Classic Foods, Leading Edge Brands, Hometown Favorites, LoneStar Plastics and the Houston Astros.

Over the years, Drayton has received many significant awards, most recently the 2008 Russell H. Perry Free Enterprise Award from the Dallas Baptist University, the Silver Buffalo from the Boy Scouts of America in 2004, the Distinguished Leadership Award from Leadership Houston in 2002, and, in 2000, the Father of the Year Award from the Houston Community Partners. In addition, he was presented with the Herbert Hoover Award from Food Distributors International in 1998, and was honored with the Golden Plate Award in 1997 from the American Academy of Achievement. He also received an honorary doctorate from Michigan State University and was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

On January 19, 2005, Scott and White Memorial Hospital honored Drayton and his wife by creating the Elizabeth and Drayton McLane Jr. Chair in Health and Wellness, an endowed chair that is a joint appointment between the hospital and the Texas A&M University Health Science Center College of Medicine. The chair focuses on several items, including preventive care, quality of life, and general well-being.

Additionally, Drayton received the Woodrow Wilson Award for Public Service from the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in January 2008. The award is given to those executives who, by their examples and their business practices, have shown a deep concern for the common good beyond the bottom line.

Drayton and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Temple, Texas, and have two sons: Drayton III and Denton. They happily welcomed two new additions to their family in 2004 as Drayton III and his wife, Amy, welcomed Robert Drayton McLane IV and Denton and his wife, Amy, welcomed Jefferson Blaylock McLane. In May 2007, Drayton III and Amy welcomed their second child, Benjamin Brooks. In December 2007, Amy and Denton had their second child, Jake.

Drayton and Elizabeth are active members of First Baptist Church of Temple, where Drayton teaches Sunday School and currently serves as an active Deacon and Chairman of the Deacon Board.

TAL SMITH PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

The 2009 season marks Tal Smith's 52nd as a Major League Baseball executive, his 15th consecutive with the Astros, and his 33rd year overall with the Houston franchise.

Tal started his baseball career in the farm department of the Cincinnati Reds in 1958, and his long tenure with the Astros has included the birth of two baseball stadiums, The Astrodome and Minute Maid Park. With his long tenure of service to the Houston baseball franchise, Tal is the main link between the Astros past and present as the club continues a new era in Houston.

Tal was a vital aide to owner Drayton McLane and to the interests of the club throughout the many stages of development of the Astros fabulous baseball facility, Minute Maid Park. The ballpark's field dimensions and unique angles were designed with Tal's input and assistance. Center field boasts a 10-degree hill - "Tal's Hill" - a tribute to his creativity and contribution to the Minute Maid Park project. Tal filled a similar role in ballpark development in 1963 when he became assistant to the president of the Houston Sports Association, acting primarily as a liaison for HSA and its' president, Judge Roy Hofheinz, during the construction of the Astrodome, a project which changed the face of stadiums and the city of Houston forever.

When natural grass failed to thrive under the Astrodome roof, Tal was responsible for finding an alternative playing surface. This led to the installation of AstroTurf, the synthetic turf that became widely used in stadiums throughout the country.

Tal returned to the Houston organization on Nov. 22, 1994, when he was named president of the club, and he celebrated his 50th season in Major League Baseball in 2007. Since 1981, he has been owner and operator of Houston-based Tal Smith Enterprises, a firm which has provided consulting services to 26 of the 30 Major League clubs. The most recognized functions have been in the preparation and presentation of salary arbitration cases (where Tal's firm has handled more than 900 filings and tried more than 150 cases), operational reviews, the financial appraisal of franchises and testimony as an expert witness in sports-related litigation. Tal also served as the sole arbitrator in two disputes involving Major League Baseball where the Commissioner was recused.

Before forming his own company, he worked for 23 years in management and administrative positions with Major League clubs, including president and general manager of the Astros and executive vice president of the New York Yankees. Widely respected by his peers throughout the country, Tal was chosen as one of 25 panelists by Baseball America in 1999 to provide an overview of baseball in the 20th century, highlighting the greatest feats, personalities and records in the game during the past 100 years.

Baseball America also recognized Tal for his career of achievements and innovations in December of 2005, when the publication honored him with the Lifetime Achievement Award at the Winter Meetings in Dallas.

Tal was the primary architect of Houston's first playoff club, the 1980 NL West Division champs. That season was followed by a dramatic five-game NLCS against the Phillies in which the last four games went into extra innings, leaving Houston six outs short of its first trip to the World Series. For his efforts, he was recognized by The Sporting News as the Major League Executive of the Year. He also has served in his current capacity for all six of the club's playoff teams over the last 11 seasons, including the first World Series team in franchise history. The 2005 Astros won the first National League title in team history and on October 25, 2005, Minute Maid Park hosted the first World Series game played in the State of Texas.

Tal came to Houston from Cincinnati in November of 1960 when he was named assistant to the new National League franchise's general manager, Gabe Paul. He was named farm director of the Colt .45s in April 1961 and held that post for two years. In April 1963, he became assistant to the president of the Houston Sports Association, acting primarily as liaison for HSA during the construction of the Astrodome. In the late 1960s, he also developed the formats and pioneered the implementation of the computerization of scouting reports and other player data. During the first of Tal's three terms with the Houston franchise, the club signed and developed more players that reached the Major Leagues than any other team.

Following completion of the Astrodome, Tal was named vice president and director of player personnel in December 1965. In 1972, he was named vice president and director of operations for Astrodome-Astros Stadium Corporation. In November 1973, he left Houston to become executive vice president of the New York Yankees, serving in that capacity until his return to Houston as general manager of the Astros in August 1975. He was named president of the club on Sept. 23, 1976.

In 1978, Tal led an expedition of Astros players and staff to Cuba, where they conducted baseball clinics and observed Cuban players.

Tal was born in 1933 in Framingham, Mass. He attended Culver Military Academy (IN) and Duke University where he earned a bachelor of arts degree in business administration in 1955. Before entering Duke, (at 16 years of age) Tal spent the summer as a staff announcer for the ABC radio affiliate in Durham, N.C. While at Duke, he broadcast Blue Devil basketball for stations in the region. During the summer recess in 1953, he worked as an assistant for the editorial staff at The Sporting News (at that time, the national baseball weekly) in St. Louis. Following graduation, he served as an officer in the United States Air Force for two years while continuing his radio work with various sports programs on a part-time basis. Upon completion of his military service, he worked as a news reporter for the Cape Cod (MA) Standard-Times before joining the Cincinnati Reds in December 1957 as an administrative assistant for scouting and minor league operations.

Tal was inducted into the Culver Academies Athletic Hall of Fame on September 28, 1996, and the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 4, 1998. He was presented with the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. He currently serves as Chairman of the Athletic Advisory Committee for the Culver Academies and is a member of the Advisory Board for Baseball America. He is a long-time member, and former officer, of SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) and currently serves as First Vice President of the Association of Professional Ball Players of America, an organization which was founded in 1924 to provide financial assistance for those professional baseball players, coaches, umpires, scouts, and other baseball personnel who are in need.

Tal and his wife, Jonnie, make their home in Houston. They have two children, Valerie and Randy, and two grandsons, Quinn and Shane. Tal's son Randy is a former general manager of the San Diego Padres (1993-95) and Detroit Tigers (1996-2001). Randy became the then-youngest general manager in Major League Baseball history when he was appointed to that position by the Padres in 1993 at age 29. Randy presently serves as the director of professional and international scouting for the Padres.

PAM GARDNER

PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Houston Astros President of Business Operations Pam Gardner currently serves as the longest-tenured female chief executive in Major League Baseball. The 2009 season marks her ninth as President of Business Operations, in addition to her 21st overall with the organization. She was named to her current post in August of 2001. She oversees business and financial aspects for the Club, including all revenue areas, customer service, building and financial operations, sponsorship and ticket sales, as well as community marketing, public relations and special events.

Under Pam's leadership as team president, the club has consistently ranked among the top-drawing clubs in Major League Baseball. The Astros drew a franchise-record season crowd during their National League Wild Card season in 2004, as 3,087,872 fans attended games at Minute Maid Park. In 2007, the club drew 3,000,000 fans for the second consecutive year as well as the fourth time in the nine seasons of baseball in Houston's downtown ballpark. In 2008, the Astros welcomed the 25 millionth fan at Minute Maid Park. The Astros business group organized the ballpark activities as the club hosted playoff games in three of the last eight seasons since 2001, including the first World Series game ever played in the State of Texas in 2005. Minute Maid Park also played host to the All-Star Game in 2004.

In ceremonies held in Houston in November of 2006, Pam became the first female executive inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. In April 2005, Gardner was recognized by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 Most Influential Women in Sports. She was also included in a special exhibit at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, saluting women in baseball. She received the prestigious Marguerite Ross Barnett leadership award from the Houston Area Urban League in 2008 and was also named one of the "Women on the Move" by Texas Executive Women and the Houston Chronicle.

She joined the team in 1989 as director of communications, developing advertising and marketing campaigns for the Club. In 1994, she was named director of marketing, where her role expanded to include more strategic planning.

Pam became Vice President of Marketing in 1996, overseeing advertising, marketing and ticket sales areas for the Astros, with emphasis on growing general revenue areas. As the dream of a new ballpark began to become a reality for the team, her focus was shifted to include a leadership role in the design and development of Minute Maid Park. While working on the construction and marketing of the new facility, she continued overseeing marketing for the team.

Pam was named senior vice president of sales and marketing in 1999, and added sponsorship sales and marketing operations to her responsibilities. She spearheaded the advertising and marketing efforts for both the team and the new ballpark in its inaugural season, as the Astros began a new era of excitement for baseball fans in Houston and Texas. During that time, she led the development of the new logo and uniform design and implementation for 2000 and beyond. The club also set franchise attendance records in three consecutive seasons (1998-2000) in the Astrodome, in addition to the current franchise standard set in 2004 at Minute Maid Park.

Pam has also worked to make Minute Maid Park a destination for a multitude of events other than baseball games. The stadium has played host to numerous charity events, including major fund-raising galas for the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, the United Way and the annual Astros Wives' Gala. Additionally, the annual Houston College Classic, a six-team tournament held in late February, has developed into one of the premier early-season college baseball tournaments in the country.

The Astros in Action Foundation, which works to enhance the quality of life in the Houston community, has also increased its efforts under Pam's leadership in terms of both the volume of appearances the club makes in the community along with the amount of money donated to charitable projects through the Foundation. The Club's annual Race for the Pennant, Lead Off Luncheon and Alumni Golf Tournament are recent fundraising additions for the Foundation. In January of 2009, the Astros announced the opening of an Urban Youth Academy in Northwest Houston, in conjunction with State Representative Sylvester Turner, the City of Houston, and Major League Baseball. The Academy will provide instruction and fields for underserved youth to hone baseball skills. Pam currently serves on the board of the Astros in Action Foundation, and is also a member of the board of the Houston Area Women's Center, which provides shelter and support services to survivors of domestic violence. Pam is a member of the board and Executive Committee of Central Houston, Inc., a private, non-profit organization supported by business institutions with the purpose of redeveloping and revitalizing downtown. She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Newfield Exploration Company. She is a member of Texas Executive Women and Opportunity Houston/Greater Houston Partnership Executive Women's Partnership.

A native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stout, Pam joined the Astros after working for ten years with an advertising and public relations agency in Chicago, serving her last five years as the vice president of the entertainment division.

Gardner has two children, Meaghan and Coleman Anderson.

ED WADE GENERAL MANAGER

On September 20, 2007, Ed Wade was named the 11th general manager in Houston Astros franchise history and enters his second full season as general manager in 2009. A veteran of 32 Major League seasons, Ed returned to the General Manager's seat after spending two years as a professional scout for the San Diego Padres. He previously served for eight seasons as the General Manager of the Philadelphia Phillies (1998-2005), having been named to that post on December 9, 1997.

During his first offseason with the Astros, Ed made significant changes to the club's roster, and the results greatly improved on the field, as the 2008 Astros won 86 games, a 13-game improvement from 2007 and the second-largest turnaround in franchise history. The Astros were also 42-24 in the Second Half, the best record of any National League team after the All-Star Break and the second-best in the Majors, trailing only the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

In December 2007, Ed acquired Jose Valverde from Arizona and Miguel Tejada from Baltimore. Valverde led the National League and tied a franchise record with 44 saves, while Tejada made his fifth All-Star appearance, hitting .283 and starting at shortstop on a team that made the fewest errors in the National League during a non-strike season. Also during the 2007 offseason, Ed acquired outfielder Michael Bourn and right-hander Geoff Geary from Philadelphia while also signing free-agent second baseman and 2007 postseason standout Kazuo Matsui to a three-year deal.

Strengthening the Astros bench was also a priority during Ed's first offseason with the Astros, and he did so by signing free agents Geoff Blum and Darin Erstad while retaining infielder Mark Loretta. Blum posted career-high totals with 14 home runs and 53 RBI, while Erstad played a prominent role in the team's success as well, hitting .276 in 140 games. Loretta hit .280 with 12 pinch-hit RBI and joined Erstad in the top 10 in the league in pinch hits with 11. Additionally, Rule 5 draftee Wesley Wright, veteran reliever Doug Brocail, infielder David Newhan, outfielder Reggie Abercrombie, and left-hander Tim Lincecum each played strong roles in the club's turnaround in 2008.

Ed also acquired two players in July who had a major impact on the club's success in the Second Half. Left-handed pitcher Randy Wolf was 6-2 with a 3.57 ERA after being acquired from San Diego on July 22, and the Astros were 10-2 in his 12 starts for the club. Additionally, right-handed reliever LaTroy Hawkins, acquired from the Yankees on July 31, allowed only one earned run in 21 innings spanning 24 appearances in August and September, posting a 2-0 record and a 0.43 ERA.

Ed acquired a strong collection of talented players while with Philadelphia via draft, trades, and free agency. Under his watch, the Phillies drafted future All-Stars such as Chase Utley (also NL Silver Slugger in 2006 and 2007), Wolf, and left-hander Cole Hamels. Additionally, the last two National League MVP's were drafted and developed while Ed was the Phillies GM, 2006 NL Most Valuable Player and 2005 NL Rookie of the Year Ryan Howard (All-Star and Silver Slugger in 2006) and 2007 MVP and shortstop Jimmy Rollins. The club also drafted outfielder Pat Burrell (1998) and right-handed pitcher Brett Myers (1999) during Ed's tenure. Utley, Howard, Hamels, Rollins, Myers, and Burrell have served as the core of the Phillies' consecutive NL Eastern Division titles over the last two seasons.

The Phillies selected outfielder Burrell in 1998, who has hit 251 home runs for the club to date. Other Major Leaguers drafted or developed while Ed was the Phillies general manager include players such as Bourn, Ryan Madson, Carlos Ruiz, Johnny Estrada, Jason Michaels, Marlon Byrd, and Marlon Anderson. Additionally, the Phillies selected outfielder Shane Victorino in the Rule 5 Draft at the 2004 Winter Meetings, who has hit at least 10 home runs and stolen 30-plus bases for the Phillies in each of the last two seasons.

Ed also signed free-agent first baseman Jim Thome preceding the 2003 season, who hit 96 home runs for Philadelphia from 2003-05. That same offseason, he acquired right-handed pitcher Kevin Millwood, who pitched a no-hitter for the Phillies and won 23 games in two seasons for the club, including 14 in 2003. During the offseason that followed the 2003 season, Ed acquired left-handed pitcher Billy Wagner from the Astros. Wagner appeared in the 2005 All-Star game for the Phillies and saved 59 games in two seasons for the club (2004-05).

The 53-year-old began his baseball career in 1977 as an intern in the Phillies public relations department. In 1977, he was named public relations assistant for the Astros and was promoted to public relations director in 1979. In 1981, he left Houston to become the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Pirates, and he remained with that club for five seasons.

In 1986, Ed returned to Houston to work as an associate for Tal Smith Enterprises, a firm which has provided consulting services to 26 of the 30 Major League clubs. The most recognized functions have been in the preparation of arbitration cases, the financial appraisal of franchises, operational review, contract negotiations and other baseball-related matters. Ed worked for the company until May 5, 1989, when he rejoined the Phillies as assistant to the general manager. In 1995, he was promoted to assistant general manager, and he served in that role until assuming the general manager duties for Philadelphia in 1998.

Ed is a 1977 graduate of Temple University, where he played baseball and received his bachelor's degree in journalism. In 2003, Ed received the Lew Klein Alumni in the Media Award and was inducted into the Temple University and School of Communications Hall of Fame.

Ed was born on January 31, 1956 in Carbondale, PA. He is a member of the Northeastern chapter of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame and was a member of the steering committee for the USA Baseball team that captured the gold medal at the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia, a ballclub that included current Astro Roy Oswalt.

Ed and his wife Roxanne have three children. Ryan is a 2006 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and is serving as an Officer in the Navy. Erin graduated from Villanova University and is employed as the Executive Assistant to Villanova Men's Head Basketball Coach Jay Wright. Maureen is a communications major at West Virginia University.

Ricky Bennett begins his fifth season with the Houston Astros as the assistant general manager and director of player development.

Ricky oversees the operation of the club's player development system and six minor league affiliates, while also fulfilling his duties as assistant general manager. In his first three seasons in Houston from 2005-08, 22 players from the club's minor league teams have made their Major League debuts. Ricky also assists General Manager Ed Wade with all aspects of Major League operations, including player trades and free-agent acquisitions, contract negotiations and coordination of Major League scouting efforts.

Before joining the Astros, Ricky spent eight years with the Detroit Tigers, including serving as the club's director of minor league operations for three seasons. He first joined the Tigers front office in 1997 as the assistant to baseball operations, and was promoted to assistant director of player development and scouting in 2002. He was originally hired by the club in 1996 as an area scout in the Southeast, covering Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and the Florida Panhandle.

Ricky was signed by the Chicago White Sox and played five years of professional baseball, including three seasons in the White Sox farm system (1992-94). He graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1992 with a degree in public administration and affairs and played for the OU baseball team, helping lead the Sooners to the 1992 College World Series.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Ricky graduated from Cincinnati's Moeller High School where he was a teammate of Ken Griffey, Jr. He was named all-state in both baseball and football in 1988 when he was runner-up for the Athlete of the Year award in the state of Ohio.

He and his wife, Tracey, reside in Houston, with their two children, daughter Jessica (4/15/99), and son Ricky III (4/15/02).

DAVID GOTTFRIED

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/PLAYER RELATIONS

David Gottfried begins his 11th year in Houston's baseball operations department and his third as assistant general manager, player relations, after being named to the post in December of 2006. David will continue to assist General Manager Ed Wade in all areas within the baseball operations department, including free agent and 40-man roster contract negotiations, Major League rule compliance, and budgeting.

David was most recently the club's senior director of baseball operations, a position he was appointed to in January of 2005. In his role as senior director of baseball operations, he was involved in scouting, player research, contract negotiations, budgeting, visas, and affiliate relations. He joined the Astros in 1998 and spent two seasons as the club's baseball operations assistant. In the fall of 2000, he was named Director of Minor League Administration and was responsible for all administrative tasks related to the operation of the Astros farm system.

David joined the Astros after spending five years with the Oakland Athletics' Class A affiliate in Modesto, Calif., serving as general manager of the club for two seasons, in 1997 and 1998. Before his stint in Modesto, he spent two seasons with the Arizona Fall League, including the league's inaugural season of 1992. He spent the 1992 season with the Grand Canyon Rafters as their director of operations and moved to the AFL league office in 1993 to assist with marketing and operations-related matters.

A native of Longmeadow, Mass., David received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hofstra University in 1992. He and his wife, Tracy, reside in Manvel, Texas with their sons Benjamin and Connor.

BOBBY HECK

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/ DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

On October 30, 2008, Bobby Heck was promoted to assistant general manager, scouting, and had his contract extended through 2010. Heck joined the Astros as the director of amateur scouting on October 24, 2007, from the Milwaukee Brewers organization, where he served for eight seasons as that club's Eastern Scouting Supervisor, including the drafts of 2000-07.

While with the Brewers during the last eight seasons, Heck helped to restock a minor league system that was ranked 30th overall by Baseball America in 2000. In each of the last five seasons from 2003-07, the publication has placed the Milwaukee minor league system in terms of talent in the top five among all organizations. While Heck's primary responsibilities with the Brewers focused on the Eastern portion of the United States, he also scouted in Latin America for both free-agent and professional players as well as the minor leagues, Major Leagues, Instructional League, and the Arizona Fall League. He also had national scouting responsibilities for the amateur ranks in addition to his supervisory role on the East Coast. Heck was also a top assistant for Brewers Special Assistant to the General Manager Jack Zduriencik, who was named the 2007 Baseball America Executive of the Year for the club's efforts in scouting and player development.

While credit for the signing of players goes to area scouts, Heck scouted the following players that the Brewers eventually selected under the umbrella of his cross-checker responsibilities: Ryan Braun, Prince Fielder, Tony Gwynn, Jr., Corey Hart, Dennis Sarfate, and Rickie Weeks. He also scouted each of the club's last four first-round selections: Mark Rogers (2004), Braun (2005), Jeremy Jeffress (2006), and Matt LaPorta (2007).

Bobby has 18 seasons of scouting experience, including five seasons as an area scout for the Texas Rangers (1995-99, including the drafts from 1996-99) and prior work for the Brewers as an associate scout (1991-95).

A native of Jersey City, NJ who grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, Bobby and his wife, Nicole, live in Kingwood, TX, with their daughter, 13-year-old Jordyn.

FRED NELSON

DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

Fred Nelson enters his 23rd season in the Astros organization and his second as the club's director of professional scouting. He was previously the club's coordinator of professional scouting.

During his tenure with the Astros, Nelson has served in a variety of roles, including as the club's director of minor league operations, special assistant to the general manager, Major League and professional scout, and also as an advance scout (2000-04). Nelson previously served as assistant director of player development with the Chicago White Sox in 1985 before moving to Houston. He also managed three seasons at Niagara Falls in the New York-Penn League from 1982-84.

A native of Phoenix, Ariz., Nelson earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Arizona State University, where he was an All-American infielder and a member of the 1967 national championship team. He was inducted into the Arizona State University Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

Following his playing career at Arizona State, Nelson was drafted by the Dodgers and played three years in their organization. He returned to his alma mater in 1972 as an assistant coach, and was named head coach at Missouri-St. Louis in 1973. He also served as the head baseball coach and assistant athletic director at Scottsdale (AZ) Community College from 1974-84.

Nelson makes his offseason home in Sugar Land, Texas, with his wife, Carolyn. They have four children: sons, Troy, Scott, Eric, and daughter Alex.

FELIX FRANCISCO

DIRECTOR OF LATIN AMERICAN SCOUTING

Felix Francisco was named as the Astros Director of Latin American Scouting on November 5, 2007. American scouting efforts, with particular emphasis in the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Colombia, Panama and Mexico. He will also have involvement with the Astros' academies in the Dominican Republic, Venezuela and Colombia.

Francisco, 36, began his scouting career in 1995 as a part-time scout with the Atlanta Braves. In 1998, he became the Braves' Dominican Republic scouting supervisor and remained in that position until 2001, when he assumed the same position with the San Diego Padres. In 2004, he was named the Padres' Latin American scouting supervisor. He resigned his position with the Padres earlier this month.

While with the Braves, Francisco, who resides in Santo Domingo, DR, was involved in Atlanta's signings of Rafael Furcal, Wilson Betemit, Jose Capellan, Merkin Valdez, Nelson Payano and Andy Marte. In his time with the Padres, he signed a number of the Padres' top prospects, including Yordany Ramirez, Oneli Perez (now with the White Sox), Joel Santos (now with the Cubs), Juan Ciriaco, Julio Sanchez and Jose Ceda (now with the Cubs).

GLEN BARKER

DIRECTOR OF PACIFIC RIM SCOUTING

Former Astros outfielder Glen Barker was named as the Astros Director of Pacific Rim Scouting on Nov. 6, 2007. In his current role, Barker will oversee all of the franchise's scouting efforts in the Pacific Rim region, including Korea, Japan, China, Taiwan, and Australia. The 36-year-old Barker has served as a professional scout for the Astros during the last three years, including responsibility for the Eastern League and International League in 2005 and 2006. He also scouted the Pacific Coast League in 2007.

Barker played three seasons in the Major Leagues for the Astros from 1999-2001. In 235 career big league games, he hit .232 (38-for-164) with three home runs, 18 RBI, and 30 stolen bases. Barker was originally selected by the Detroit Tigers in the 11th round of the June 1993 draft.

His Pacific Rim playing experience includes two seasons in the Australian Winter League from 1997-98. As a minor league player in the Detroit Tigers system, he spent two months in the offseason following the 1998 campaign with the Hanshin Tigers of the Japanese League as part of a working agreement between the Detroit and Hanshin franchises.

Barker is a native of Albany, NY, and is a graduate of the College of St. Rose in New York with a degree in chemistry/mathematics. He and his wife, Fion, make their home in Houston with their son, Kai.

CHARLIE NORTON

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS

Charlie Norton begins his eighth season in the Astros organization and his second as the club's director of research and analysis. In his current role, Charlie is responsible for player research, statistical analysis, waivers/transactions acquisitions, overseeing the player evaluation system, including scouting reports, assisting the Pro and Major League Scouts and Staff, and helps with contract negotiations and budgeting. He recently spent three seasons as the club's Assistant Director of Baseball Operations (2005-07).

Charlie is heavily involved with the club's operations in Greeneville, Tennessee, where he oversees the business operations. He previously spent two years as the General Manager of the Martinsville Astros (2001-2003), the Astros Rookie League affiliate prior to Greeneville.

He came to the Houston organization after spending 1999-2001 working for the San Diego Padres Class AA affiliate in Mobile, Alabama. While working in Mobile, he served as the Director of Season Ticket Sales.

A native of Chicago, IL, Charlie received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Southern Illinois University, in Carbondale. He also completed the Major League Baseball Scout Development Program in 2003.

Charlie and his wife, Wendie, make their home in The Woodlands, TX, with their two daughters Charlee and Kaylee.

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Enos Cabell is in his fifth season as a special assistant to the general manager after being named to the post on November 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists General Manager Ed Wade and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other special projects and assignments within the scouting area.

A 15-year veteran of the Major Leagues, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85, including his overall best season in 1977 when he hit .282 (176x625) with 68 RBI, a career-high 36 doubles, and 16 home runs. He was named the team's MVP in 1978 after setting a then-club mark with 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He also led the league with 162 games played and 660 at-bats that season. Enos stole over 30 bases every season from 1976-1979. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos provided analysis on HSE telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He makes his home in Missouri City, Texas, and has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

JEFF BAGWELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

On December 15, 2006, the day in which the franchise's all-time home run leader announced his retirement at Minute Maid Park, the Houston Astros named franchise icon Jeff Bagwell as a special assistant to the general manager and announced an ongoing personal services contract between Jeff and the club.

Jeff, 39, hit 449 home runs and drove in 1,529 runs in the 15 seasons that he played for the Astros from 1991-2005. He is only player in Houston franchise history to win the Most Valuable Player Award, earning the honors for the National League in 1994 after hitting .368 with 39 home runs and 116 RBI. Jeff was the third player in the history of the award to be a unanimous first-place selection. He is also the only Astro to win the NL Rookie of the Year Award, capturing that distinction in 1991 by hitting .294 with 15 home runs and 82 RBI. He is one of only eight players all-time to win both honors in a career.

A four-time All-Star, Jeff is the career leader for the club in home runs, RBI, and walks, while ranking second in club history with 2,314 hits. He recorded 31 career multi-homer games, and since the end of the 1972 season, only Jeff and Cal Ripken hit 400 or more home runs while playing their entire careers with the same team. Jeff was the Astros' Opening Day first baseman for 15 consecutive seasons, and he is one of only 12 players all-time and the only first baseman with at least 400 home runs and 200 stolen bases. Additionally, Jeff is in a group of only seven first basemen in Major League history to record at least 1,500 runs scored and 1,500 RBI.

Jeff earned NL Silver Slugger Awards three times (1994, 1997, and 1999) and earned a Rawlings Gold Glove Award once (1994). Additionally, he is the only Astro with six consecutive 100-RBI seasons (1996-2001) and he recorded eight consecutive campaigns with 30-plus home runs (1996-2003). Also in 2001, Jeff joined Jimmie Foxx, Lou Gehrig, and Babe Ruth as the only players in MLB history to collect 30 home runs, 100 RBI, and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons (1996-2001; Albert Pujols accomplished this later, from 2001-06).

At the time of his retirement, Jeff ranked 28th on the Major League career list in home runs, 52nd in runs scored, tied for 52nd in doubles, tied for 41st in RBI, 30th in extra-base hits, and 24th in walks.

In his current role with the Astros, Jeff assists the club's baseball operations staff with its Major and minor league player development programs, the Astros hitting development program, the amateur draft, scouting and minor league team operations and evaluations. He will also spend time with the club in Spring Training, providing instruction to players and staff and evaluating both Major and minor league players.

Bagwell will also travel with the Major League club on selected road trips and will observe the organization's minor league clubs during the regular season. He will also make various promotional appearances during the year, including the annual Astros FanFest and Winter Caravan.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his second season as a special assistant to General Manager Ed Wade. The agreement between Craig and the Astros was announced on February 11, 2008.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired following a stellar, 20-year career at the end of the 2007 season. He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 home runs, 1,175 runs batted in, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games played.

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007. His 3,060 hits rank 20th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history and also rank fifth all-time.

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken, Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, and he received five Silver Slugger Awards. He also received four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, and Craig was also a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds the National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks 2nd all-time) and for hits in Interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

In his new role with the Astros, Craig will assist in a variety of areas. He will work with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, Major and minor league talent evaluation, and will also serve as an instructor during Spring Training and during the annual Elite Camp at Minute Maid Park.

Additionally, Craig will also travel with the Major League club on selected road trips and will participate in the club's community development program, including appearances on the Astros Winter Caravan, FanFest, and Astroline.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Before Game 3 of the 2007 World Series in Colorado, Craig Biggio was honored as the 2007 recipient of the national Roberto Clemente Award. The award recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. It is named in honor of the former Pirates outfielder whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. Clemente died in a plane crash while attempting to transport relief supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua on Dec. 31, 1972.

Since the early 1990s, Biggio has served as the main spokesperson for The Sunshine Kids, a support organization for children with cancer and their families. He has hosted an annual baseball party at Minute Maid Park, in which more than 100 children with cancer play baseball with Biggio serving as the pitcher. Biggio also hosts a holiday party at the Sunshine Kids house in Houston that the Biggio family helped restore and furnish.

Through his annual golf tournament, Biggio has raised more than $2.5 million for the organization.

Biggio joins a list of previous Roberto Clemente Award winners that includes 13 Hall of Famers, such as Tony Gwynn, Cal Ripken Jr. and Rod Carew. Astros manager Cecil Cooper was the recipient in 1983.

JULIO LINARES SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

A member of the Astros organization since 1973, Julio Linares begins his fifth season as special assistant for Dominican scouting and development. He previously spent six seasons as director of Dominican Republic Operations.

Julio served as manager of the Gulf Coast Astros in 1997-98. Overall, he has managed Houston's Rookie League club for 16 years (Sarasota 1977-80, 1984-87; Gulf Coast 1988-93, 97-98). He also spent three years at the Major League level as the Astros bench coach from 1994-96.

Julio played 15 seasons in the minor leagues as an infielder and outfielder and finished ninth in the Pacific Coast League with a .308 average in 1969. He retired after the 1972 season and began his coaching career with the Astros in 1973 at Covington in the Appalachian League.

Julio and his wife, Damaris, reside in San Pedro. He has five sons, Amaury, Rodney, Erick, Brian, and Michael. His son Rodney is the manager for Houston's Rookie-level team in Greenville.

MATT GALANTE SPECIAL ADVISOR

Longtime Astros coach Matt Galante begins his first season as a senior advisor. He served the previous three seasons as a special assistant to the general manager. Matt returned to Houston on January 13, 2005, when he was named a consultant for baseball operations. Matt rejoined the organization after spending three seasons with the New York Mets as their third base and infield coach from 2002-2003, and their bench and infield coach in 2004. He is heavily involved with the Astros minor league system and participates in evaluating and teaching players at the Major and minor league levels throughout the regular season. He also scouts National East teams and helps with the composition of the Astros Major League team.

An Italian-American born in Brooklyn, NY, Matt served as the manager of Italy's team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in March 2006.

Matt previously spent 21 years with the Astros organization from 1980-2001, the longest tenure by any coach in franchise history. He served 16 seasons as a member of the Major League coaching staff (1985-96, 1998-2001) and worked for five managers: Bob Lillis, Hal Lanier, Art Howe, Terry Collins and Larry Dierker. Matt also managed in Houston's minor league system for five years, from 1980-82 with Double A Columbus of the Southern League and 1983-84 with Triple A Tucson of the Pacific Coast League.

Matt was a coach every season from 1985-2001 with the Astros except for 1997. That year, he began the season as a special assistant to General Manager Gerry Hunsicker, however, four games into the minor league campaign, he was named the manager of the Astros Triple A New Orleans club of the Pacific Coast League. He guided the club to an overall record of 74-70, a second place finish in the PCL's Western Division and a berth in the playoffs. From 1998-2000, he served as Houston's bench coach and in 2001, he was the third base coach for the Astros. Matt also took over as the Astros interim manager from June 14-July 14, 1999 while Larry Dierker recovered from brain surgery. Houston went 13-14 with Galante at the helm.

Prior to his tenure with Houston, Matt served as a scout and minor league instructor for the Mets in 1978 and then managed New York's Class A Little Falls club of the New York-Penn League in 1979. He began his managerial career in the Milwaukee Brewers organization in 1973 with Class A Newark of the New York-Penn League and stayed with the Brewers through 1977, winning a Class A Midwest League title with Danville in 1974. He also worked as a player-coach with Triple A Evansville of the American Association in 1973 before beginning his managerial career later that season.

Matt was drafted in the 25th round of the June 1966 Free Agent Draft by the New York Yankees and played in their farm system through the 1971 season. In 1972, he was traded to Milwaukee. Matt was an All-American second baseman at St. John's University his senior year when he batted .402 and helped the Redmen qualify for the College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

Matt resides in Staten Island, NY. He and his wife, Mary, have three children: sons Paul and Matthew Jr., and daughter Mary. His son, Matthew Jr., was a 13th-round selection of the St. Louis Cardinals in the June 2000 draft. Matthew Jr. played for the Cardinals organization for two years before being signed by the Mets in the 2001 offseason. He played for Class A Capitol City of the South Atlantic League in 2002 and split the 2003 season between Capital City and Class A St. Lucie of the Florida State League. Matthew Jr. played for Double A Binghamton of the Eastern League in 2004 and now owns a business.

BARRY WATERS

DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVEL

Barry Waters returns for his 25th season of overseeing all aspects of Astros travel and accommodations across the country. Recognized as one of the best in his field, Barry was selected to lead the Major League Baseball All-Star tour of Japan following the 1996 season. His peers voted him Traveling Secretary of the Year in 1992.

Barry was named the club's traveling secretary on an interim basis in July of 1986 before being named to the post on a full-time basis in September of that year. His role was expanded in 1993 when he was named director of baseball administration with duties that include overseeing budget and administration.

A native of Ashland, Mass., Barry joined the organization in 1980 and filled several positions before being named traveling secretary. He also worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers for one year before joining the Astros.

Marian Harper begins her 18th season with the Astros in 2009. In March 2008, she was named vice president of foundation development and currently oversees the expansion and day-to-day operations of the Astros in Action Foundation. The AIAF was established in 2000 during the Astros inaugural season at Minute Maid Park. The mission of the Astros in Action Foundation is to use the strength of the National Pastime to enhance the quality of life in the community through educational, health, and spiritual endeavors. Major fundraisers for the foundation include the Astros FanFest, Leadoff Luncheon, Race for the Pennant - 5K Run/Walk, and the Astros Alumni Celebrity Golf Classic. Marian also oversees the Grand Slam for Youth Baseball program with Minute Maid.

She was named vice president of community development on July 22, 1999, after serving as the director of that department since November 1997. Under her guidance, the department assisted thousands of organizations annually through memorabilia and monetary donations, appearances, community awareness programs, player involvement, and the Astros mascot program. She was also responsible for all youth outreach initiatives including educational programs and the youth fan club.

She joined the Astros in 1992 as Promotions Coordinator, overseeing purchasing, distribution and account services for in-game activities. Marian is a native of Pittsburg, Texas. She currently serves on the Board of the Northeast YMCA where she was named 2002 Volunteer of the Year, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, and The Ensemble Theatre. In November 2007, she was presented with the prestigious Toy Cannon Award by Astros icon Jimmy Wynn at the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame Dinner.

ROSI HERNANDEZ VICE-PRESIDENT, MARKET DEVELOPMENT

Rosi Hernandez joined the Houston Astros in July of 1999 when she was named vice president of market development. She has helped grow the Astros' fan base among Houston diverse markets with unique marketing and promotional efforts, including the team's award-winning Spanish web site, and the Hispanic advertising campaign efforts.

Rosi also leads the club's efforts in developing special multi-cultural events to such as the Astros Hispanic and Asian Heritage events, and works closely with international journalists in producing articles for the team's website, the Astros Magazine and the Astros Spanish newspaper, "Crónicas de los Astros." In addition, she works closely with the club's sponsorship and sales team in creating and selling packages to prospective clients. Since 2004, she has spearheaded the day-to-day operations of the Astros Spanish game broadcasts on Univision Radio. In 2006, Rosi helped develop and produce the Astros' first bilingual monthly TV special, "Contacto con los Astros," which airs on FS Houston, and lead the team's efforts in the production of a 15-game Spanish TV broadcast package in 2008.

In 2001, Rosi received the Triunfando Award for Female Senior Executive of the Year from the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. In 2005, she was named among the 100 Hispanic Elite Women of the Year by the national business publication Hispanic Business Magazine. In 2009, Rosi received the ABC/Channel 13 "Woman of Distinction Award" for her commitment and involvement in community service for the City of Houston by the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America.

Rosi serves on numerous boards and advisory committees, including Greater Houston Conventions and Visitors Bureau, the Latin Women's Initiative, the AMIGOS de las Americas and the Girl Scouts of San Jacinto Council, the second largest council in the nation.

A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, Rosi received her bachelor's degree in newspaper journalism in 1989 and her master's in public relations in 1991, both from Syracuse University. She and her husband, Jorge, and daughter, Andrea Victoria, make their home in Clear Lake.

MARTY PRICE VICE-PRESIDENT, GUEST EXPERIENCES

An accomplished executive in the hospitality industry, Marty Price joined the Houston Astros as Vice President of Guest Experiences in February of 2007. Marty oversees customer services, guest relations, and is the organization's liaison with Aramark, the concessionaire for Minute Maid Park. He also manages facility upgrades throughout the ballpark, including the "5 and 7 Grille," suite renovations and the new Astros authentic merchandise program featuring game-used items. He joined the Astros from Levy Restaurants, where he most recently served as the regional director of operations.

Marty first worked at Houston's new downtown ballpark when he served as the general manager of Aramark at Minute Maid Park, directing daily operations and managing business maturation in the home of the Houston Astros. In 2001, he was named the district manager of the Aramark sports and entertainment division, overseeing all of the company's operations at Minute Maid Park, the Compaq Center, Verizon Wireless Theater, the Houston Arena Theater, Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion, and all Texas A&M University sports facilities in College Station, Texas.

Marty joined Aramark in 1989, and in addition to his tenure at Minute Maid Park, he also worked for the company at The Astrodome as the sales director for luxury suites (1989-92) and the division manager of premium services (1995-97). He also served as the general manager of Sam Houston Race Park from 1992-94 and the Louisiana Superdome from 1997-99.

Additionally, Marty has a long-time association with the Astros franchise that predates his work history, as when he was nine years old, his father was the on-call doctor at The Astrodome.

Marty has a bachelor's degree in hotel and restaurant management from the University of Denver and an MBA with a concentration in finance from St. Thomas University in Houston. He and his wife, Kim, reside in Houston and have a seven-year-old daughter, Marley, and their son, Blake, was born on Nov. 8, 2008.

KALA SORENSON

VICE-PRESIDENT, CONFERENCE CENTER AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Kala Sorenson, responsible for all non-baseball events at Minute Maid Park and Union Station Conference Center, is in her ninth year with the Astros. She was promoted to vice president of special events on Jan. 1, 2001, after originally joining the organization as director of the conference center.

Kala is a Houston native who attended Klein High School and the University of Texas. She worked from 1996-2000 for the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau as convention sales manager, establishing relationships in the sports industry and various associations in the Midwest.

Beginning her career in the hospitality industry, Sorenson worked closely with Major League Baseball, the NBA and the NFL as the Sports Market Sales Manager for the Westin Galleria and Westin Oaks Hotels in Houston.

Kala is a member of the board of directors for the Houston Downtown Alliance and the board of directors for the Epilepsy Foundation of Southwest Texas. She is also a member of Meeting Professionals International.

JOHN SORRENTINO

VICE-PRESIDENT, SPONSORSHIP SALES

After two years as vice president of business development, John was named vice president of sponsorship sales on May 15th, 2007. In addition to developing new corporate sales opportunities, John is now responsible for all revenue categories including print, radio, television, in-stadium signage and promotions as well as spring training revenue enhancements. The 2008 season will be John's 22nd with the franchise.

John became the club's vice president of ticket sales and services on July 22, 1999, managing the entire ticket department at Minute Maid Park, including group, season and individual game ticket sales, as well as box office and customer service management.

The 2004 season turned out to be the most prosperous year for John and his staff. The Astros set a franchise record for attendance, drawing 3,087,872 fans to Minute Maid Park, including 24 sellouts. John was also responsible for the tickets and distribution services for the 2004 All-Star Game at Minute Maid Park and related events. The new club attendance record eclipsed the mark set during the 2000 season, the inaugural campaign at Minute Maid Park, when 3,056,139 tickets were sold at the new downtown ballpark, becoming the then-only Texas sports franchise to surpass the three million mark. The team drew more than 2.9 million fans in 2001, then the third-highest total in franchise history.

John joined the Astros in 1987 as a ticket account executive and moved to the Community Relations department in 1989 as director of community services before moving back to the ticket services operations. From 1999-2000 he oversaw the season ticket relocation of the Astrodome's season ticket holders to Minute Maid Park.

The 1983 graduate of Texas A&M began his career as a sales manager for Houston Gamblers USFL football. John serves on the board of directors for SEARCH, a United Way agency organization that is responsible for enhancing and improving the lives of Houston's homeless. He also serves on the charity board of directors for the Administaff Small Business Classic Senior PGA Tour event, held in Spring every October.

Sorrentino and his four children, Andrew, J.D., Patricia, and Hannah, reside in Kingwood.

LARRY STOKES

VICE-PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Larry Stokes was named the Astros vice president of human resources in August 2008 and is responsible for employee relations, administration, recruitment, payroll and benefits for the club and its subsidiaries. In his previous role with the club, he served as senior director of human resources for five seasons.

Prior to joining the Astros in 2004, he worked for five years at Warner Bros Studios in Burbank, California, first, as the director, corporate employee and labor relations, and later as the director of human resources for one of the studio's largest field divisions.

Larry also served four years as a senior employee relations representative for the Riverside County Department of Human Resources where he represented the County in arbitrations, mediations and union negotiations.

While an employee relations representative for Alexis Risk Management, he pursued his degree from University of LaVerne in organizational management and later attended the Glendale University College of Law.

For six years from 1984-90, Larry served as an officer in the California Highway Patrol.

In 2004, Larry received the Senior Professional in Human Resources certification from the Society of Human Resource Management.

JENNIFER RANDALL

VICE-PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Jennifer Randall was named vice president of marketing in July 2008 after joining the Astros organization in 2006 as senior director of marketing. Randall oversees the day-to-day operations of the advertising, graphics, promotions and ballpark entertainment departments. She directs each season's marketing campaign and oversaw last season's ballpark renovation project at Minute Maid Park that included all re-branding elements.

During the 2008 season, she developed and executed the Astros Play Green campaign that focused on creating a positive environmental platform at Minute Maid Park and throughout Texas through a commitment to Earth-friendly efforts to enhance the quality of life for fans. The campaign received the 2008 Mayor's Outstanding Proud Partner Award and Corporate Awareness Award from Citizens' Environmental Coalition.

Prior to joining the Astros, Randall spent seven seasons from 2000-06 working in the marketing department for the Anaheim Angels and the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim from 2000-02. From 1998-2000, she served as the sports marketing and event manager for Elite Racing, Inc. in San Diego, California.

Randall was selected as Class XXVII Member for Leadership Houston in 2008 and was nominated for AMA Houston "Marketer of the Year" award in 2006 and 2007. She graduated from Arizona State University with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science and resides in Houston.

GENE PEMBERTON

CHAPLAIN

A business leader and veteran broadcaster, Gene Pemberton is the first full-time chaplain in Major League Baseball. Gene first joined the Astros organization in January 1994. He served as director of community development until becoming the team chaplain in 1997.

Gene served for 31 years at American Desk Manufacturing Company in various capacities. Before coming to the Astros, he was the vice president of marketing and director of special projects, selling stadium seating for more than 60 sports venues, including the 70,000-seat Georgia Dome.

A long-time basketball and football official, he was honored as a lifetime member of the Southwest Officials Association for 23 years of service. Gene officiated in four state basketball tournaments.

Gene has been the color commentator for Temple Wildcat football games on KTEM radio since retiring from officiating in 1986. He and play-by-play announcer Mark McLain have been honored by the Associated Press for best sports play-by-play in their class several times since 1992. The duo also claimed the Dallas Press Club's prestigious Katie Award in 1993 for best broadcast team in Texas outside the four major markets.

Gene is a past president of the Temple Kiwanis Club and Legion of Honor member, and was a deacon for 19 years for Bethel Assembly of God Church. He has also been involved in numerous other civic activities, committees and boards.

A native of Cameron, Texas, he grew up in Temple and graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1962. He and his wife, Mary, have two sons: Gary and Allen, and a daughter, Lisa. The couple also has three grandsons: Brandon, Andrew and Jeffrey, and two granddaughters, Elisabeth and Emalye. The family resides in Temple, Texas.

LARRY DIERKER

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the number 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. During more than 38 years of service to the organization, Dierker has served as a player, front office member, broadcaster and manager.

In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston from 1964-77, he won 137 games, second only to Joe Niekro in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Dierker pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976.

After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Dierker became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles ('97, '98, '99, '01), and the 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, allowing Dierker to earn NL Manager of the Year honors.

JIMMY WYNN

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise from 1963-73, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the Top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season.

In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Wynn smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award.

Wynn remains an active member of the Houston community and works closely with the Astros Community Development Department and charities. His number, 24, was officially retired on June 25, 2005.

MANAGER

The 2009 season is Cecil Cooper's second full season as the manager of the Houston Astros and his third overall. The Astros won 86 games in 2008, a 13-game improvement from the previous year and the second-largest turnaround in franchise history, bested only by the 21-win increase from the 2000 (72 wins) to the 2001 season (93 wins). The 86 wins were also the most for the franchise since winning 89 in 2005. Including a 15-16 mark in 2008, the Astros are 101-91 (.526) during Cooper's tenure as the manager.

Cooper's 2008 Astros team also had the best record in the National League in the 2nd Half at 42-22, only a half-game away from the best mark in the Majors post-All-Star Break (Angels, 43-22). The 42-22 record was also the fourth-best 2nd Half mark in Houston franchise history. The well-rounded club led the National League in both shutouts and saves while leaving the fewest runners on base in the league and ranking fifth in the NL with 114 stolen bases, an increase of 49 steals from the previous year.

Additionally, the 2008 Astros were the best defensive team in the Majors this season, leading all clubs in fielding percentage (.989) while committing the fewest errors of any team (67). The 67 errors were the fewest for a National League club in history in a non-strike season.

The 2008 campaign was also Cooper's fourth year on the Astros staff, as he served as the club's bench coach from 2005 until he was named interim manager on Aug. 27, 2007, replacing Phil Garner. He was promoted to the full-time post on Sept. 28, and the club was 15-16 in 31 games under Cooper in 2007. Cooper is the 16th manager in franchise history.

During his career in baseball, Cooper has been an All-Star player as well as a minor league manager, coach, player development director, and player agent. He has now added Major League manager to his illustrious career resume.

Cooper returned to the Major League coaching ranks in 2005 as the Astros bench coach after spending the 2003-04 seasons as manager of the Triple A Indianapolis Indians in the Milwaukee organization. He collected 130 wins at the helm of the Indians, posting a 66-78 mark in 2004 for third in the International League's West Division, and a 64-78 record in 2003.

Cooper returned to the dugout for the first time since his playing career when he was named bench coach for Milwaukee on April 30, 2002. He previously worked in several capacities in the Brewers organization. For the 2000-01 seasons, he served the Brewers as special assistant to the general manager as well as roving minor league hitting instructor. During the 1997-99 seasons, he was Milwaukee's Director of Player Development.

Following the conclusion of his playing career, Cooper worked as a player agent for CSMG International (1988-96).

A 17-year Major League veteran, Cooper batted .298 with 241 home runs and 1,125 RBI. He was selected by Boston in the 27th round of the 1968 free agent draft and made his big league debut with the Red Sox in 1971. In 1974, he became Boston's starting first baseman and helped the Sox to the World Series in 1975.

After the 1976 season, Cooper was traded to Milwaukee. He concluded his career with 11 seasons as a Brewer, including a World Series appearance in 1982.

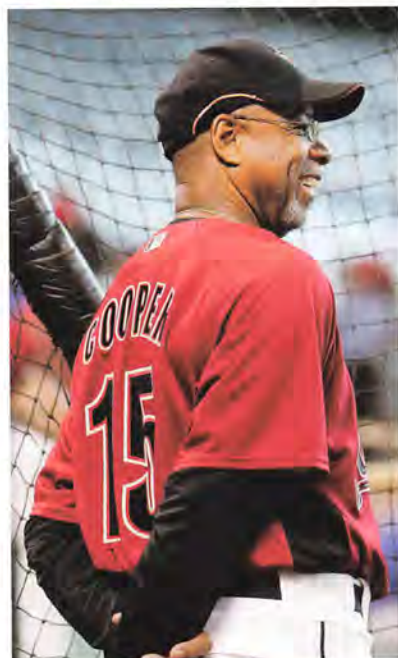

He earned two Gold Glove awards as a first baseman (1979, 80), and was a five-time American League All-Star (1979, 80, 82, 83, and 85). He led the AL in doubles in 1979 (44, tie) and 1981 (35); led the AL in RBI in 1980 (122) and 1983 (126, tie); and finished second in the AL in batting in 1980 (.352). He posted three seasons with 200-plus hits (1980, 82, 83), and two seasons with 30-plus home runs (1982, 83). He was named the Brewers team MVP three seasons (1980, 82, 83), and finished fifth in AL MVP voting three times (1980, 82, 83). He still holds the Milwaukee franchise records for both hits (219 in 1980) and RBI in a season (126 in 1983).

In 1983, Cooper was honored with Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award. In 2002, he was inducted into the Brewers Walk of Fame, and he was inducted into the Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007.

Cooper and his wife, Octavia, have three daughters: Kelly, Brittany and Tori, and make their offseason home in Katy, Texas. He is the youngest of 13 children, and he had two brothers who played for the Indianapolis Clowns. He graduated from Brenham (TX) High School in 1968 where he played on two state championship baseball teams. He attended Blinn Junior College and Prairie View A&M College.

HITTING COACH

Sean Berry will enter his fourth season as the Astros hitting coach in 2009. Berry was appointed to the role on an interim basis on July 12, 2006 and was appointed to the role full-time following the season. He spent 2005 and the first half of the 2006 season as the club's minor league hitting coordinator. A veteran of 11 Major League seasons, Berry returned to the Astros organization in 2003 and spent two seasons on the Double A Round Rock coaching staff. During three seasons as the Astros third baseman from 1996-98, he hit .283 with 39 home runs and 190 RBI.

Berry's best season with the Astros happened in 1996, when he hit .281 with 17 home runs and 95 RBI. He also spent two seasons with Kansas City (1990-91), four with Montreal (1992-95), 1999 and part of 2000 with Milwaukee, and one game in 2000 with Boston.

Originally selected by Kansas City in the first round of the 1986 draft, Sean hit .272 with 81 home runs and 369 runs batted in while playing in 860 career Major League games. Berry and his wife, Linda, live in Paso Robles, Calif., with son Tanner and daughter Madeline.

THIRD BASE COACH

2009 COACHING STAFF

Dave Clark begins his first season as third base coach for the Astros. In 2008, he served as manager for Triple A Round Rock and led the club to a 64-79 record, 4th-place in the division. For three years, he was manager of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks (2005-07). He guided the club to the Texas League Championship title in 2006 as was named Texas League Manager of the Year for his efforts. Clark also served as a coach at the MLB All-Star Futures Game in Pittsburgh in 2006. He led the club during its inaugural season in 2005 and spent the previous five seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

In 2004, Clark managed his first season at Pittsburgh's Class A Hickory, guiding the Crawdads to an 85-55 record and the South Atlantic League title. Hickory captured the North Division second-half crown with a 46-24 record. Clark also served as a coach in the 2004 SAL All-Star Game.

In his managerial debut in 2003, Clark led Class A Lynchburg to the Carolina League finals and was named the league's Manager of the Year. He also served as manager of the Carolina League All-Star team. Clark spent two seasons on the Pittsburgh Pirates coaching staff, serving as hitting coach from 2001-02, and was Triple A Nashville's hitting coach in 2000 - his first professional coaching assignment.

A former Houston Astros outfielder, Clark played 13 seasons in the Majors during which he batted .264 with 62 home runs and 284 RBI in 905 career Major League games. He closed out his big league career with Houston in 1998. He also appeared as a pinch-hitter in the National League Division Series in 1998 with the Astros (two walks) and in 1996 with Los Angeles Dodgers (0x2).

Clark was originally selected by Cleveland in the first round (11th overall pick) in the 1983 draft and made his Major League debut with the Indians in 1986. His big league career included stints with the Indians (1986-89), Chicago Cubs (1990, 97), Kansas City Royals (1991), Pirates (1992-96), Dodgers (1996) and Astros.

He attended Jackson (MS) State University where he was the team's MVP and top hitter in both 1982 and 1983. He was inducted into the Jackson State Sports Hall of Fame in November 2000, joining the likes of Walter Payton, Jackie Slater and "Oil Can" Boyd. His brother, Louis, played seven years in the NFL with Seattle (1987-93) and Green Bay (1994).

He and his wife, Vivian, make their home in Collierville, Tenn., with their two daughters: Meki (24) and Kiki (22). He is a 1980 graduate of Shannon (MS) High School, and was 26-0 as a Golden Gloves boxer while in high school.

FIRST BASE COACH

Although his uniform number 25 was retired on Oct. 3, 1992, that number will remain on the field for a 13th year in 2009 on the back of first base coach Jose "Cheo" Cruz. His big league career spanned 18 seasons and included stints with St. Louis (1971-74), Houston (1975-1987) and the New York Yankees (1988).

The former outfielder has been involved with all nine of Houston's postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, 01, 04-05). Cruz made the first three trips into postseason play with the Astros as a player, including hitting .400 (6x15) in the dramatic five-game series against Philadelphia in the 1980 NLCS. He represented the Astros in the All-Star Game in 1980 at Los Angeles and 1985 at Minnesota.

Cruz had played in more games than any other player in the history of the Houston franchise (1,870) before being passed by Craig Biggio in 2001. Cruz is now in third place in club history in games played, behind Biggio and Jeff Bagwell. In 2000, Cruz witnessed Biggio surpass many of his other long-standing franchise records, including at-bats, hits and total bases. Cruz's 80 triples remains the franchise record.

His uniform number was retired by the club along with former teammate Mike Scott's number 33 in 1992. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Cruz was selected by a panel of experts as one of three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

After his playing career he spent time managing in the Texas-Louisiana League and the Puerto Rican Winter League. Cruz was one of three Houston coaches who was forced to take a leave of absence from the team during the 1999 season. He returned to the field on June 14 after missing 34 games because of an irregular heartbeat.

He and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston. They have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira, and Jose Enrique.

His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award at Rice. Jose Enrique, also a former Rice and Bellaire HS standout, helped the Owls to the 2003 College World Series title.

BULLPEN COACH

Fomer Astros catcher Mark Bailey will enter his eighth season as the club's bullpen coach in 2009. He assumed his current duties on May 15, 2002, when Tony Pena left the staff to become the manager of the Kansas City Royals. Bailey will also begin his 11th season as a coach in the Astros organization.

Bailey was Double A Round Rock's hitting coach before joining the Astros. Under his guidance, the Express led the Texas League in team batting and home runs in both 2000 and 2001. Express players also finished in the top four in nine individual offensive categories.

Bailey previously spent three-plus seasons as a coach at the Class A level with the Astros. He was a coach at Kissimmee in 1998 when the Class A Cobras established club records in home runs (96), RBI (611), doubles (221), and slugging percentage (.394).

Bailey played for the Astros from 1984-88 and was part of the NL Western Division championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, playing in 114 games and batting .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI. He finished his big league career with the San Francisco Giants in 1990 and 1992 before going into private business. He batted .220 with 24 homers and 101 RBI in 340 Major League games.

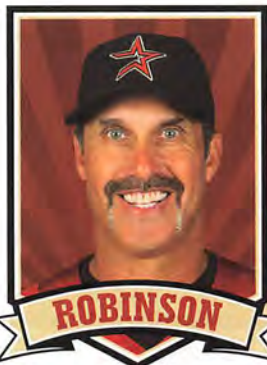

Drafted by Houston in the sixth round of the 1982 free agent draft out of Southwest Missouri State, Bailey was originally a first/third baseman, but switched to catcher in the minors. At SMS, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and basketball. He was a two-time Division II All-American and set career records with 146 RBI and 16 game-winning RBI.

Mark and his wife, Mary Pat, have an eight-year-old son, John Patrick.

PITCHING COACH

The 2009 season will mark Dewey Robinson's 13th season in the Astros organization and his second as the pitching coach at the Major League level. Robinson has spent the previous two years as the club's director of pitching development, working closely with Nolan Ryan in the coordination and oversight of the Astros pitching development program at all levels. Robinson also had professional and amateur scouting responsibility, including the evaluation of draft-eligible pitchers.

The Astros Player Development Man of the Year in 1998, Robinson joined the Houston organization in 1997 after 10 seasons in the White Sox system. He served two seasons as the White Sox bullpen coach from 1993-94 and was also the pitching coach at Class A Peninsula of the Carolina League in 1987 and Class A Tampa in 1988. Robinson also served the White Sox as a minor league pitching coordinator.

Robinson coached collegiately at Northwestern (1982-83) and Missouri (1984-86) after finishing his pro career in 1982. He compiled a 2-2 record with a 4.08 ERA in 30 Major League games with the White Sox from 1979-81. Robinson holds a bachelor of science degree in finance from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Robinson and his wife, Cindy, have two sons, Brett and Greg. Brett pitched for the Astros Short-Season Class A affiliate at Tri-City in 2007 after being drafted in the 27th round in June.

BENCH COACH

The 2009 season will be Ed Romero's first as the Astros bench coach. He was named to Cecil Cooper's staff on Oct. 3, 2007, and served as third base coach during the 2008 season.

Romero spent three seasons with the Florida Marlins (2005-07) as the organization's roving infield coordinator. Before his tenure with the Marlins, Romero spent eight years as a minor league manager and instructor with the Milwaukee Brewers organization, including stints as a manager for Double A El Paso (1998), Double A Huntsville (2001), and Triple A Indianapolis (2002). He led Huntsville to the Southern League co-championship in 2001. Romero spent five of those eight years with Milwaukee as its minor league infield coordinator (1997, 1999, 2000, 2003-04).

Romero's 17-year coaching career also featured a six-season tenure with the San Diego Padres, including five seasons as a Class A manager and one as an infield coordinator (1991). He also managed seven seasons in the Puerto Rican Winter League (1994, 1996-98, 2000, 2003, and 2004).

In 730 career Major League games from 1977-90, Romero hit .247 (473x1912) with eight home runs and 155 RBI. He played in the Majors for four clubs: Milwaukee (1977-85, '89), Boston (1986-89), Atlanta (1989), and Detroit (1990). A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, Romero played in four American League Championship Series, with Milwaukee in 1981 and 1982 and for Boston in 1986 and 1988. He also played in the World Series for the Brewers in 1982 and for the Red Sox in 1986.

NATHAN LUCERO

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Nathan Lucero begins his 17th year with the Astros organization in 2009 and his first as the head athletic trainer. He served the previous two seasons as a Major League strength and conditioning coach. From 2002-06, he served as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. Before assuming that role, he spent two seasons as an athletic trainer with Round Rock (2000-01) and earned Texas League Trainer of the Year honors in 2000. Before joining Round Rock, he worked for the GCL Astros (1993-94), Quad City (1995-97), Kissimmee (1998), and Jackson (1999).

Nathan is a 1993 graduate of New Mexico State University and is married to Janet Lucero. They have two daughters, Isabella Feliz (7) and Sophia Rose (4).

REX JONES

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rex Jones, 54, has spent his entire athletic training career in the Astros organization. He earned his call to the big leagues 16 seasons ago after spending 16 years in the club's minor league system. From 1988-93, he was the organization's Director of Minor League Athletic Trainers.

Jones started his career in 1978 with the Class A Daytona Beach club, while working toward a bachelor's degree in physical education from Missouri State University. He was head trainer for the Double A Columbus Astros from 1979-82 before being promoted to the Triple A Tucson Toros in 1983.

Jones earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is licensed as an athletic trainer in the state of Texas. Additionally, Jones is a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association, and the Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society. In 2004, he served as a trainer for the National League All-Star team at the event held at Minute Maid Park.

He and his wife, Annie, have three children, Megan, Laura and Jeremiah.

DR. GENE COLEMAN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Dr. Gene Coleman begins his 31st season with the Astros as the team's strength and conditioning coach and is responsible for the club's in-season and off-season training programs. In 2007, he was named the first recipient of The Nolan Ryan Award - the professional baseball strength and conditioning coach of the year award. He also received the Fred Hartman Award from the Houston chapter of the BBWAA for long and meritorious service.

Coleman received his undergraduate HPER degree from Lamar University, his master's degree from the University of Oklahoma and his doctorate from the University of Texas at Austin.

He and his wife, Barbara, have two children, son Jarrett Coleman and daughter Ashlyn Tankersley. They also have four grandchildren -- grandsons Brett (8) and Pearce (6), who are sons of Jarrett; and granddaughter Catelyn (6) and grandson Cole (2), who are Ashlyn's children.

STRECH SUBA

BULLPEN ASSISTANT

Strech Suba begins his 33rd year with the Astros organization as their Bullpen Assistant. Suba played for the Sarasota Astros in 1977 before assuming his present duties during the 1978 campaign. He is a graduate of Houston Smiley High and Oklahoma Christian College.

Strech and his wife, Mary Lou, live in Laguna Niguel, Calif., during the off-season.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

Javier Bracamonte enters his ninth season as the Astros bullpen catcher. He joined the organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons. Bracamonte has thrown batting practice during the Home Run Derby portion of three All-Star Games.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees' Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90 and was the third Venezuelan to become a professional baseball player after serving as a bat boy.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela on Nov. 11, 1969, he now resides in Houston, Texas with his daughter, Jaelyn (2), and son, Gustavo (22).

ROHAN BAICHU

Rohan Baichu begins his sixth season with the Houston Astros in 2009 as the club's massage therapist. A former competitive track runner, he previously spent five seasons with the New York Yankees from 1998-2002. Rohan also spent six years as a personal trainer (1993-98).

Rohan attended both Colorado Northwestern Community College and the City University of New York. He is a native of Guayana and resides in New York City. Rohan has two daughters, Indira and Priya.

JIM SUMMERS

Jim Summers is in his ninth season as the video coordinator for the Houston Astros. Jim previously worked for Home Sports Entertainment as a computer graphics operator and then as part of the traveling television crew for FSN Houston.

Jim lives in Houston and attended the University of Houston. He is a disabled veteran who served in the United States Army. Jim has three daughters: Alexys, Peyton, and Elizabeth.

YOSHITAKA ONO

Yoshitaka Ono is in his second season with the Houston Astros, serving as the interpreter for Astros infielder Kazuo Matsui. He previously worked in Spring Training of 2006 for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, and he spent the last two seasons with the Colorado Rockies (2006-07) in a similar capacity.

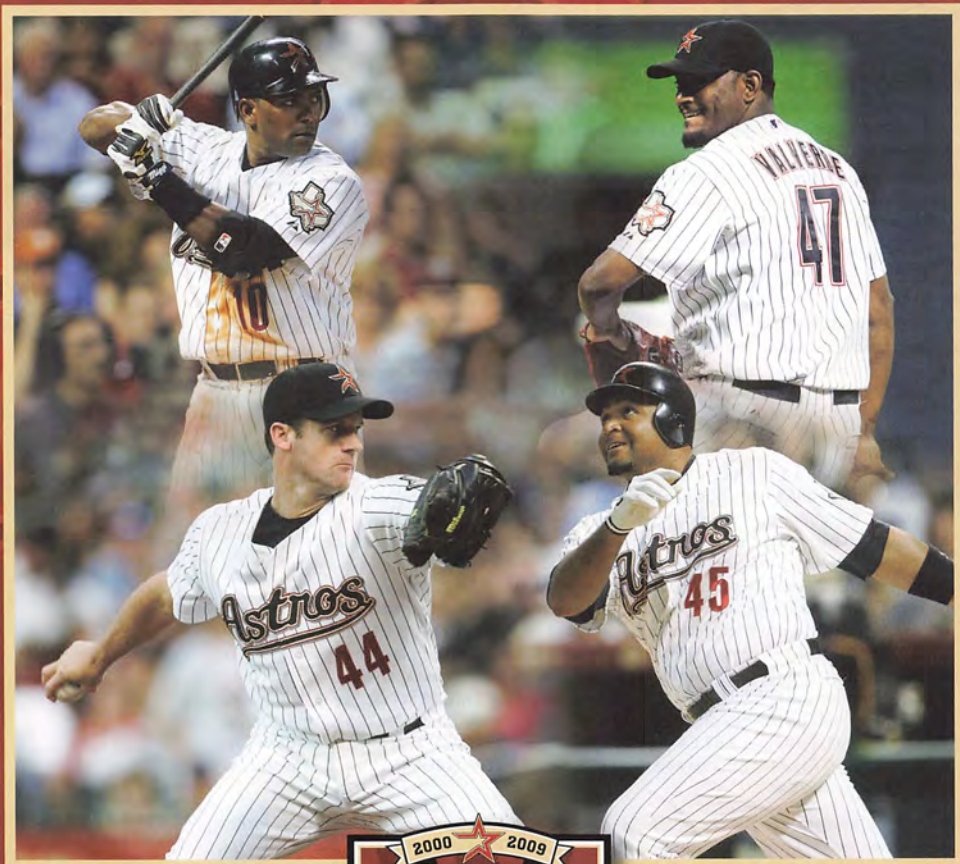

A competitive tennis player in college, Yoshitaka attended St. Thomas University in Miami and graduated with a degree in International Business. He is a native of Ibaraki, Japan.

KATSUMI OKA

Katsumi Oka is in his second season as a massage therapist for the Houston Astros. He has spent the last 11 years as the director of the Ichigaya Branch of the Miyagawa Bonesetter's Office in Hyogo, Japan. Before taking over as the director, he spent 10 years with the Office as a certified professional therapist.

Katsumi is a graduate of the Meiji School of Oriental Medicine in Osaka, Japan, and he is a native of Hyogo, Japan.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Ranks third in franchise history in home runs (288), RBI (961) and walks (883)...ranks fourth in total bases (2,689) and fifth in hits (1,449) and doubles (328).
- ★ Ranks as the club's all-time leader in slugging (.560) and batting average (.302)...ranks second all-time in career slugging among Texas-born players (Rogers Hornsby, .577) (min. 4,800 AB).
- ★ Leads all switch-hitters in home runs (284) and RBI (946) since 2000.
- ★ A five-time All-Star (2001-02, 2004, 2006, 2008), Berkman is one of only two Astros to collect as many as five 30-homer seasons (Jeff Bagwell, 9)...is the second Astro in club history with nine consecutive 20-home run seasons (Jeff Bagwell 12).
- ★ Has six career 100-RBI seasons, trailing only Jeff Bagwell's eight in franchise history...his three consecutive 100-RBI seasons (2006-08) are also the second-most in club history, trailing only Bagwell's six consecutive from 1996-2001.
- ★ Is the fourth switch-hitter in Major League history with as many as seven seasons with 25-or-more home runs...also Chipper Jones (10), Mickey Mantle (10) and Eddie Murray (12).
- ★ Named the Astros Player of the Year in 2008 by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA for the fifth time in his career (also 2001-02, 2004, 2006).
- ★ Selected to the 2008 National League All-Star team as the starting first baseman, marking his fifth appearance in a Midsummer Classic and his first by way of fan voting...also participated in the Home Run Derby and finished with 14 homers, which tied him for third in the competition with Ryan Braun (MIL).
- ★ In 2008, Berkman finished fifth in the National League in the MVP voting and tied for the NL lead with 46 doubles, while hitting a league-leading .345 (49x142) with runners in scoring position...also scored a career-high 114 runs and set a career high with seven home runs as a right-handed hitter.
- ★ Hit his first and only career walk-off home run on Aug. 29, 2008 vs. STL...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Berkman had hit more home runs (285) than any other player in baseball history without recording a walk-off homer...Alex Rodriguez formerly held that distinction by hitting 275 career homers before his first walk-off homer on July 27, 2002.
- ★ Went 5x5 with four runs scored on May 6, 2008 vs. WSH, setting a new career-high for hits and runs...had four hits the previous game, becoming the first Astro in club history to collect nine hits over a two-game span.
- ★ Named the National League player of the Month for May of 2008 after hitting .471 (49x104) with nine home runs and 22 RBI...scored at least one run in 15 consecutive games from April 26 to May 12, which tied the club record held by Carlos Beltran (Aug. 23-Sept. 7, 2004).

Astros NOTES

10 SEASONS
Minute Maid Park

- ★ A native Texan, Berkman grew up in Austin and graduated from high school in San Marcos...he was drafted by the Astros out of Rice University, where he was an All-American...signed by Astros scout Ralph Bratton.
- ★ Is a devoted resident and vocal proponent of his home state, Berkman claims he "doesn't even like to vacation" outside the state of Texas.
- ★ His ideal offseason day consists of a Saturday morning hunt (bow-hunting deer), college football (either the University of Texas or Texas A&M) and a long nap.
- ★ Growing up, he learned to switch-hit off a tire hanging from a tree in his backyard.
- ★ Played for Rice University from 1995-97...was named the 1997 National College Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association...was also named first team All-America by Collegiate Baseball Magazine, Baseball America and The Sporting News.
- ★ Involved with Berkman's Bunch, an organization that allows him to provide game tickets, promotional items and personal visits to area underprivileged youth...is the featured player for the 2009 Astros Buddies Club.
- ★ Considering his devotion to his home state, it's appropriate that Berkman is the only player to appear in the first 40 games of the Lone Star Series (2001-07) between the Astros and Texas Rangers before missing a game in 2007.
- ★ Among players born in the state of Texas, Berkman ranks second all-time in career slugging at .560, trailing only Rogers Hornsby (.577)...Berkman's career slugging percentage is higher than fellow Texans and Hall of Famers such as Frank Robinson (.537), Eddie Mathews (.509), Tris Speaker (.500) and Ernie Banks (.500).
- ★ Berkman signed a six-year contract extension in 2005 at Spring Training that will keep him in an Astros uniform at least through the 2010 season.

- ★ Posted two consecutive 30-home run seasons from 2006-07 for the first time since 2001-02...in 2007, led all MLB switch-hitters in home runs (34)...is the ninth switch-hitter all-time with 250 homers.
- ★ His 136 RBI in 2006 set the franchise record for most RBI in a single season, breaking Jeff Bagwell's franchise-record 135 RBI in 1997...accounted for 19.2 percent of the team's RBI, second-most in club history (Bagwell, 20.2 in 1994; source: Stats, Inc.).
- ★ In 2006, he reached the 40-HR plateau for the second time in his career (42 in '02)...joined Mickey Mantle as the only switch-hitters to hit 40 or more homers in at least two seasons.
- ★ Homered six times in seven games from April 5-13, 2006 and joined Jimmy Wynn (1973) as the only Astros to homer six times in the club's first nine regular-season games.
- ★ Is the franchise career leader in postseason RBI (26) and walks (20), and ranks second with six home runs, 34 hits and eight doubles.
- ★ Led the Astros with six RBI in the 2005 World Series...hit .333 (16x48) with two home runs and 14 RBI during the 2005 playoffs...in his first World Series (2005), hit .385 (5x13).
- ★ Executed a double steal with Willy Taveras in Game 4 of the 2005 World Series, the first in a Fall Classic since 2002.
- ★ His grand slam in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS vs. Atlanta off Kyle Farnsworth narrowed the Braves lead to 6-5...the Astros ended up winning 7-6 in 18 innings, the longest game in postseason history...his three-run home run in the seventh inning of NLCS Game 5 gave Houston a 4-2 lead.
- ★ Hit the longest home run in Minute Maid Park history on June 7, 2003 vs. Tampa Bay (Jeremi Gonzalez): 464 ft.
- ★ Led the National League in RBI in 2002 with 128...finished third in the National League MVP voting and ranked tied for third in the NL with 42 home runs (tied for fourth in club history).
- ★ Hit a club-record 29 home runs in the first half of the 2002 season...his 29 homers at the All-Star Break were the most by a switch-hitter since Mickey Mantle in 1961 (Mantle also hit 29 in 1956)...hit 10 homers in his first 20 games in 2002, joining Mantle as the only switch-hitters to hit 10 homers in their club's first 20 games.
- ★ Set the Major League record for most doubles (55) and extra-base hits (94) in a single season by a switch-hitter in 2001...was also the first switch-hitter to record at least 50 doubles and 30 home runs in the same season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ An 11-year Major League veteran, Boone has hit .264 (1017x3858) with 126 home runs and 555 RBI in his career...has played with Cincinnati (1997-2003), the New York Yankees (2003), Cleveland (2005-06), Florida (2007) and Washington (2008).
- ★ Has 1,017 career hits and 519 career runs scored...reached both the 1,000-hit mark and the 500-run milestone in 2008 with Washington.
- ★ Four members of his family have reached the 1,000-hit plateau in the Majors: grandfather Ray (1,260), father Bob (1,838) and brother Bret (1,775).
- ★ Both Aaron (126) and brother Bret (252) have recorded at least 100 home runs in their careers...they are one of five sets of brothers to reach that plateau...also, Roberto and Sandy Alomar Jr., Bob and Irish Meusel, Joe and Vince DiMaggio, and Ken and Cleto Boyer.
- ★ Made his only All-Star appearance while with Cincinnati in 2003...hit .261 (91x349) with 16 home runs and 56 RBI in the first half that season, earning him a spot on the club.
- ★ Has made one trip to the playoffs in his career, in 2003 while with the Yankees...that season, he authored one of grandest post-season moments in MLB history, as ALCS-ending solo homer in 11th inning of Game 7 vs. BOS elevated NYY to their most-recent berth in the World Series.
- ★ Hit 26 home runs and stole 32 bases in 2002 with Cincinnati, becoming only the seventh Reds player to post at least 25 homers and 25 stolen bases in a single season...was one of only six big leaguers to appear in all 162 games.
- ★ On Aug. 9, 2002 vs. SD, hit three home runs in the same game, including two in the first inning off Padres' starter Brett Tomko...later homered off Tomko in the fourth inning.
- ★ On June 14, 2002 vs. PIT, hit a one-out solo HR off Mike Williams in the ninth inning to tie the game at 3-3...later hit a solo homer off Williams leading off the 11th to win it...thus, became just the 11th player in MLB history to hit a game-tying homer in the ninth and the game-winning homer in extra innings off the same pitcher.
- ★ Hit the last of 4,652 homers at Cinergy Field on Sept. 22, 2002 off Philadelphia's Dan Plesac.
- ★ Made his Major League debut on June 20, 1997 to replace his brother, Bret, who was optioned in what is believed to be the first transaction involving brothers...in MLB debut that night at STL, went 1x3 with an RBI, but was ejected by HP umpire Gary Darling for throwing helmet (was just the fourth player in history to be ejected in an MLB debut).

ASTROS NOTES

Houston Astros

- ★ Drafted by the Angels out of Villa Park High School in the 43rd round of the 1991 Draft, but did not sign...instead, he attended the University of Southern California, where he hit .308 in his three seasons with the Trojans...following his collegiate career he was drafted by Cincinnati in the third round of the 1994 Draft...signed by Reds scout Robby Corsaro.
- ★ An All-Star in 2003 with Cincinnati, Boone was involved in a midseason trade to the Yankees, where he authored one of the greatest postseason moments in MLB history.
- ★ Hit an ALCS-ending solo home run in the 11th inning off Tim Wakefield of the Red Sox, which elevated the Yankees to their most recent birth in the World Series.
- ★ Was named the 2005 recipient of the Gibbons/Olin "Good Guy Award" presented by the Cleveland BBWAA Chapter for a professional and courteous manner with the media.
- ★ Is the son of former big league player and manager Bob Boone, who currently works as the Washington Nationals Assistant GM and VP of Player Development...is the brother of Bret Boone, who played in 14 Major League seasons...is the grandson of Ray Boone, who played in 1,373 Major League games with six different teams from 1948-60.
- ★ Signed to a one-year contract with Houston that runs through the 2009 season on Dec. 18, 2008.

2008: Went 8x34 with three doubles, one home run and six RBI as pinch hitter...made 49 starts, all at either first base or third base, and hit .258 (48x186) with 10 doubles, one triple, five homers and 21 RBI as a starter...appeared defensively at first base (54), third base (16) and second base (1)...made just two errors in 358 total chances...notched first career pinch-hit homer, May 6 at HOU off Shawn Chacon...recorded 1,000th career hit June 25 vs. LAA, becoming the fourth member of his family to reach the 1,000-hit plateau in majors, along with grandfather Ray (1,260), father Bob (1,838) and brother Bret (1,775)...appeared in four rehab games while on DL with a left calf strain...played in one game with the GCL Nationals and in three games with Columbus (AAA).

2007: Hit .286 with Florida in his return to the NL...played in just 69 games before his season was cut short by injury to his left knee...played his final game of season on June 24 vs. MIN, injuring his knee in fourth inning while playing first base...hit his second career grand slam, May 18 at TB...went 4x13 (.308) with two RBI as a pinch hitter...recorded 500th career RBI, April 2 at WSH, via a pinch-hit sacrifice fly...was placed on 15-Day DL on June 26 (retroactive to June 25) with a left knee sprain...was transferred to the 60-Day DL, September 12.

2006: In second season with Cleveland, hit .251 with seven home runs and 46 RBI in 104 games...matched his career high with a nine-game hitting streak from June 30 to July 9...hit .313 in May...hit .345 with runners in scoring position and two outs, and .292 after the 7th inning.

2005: In first complete AL season with Cleveland, hit .243 with 16 home runs and 60 RBI...hit 100th career homer on June 28 at BOS off Wade Miller...thus, joined brother Bret as the fifth set of brothers to blast at least 100 HR, joining the Alomars, Meusels, DiMaggios and Boyers...stole 100th career base on Sept. 19 at CWS.

2004: Missed entire season after having a pair of left-knee surgeries...had off-season surgery on left knee after tearing the anterior cruciate ligament playing in a pick-up basketball game in January in Newport Beach, CA...surgery was performed on Feb. 16 by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Anaheim, CA...at the time of the injury, was member of NYY's 40-man roster...was officially released by NYY on March 1...signed a free agent big league contract with CLE, June 26...joined CLE on 11-game road trip in July and began experiencing pain and swelling in the surgically repaired knee...underwent a second procedure on Aug. 20 to remove loose bodies and promote cartilage growth in the left knee joint.

2003: Hit .267 with 24 homers, career-best 96 RBI and 23 stolen bases in 160 games with CIN and NYY...was dealt to NYY on July 31...named an NL All-Star prior to the trade...was named NL "Player of the Week" twice: May 5-11 and June 9-15...hit three solo homers, May 8 vs. STL...the three-homer effort was the second of his career (also Aug. 9, 2002 vs. SD)...first home run with NYY was a game-winning, three-run shot in the 9th on Aug. 15 at BAL...hit .170 with two home runs and four RBI in 17 postseason games with NYY...blasted ALCS-ending, walk-off solo-HR in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game 7 vs. BOS on Sept. 15 off Tim Lincecum...the walk-off blast was only the fifth homer to end a postseason series—first since NYY's Todd Pratt won the 1999 NLDS with a 10th-inning home run in Game 4 vs. ARI—and only the second in a postseason Game 7 (also PIT's Bill Mazeroski to end the 1960 World Series vs. NYY).

2002: In his final complete season with Cincinnati, hit 26 homers and swiped 32 bags to become only the seventh Reds player to post at least 25 homers and 25 stolen bases in a single season...with 32 stolen bases, led all MLB third basemen and ranked sixth overall in the NL...after the All-Star Break, led the NL with 26 doubles...hit 26 home runs, which were the most by a CIN 3B since Willie Greene also hit 26 in '97...32 stolen bases were the most by a Reds 3B since Chris Sabo swiped 46 in '88...was one of only six big leaguers to appear in all 162 games in 2002...was CIN's first player to appear in all 162 games since Dave Parker in 1986...in a 12-10 victory, Aug. 9 vs. SD, went 4x5 with three homers and five RBI...homered twice in the first inning off Brett Tomko, then homered again off Tomko in the 4th...thus, became the 40th big leaguer, the 22nd National Leaguer—the second Reds batter—to homer twice in an inning (Ray Knight, May 13, 1980 vs. NYM)...was the sixth player to accomplish the feat in 2002, including his brother, SEA's Bret Boone (May 2 at CWS)...was only the fourth player in MLB annals to homer twice in the first inning of a game (SEA's Bret Boone and Mike Cameron on May 2, 2002 at CWS; PHI's Von Hayes on June 11, 1985 vs. NYM)...the Boones are only set of brothers with 3-homer games...in the 11-inning, 4-3 victory on June 14 vs. PIT, hit a one-out solo HR off Mike Williams in the ninth inning to tie at 3-3, and a solo homer off Williams leading off the 11th to win it...thus, became just the 11th player ever to hit a game-tying homer in the 9th and the game-winning homer in extra innings off the same pitcher...on Sept. 22, homered off PHI's Dan Plesac to join the 25-homer, 25-stolen base club...the same homer was the last at Cinergy Field.

2001: Was hampered by three injuries and two surgeries, but still played 103 games...hit a career-high .294 with 26 doubles, 14 home runs and 62 RBI...combined with SEA's Bret Boone (141 RBI) to become just the 6th set of brothers to produce 200 RBI in a season, most recently accomplished by Lee & Carlos May in 1973...the others: Irish & Bob Meusel (5 times), Roy & Bob Johnson (once), Joe & Vince DiMaggio (3 times) and Joe & Dom Dimaggio (once)...endured three DL stints with broken bones suffered when he was hit by pitches: from May 15-June 14 with a broken hamate bone in his right hand; from August 15-31 with a broken right wrist; and from September 24 through the end of the season with a broken left thumb...suffered the hamate injury on May 14 vs. HOU, when he was hit by a Wade Miller pitch, and the next day had surgery to remove the bone (hand specialist Dr. Greg Sommerkamp, Dr. Timothy Kremchek)...suffered the right wrist injury on August 14 at STL, when hit by a Matt Morris pitch...on Sept. 23 at MIL, suffered a broken left thumb when hit by a Jamey Wright pitch, and on Sept. 27 had surgery to insert a pin and a wire into the thumb (Sommerkamp, Kremchek).

2000: In first complete big league season, hit .285 with 12 home runs and 43 RBI in 84 games...on Aug. 8, had reconstructive surgery to repair a torn anterior cruciate ligament in the left knee...the procedure was performed by Dr. Timothy Kremchek and Dr. James Andrews...injured the knee, July 5 at STL...missed three starts before injuring the knee again on July 9 vs. CLE...was placed on the 15-Day DL on July 12.

2009 HOUSTON ASTROS

1999: Began the season as Cincinnati's starting third baseman...on Sept. 1 vs. ATL, combined with Bret Boone to become the first brothers on opposing teams to homer in the same game since HOU's Jose Cruz Sr. and CHI's Hector Cruz, May 4, 1981 at CHI...on Dec. 8, had arthroscopic surgery to clean out left knee (Dr. Timothy Kremchek).

1998: Was a member of Cincinnati's Opening Day roster for the first time...went 1x10 before being optioned to Indianapolis on April 24...rejoined CIN on July 31 and became the Reds' starting third baseman for the remainder of the season, hitting .292 in 49 games (48 starts)...hit first MLB home run on Aug. 26 vs. the Cubs off Kerry Wood.

1997: Earned first taste of the big leagues with Cincinnati...in Triple-A debut with Indianapolis of the American Association, ranked among league leaders with 56 extra-base hits (3rd), 22 home runs (tied for 4th), 79 runs (tied for 4th) and a .290 average (tied for 8th)...was promoted by CIN on June 20 to replace brother, Bret, who was optioned in what is believed to be the first transaction involving brothers...in MLB debut that night at STL, went 1x3 with an RBI, but was ejected by HP umpire Gary Darling for throwing helmet (was just the 4th player in history to be ejected in an MLB debut)...first big league hit and RBI came in same plate appearance, an infield single off Matt Morris in the 6th inning...following the season, played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, hit .297 and was named to the AFL's All-Prospect team.

MINOR LEAGUES:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Is a career .237 hitter (141x594) in 260 Major League games with the Phillies (2006-07) and Astros (2008)...has 60 career steals in 73 attempts (82.2% successful).
- ★ Played Winter Ball for the Aguilas Cibaenas in the Dominican Winter League following the 2008 season...hit .314 (32x102) with 11 RBI in 25 games...posted a .402 on-base percentage.
- ★ Began his Astros career with 18 consecutive successful steals before being caught on May 16, 2008 at TEX...the streak ranks as the second longest in club history, trailing only Carlos Beltran's 28 consecutive successful steals, set in 2004.
- ★ His home run on May 3, 2008 vs. MIL was part of back-to-back home runs with Astros pitcher Brandon Backe...marked the first time in franchise history since June 14, 1983, that a position player and a pitcher combined to hit back-to-back home runs (Doran, Knepper).
- ★ In 2008 became just the third player in MLB history to steal 13 bases without being caught before the end of April...was the first Astro to record at least 13 steals before the end of April since Craig Biggio stole 13 in April 1998.
- ★ Recorded two steals on Opening Day on March 31, 2008 at SD...marked the franchise's second two-steal game on Opening Day (Bill Doran, April 8, 1986 vs. SF).
- ★ Made the Phillies Opening Day roster in 2007 and spent the entire season with the club...appeared in 52 Major League games (2006-07) with Philadelphia before making his first career start (left field) on May 23, 2007.
- ★ In 2007, was one of three MLB players to record as many as 18 stolen bases and one or fewer caught stealing (18x19)...is one of only nine players to accomplish that feat this decade.
- ★ Recorded his first Major League hit, a bunt single, on Sept. 27, 2006 at WSH (Jason Bergmann)...hit his first MLB home run on July 15, 2007 vs. STL (Andy Cavazos).
- ★ Selected for the USA Olympic qualifying team in 2006...slugged two HR in Team USA's 8-5 Gold Medal-winning game over Cuba.

2008: Hit .229 (107x467) with 41 stolen bases in 138 games with Houston...set career highs in most offensive categories, including runs scored (57), doubles (10), triples (4), home runs (5), RBI (29) and stolen bases (41)...hit .292 (21x72) in 21 games while batting second in the lineup and .212 (63x297) in 70 games out of the leadoff spot...finished the season ranking fourth in the National League and seventh in the Majors with 41 stolen bases...was the first Astro since Gerald Young (1988) to record 32-or-more steals in the first half...recorded 18 consecutive successful steal attempts to begin 2008 and 21 dating back to July 26, 2007...his streak of 18 consecutive is the second longest in club history (28, Carlos Beltran, 2004)...set a career high with four RBI on Aug. 10 vs. CIN...later matched that total with four RBI on Sept. 25 vs. CIN...had seven two-steal games in 2008...posted a career-high hitting streak of six games twice in 2008, most recently from July 21-30...did not start in 10 consecutive games from July 27 to Aug. 6 because of a right ankle sprain...homered on May 3 as part of back-to-back home runs with Brandon Backe...marked the first time in franchise history since June 14, 1983, that a pitcher was involved in a back-to-back home run combination (Doran, Knepper)...became just the third player in MLB history to steal 13 bases without being caught before the end of April...went 1x3 with two steals on Opening Day on March 31 at SD...marked the franchise's second two-steal game on Opening Day (Bill Doran, April 8, 1986 vs. SF).

10 SEASONS Astros NOTES 10 SEASONS

- ★ Before joining the Astros or even being drafted by a Major League baseball team, Bourn was already familiar with Houston's home field...as a member of the University of Houston's baseball team, he participated in the Houston College Classic at Minute Maid Park each year in February, from 2001-03...the Cougars center fielder hit safely in eight of his nine College Classic games, recording a .294 (10x34) lifetime average during the annual tournament.
- ★ Drafted by Philadelphia in the fourth round of the 2003 draft...signed by Phillies' scout Dave Owen.
- ★ In 2006, received the Paul Owens Award as the best position player in the Phillies minor league system...the award, named in honor of the late Paul Owens, who spent 48 years in the Phillies organization as a scout, farm director, general manager, manager and senior advisor, has honored the top player and pitcher in Philadelphia's minor league system every year since 1986.

- ★ Considers March 11, 2006, his new birthday after he underwent an angioplasty that day, saving his life..."When your doctor tells you that it's only by the grace of God that you're here, you figure that you've got a new birthday," Brocail said.
- ★ Supports the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and Make-A-Wish program.
- ★ Signed to a one-year contract that runs through 2009...deal also includes a club option for 2010.

2005: Appeared in 61 games for Texas in 2005 and led all Texas relievers with 73.1 innings pitched...recorded his first full, injury-free Major League season since 1999 with Detroit...allowed just two home runs...was 2-0 with a 1.15 ERA (2ER/15.2IP) in 15 appearances from April 30-June 9...earned his first win of the season on April 9 at Seattle, despite allowing one earned run in 1.0 inning to snap an 18.1 inning scoreless streak dating back to September 3, 2004...recorded six strikeouts in 3.1 scoreless innings on June 19 vs. Washington, six strikeouts matched his career-high as a reliever...outing was his longest scoreless appearance since tossing 7.0 scoreless innings in a start on September 9, 1993 vs. ATL...recorded a lone save on August 29 vs. CWS.

2004: Returned to the Majors after a three-year absence and made 43 relief appearances for Texas...allowed just five of 33 inherited runners (15.2 percent) scoring, the second-lowest percentage in the AL among qualifying relievers...was purchased from Triple-A Oklahoma on April 27 after going 2-0 with a 2.45 ERA in seven games with the RedHawks...made his first DL stint from May 12-June 6 for an appendectomy...after his return, posted a 2.92 ERA (4ER/12.1IP) over 10 outings from June 10-July 1...did not allow an earned run in 18 outings (22.1IP) from Aug. 22 through the end of the season...was placed on the Disabled List on May 12 after experiencing pain that afternoon at Tropicana Field...had a successful appendectomy procedure that night at St. Anthony's Hospital in St. Petersburg, Florida...was on the DL from May 12-June 6...was also sidelined with a sore left hamstring from July 25-August 8, during which he pitched one rehabilitation game with Double-A Frisco...was 4-0 with a 2.40 ERA (8ER/30.0IP) after the All-Star break...on MLB's suspended list for six games from September 26-October 1 following incident on September 13 at Oakland...made five rehabilitation appearances with RedHawks from May 26-June 4 while recovering from appendicitis.

2002-2003: Did not pitch after having two surgeries on his right elbow...initially underwent surgery on April 27, 2001 to repair a full tear of the medial collateral ligament and a partial tear of the flexor tendon in right elbow...originally placed on the Disabled List on March 31, 2001 with a strained right hamstring.

2001: Made three rehabilitation appearances with New Orleans and Round Rock in early April while recovering from a strained right hamstring...had elbow surgery later in the month and did not pitch in a professional game until 2004.

2000: Suffered a strained right quad on April 25 at ANA...was suspended four games on April 28 for his involvement in a bench-clearing brawl on April 22 at CWS...error in the ninth inning on July 16 vs. CIN snapped a 292-game errorless streak dating back to 1994...was 1-1 with a 2.31 ERA (3ER/11.2IP) in 15 games after the All-Star break...placed on 15-day Disabled List on August 18 (retroactive to August 14) with inflammation in right elbow...underwent season-ending surgery to remove debris in right elbow on September 22.

1999: Posted a career-best 2.52 ERA, ranking fourth in AL among relievers (min. 45.0 IP)...pitched in 70 games, the third consecutive year he appeared in 60+ games...fanned a career-high 78 batters, an average of 8.6 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...opponents batted only .206 against him, ranking 5th in the AL among relievers...owned a season-long 12-inning scoreless streak over nine appearances from August 7-21...did not commit an error in the field for the fifth consecutive season.

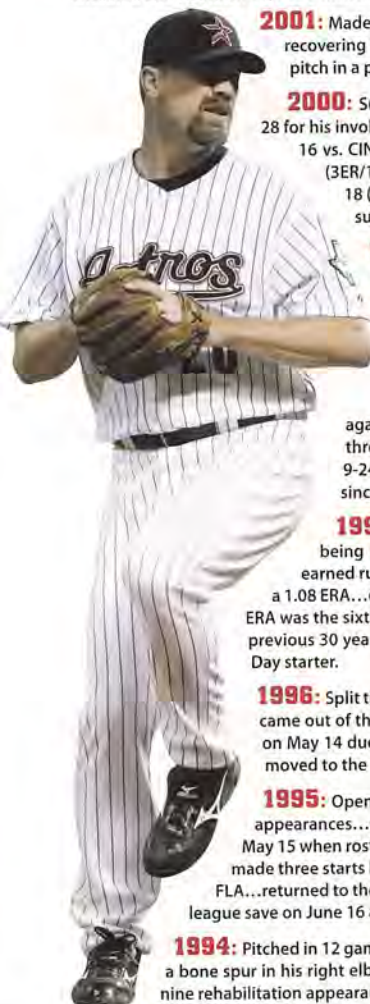

1998: Ranked in top 10 among AL relievers in ERA (8th, 2.73), batting average against (10th; .211), and wins (T10th; five)...posted a 1.68 ERA (10ER/53.2IP) from May 1 through the end of the season...surrendered just two home runs all season...spent August 9-24 on the 15-day Disabled List with a right elbow strain, marking his first trip to the DL since May of 1996.

1997: Began campaign as the Tigers Opening Day starter and made four starts before being moved to the bullpen for the remainder of the season on April 23...allowed just six earned runs in his last 50.0 innings pitched, covering 47 appearances from June 2-September 27, a 1.08 ERA...overall in relief, was 3-3 with a 2.38 ERA (15ER/56.2IP) and two saves in 57 outings...relief ERA was the sixth-best in the AL and tied for ninth in the majors...became just the second pitcher in the previous 30 years (joining Mike Moore in 1993) to make his first-ever Tiger appearance as the Opening Day starter.

1996: Split time between the bullpen and the starting rotation with the Astros...first six appearances came out of the bullpen...made four starts between April 24-May 10...placed on 15-day Disabled List on May 14 due to a fraying of his right biceps tendon, which was surgically repaired on June 10...was moved to the 60-day DL on June 29 before being reinstated on August 15.

1995: Opened the season at the Major League level with Houston, making seven starts and 29 relief appearances...was 4-2 with a 3.03 ERA in 29 relief efforts (13ER/38.2IP)...optioned to Triple-A Tucson on May 15 when rosters were reduced from 28 to 25 players in order to move him into the starting rotation...made three starts before being recalled on June 2...earned a no-decision in his first start on June 6 against FLA...returned to the bullpen for 15 outings before making his second start on Aug. 4 at PIT...earned first big league save on June 16 at NYM with 1.0 scoreless inning of work.

1994: Pitched in 12 games, primarily in relief, for the Padres but spent most the season on the Disabled List with a bone spur in his right elbow...had surgery on April 4 to remove the spur...beginning on May 26, made a total of nine rehabilitation appearances before being activated from the DL on June 28.

2009 HOUSTON ASTROS

1993: Made 24 starts for the Padres in his first full season in the Majors...promoted from Triple A Las Vegas on June 1 and won his first big league game that night, allowing one run in 6.0 innings of a 2-1 decision over ATL...equaled his career-best with seven strikeouts on June 11 against LAD...pitched a career-high 8.0 innings in 2-0 win over CIN on June 26...had a pair of hits and stole a base in a start on July 11 in MON...the steal was the first by a Padres pitcher since Mark Davis on April 29, 1988, and was the first of his two for the season (Sept. 8 vs. FLA).

1992: Saw his first Major League action after being promoted from Las Vegas on Sept. 7...made his Major League debut in a start on Sept. 8 at SF but did not figure in the decision of the Padres 6-5, extra-inning loss.

MINOR LEAGUES:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Has posted a career record of 141-105 with a 4.01 ERA in 16 seasons as a Major Leaguer...the two-time All-Star (1999, 2001), is making his second stint in an Astros uniform, having been with the franchise previously from 1994-99.
- ★ As an Astro, has posted a 69-40 record and a 3.40 ERA...among left-handed pitchers in franchise history, Hampton ranks first in ERA (min. 750 IP), second in wins, third in starts (151), third in innings pitched (1026.0) and fourth in strikeouts (694).
- ★ Has appeared in 11 postseason games (10 starts), compiling a 2-4 record and a 3.74 ERA (27ER/65IP)...has been to the playoffs in six seasons, including a trip to the World Series in 2000 with the Mets...helped New York make the Subway series by earning NLCS MVP honors after going 2-0 in two starts against the Cardinals...did not allow a run in his 16.0 innings pitched that series.
- ★ Earned five consecutive National League Silver Slugger Awards from 1999-2003...is a career .241 (166x688) hitter with 15 home runs and 72 RBI...ranks first among active pitchers in batting average (min. 500 AB), second in home runs and fourth in RBI...his career home run total ranks as the second most by any Major League pitcher since the designated hitter rule was adopted by the American League in 1974...in 2001, he tied the NL single-season record with seven homers (as a pitcher).
- ★ Started at least 30 games in seven consecutive seasons from 1997-2003...posted a 98-67 record and a 4.01 ERA over that time frame...from 1997-2003, ranked T-third in the Majors in starts (226) and seventh in innings (1463).
- ★ In 2003, became the first pitcher ever to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in the same season...did so by posting a .985 fielding percentage in the field and hitting two home runs with eight RBI at the plate...is the only pitcher, other than Greg Maddux, to earn a Gold Glove between the 1990-2008 seasons.
- ★ Was the Rockies Opening Day starter in 2001 and earned the first All-Star Game berth by a pitcher in franchise history...named Rockies Pitcher of the Year by the BBWAA.
- ★ Pitched for the Mets in 2000 and made his fourth consecutive trip to the NLDS (1997-99 with Houston)...in the NLCS vs. STL, he earned series MVP honors, going 2-0 with 16.0 scoreless innings...from Game 1 of the NLDS to Game 1 of the World Series, he threw 18.1 consecutive scoreless innings.
- ★ Had an NL-leading 22 wins and became the first left-handed 20-game winner in Astros history in 1999...also named the Sporting News' NL Pitcher of the Year and was a first-time All-Star...finished second in the Cy Young voting to Randy Johnson...hit .311 (23x74) to become the first pitcher to win 20 games and hit .300 in the same season since Oakland's Catfish Hunter did so in 1971...won the NL Silver Slugger award...won a career-high 11 straight decisions during the regular season from June 30-Sept. 13.
- ★ In 1997, he helped the Astros make their first playoff appearance since 1986...on Sept. 25 vs. CHC, his win clinched the NL Central title...won seven straight decisions over a nine-start stretch from July 2-Aug. 12...over that time frame, he hurled five complete games and two shutouts.
- ★ The youngest player on Houston's roster (23) in 1995, Hampton spent his first full season in a Major League rotation and finished 11th in the NL with a 3.35 ERA.

- ★ Was a defensive back in high school and received a combined football and baseball scholarship from Florida State University...also recruited in football by the University of Florida and Rutgers University.
- ★ Is a two-time All-Star (1999, 2001) and has received one Gold Glove Award (2003) and five Silver Slugger Awards (1999-2003).
- ★ Clinched the Astros 1997 NL Central title by tossing a complete game against the Cubs on Sept. 25 at the Astrodome...marked the club's first playoff appearance since the 1986 season.
- ★ Signed to a one-year contract through the 2009 season.

2008: Went 3-4 with a 4.85 ERA in 13 starts after coming off the DL on July 26...had not pitched in the Majors since Aug. 19, 2005...eight of his last nine starts were quality starts but was 2-3, 3.72 ERA with four no-decisions in that stretch...went 1-2 with a 3.79 ERA in six September starts...tossed a season-high 106 pitches through 6.0 innings on Sept. 1 at FLA...threw a season-high 8.0 IP on Aug. 27 vs. FLA and allowed just three runs...marked his longest outing since May 8, 2005 vs. HOU (9.0 IP, 0 ER)...picked up his first win of the season on Aug. 5 at SF, marking his first Major League win since Aug. 14, 2005...went 1, 087 days between victories from Aug. 14, 2005 to Aug. 5, 2008, becoming just the fifth Major League pitcher (with at least 100 career wins) over the last 30 years to record a span of at least 1,000 days between Major League victories (Jose Rijo: 1995-2002; Dave Stieb: 1993-98; Floyd Bannister: 1989-92; and Dennis Leonard: 1983-86)...made his first appearance on July 26 at PHI, going 4.0 IP (6 R/8 H) before hitting his pitch limit at 91...prior to that game, his last game was vs. SD on Aug. 19, 2005 - a span of 1,072 days...he missed 466 team games between appearances...became just the second pitcher with at least 250 career starts in the expansion era (since 1961), to start a game after missing two consecutive seasons (Elias)...Dave Steib pitched for the CWS in 1993 and returned in 1998 with TOR, where he made three starts (19 total appearances)...pitched June 30 for Rome (A), July 5 for Myrtle Beach (A+) and July 10 and 16 for Mississippi (AA)...on July 16, suffered a strained left groin and returned to undergo rehab...made a pair of injury rehabilitation starts for Triple A Richmond - on April 25 and 30 - but in the second start, he re-aggravated the left pectoral strain, shelving him for nearly two months...was scheduled to make his first start of the season on April 3 vs. PIT, but suffered a strained left pectoral muscle just minutes before the game.

2007: Missed the entire 2007 season after being placed on the DL on March 30 (retroactive to March 23) with a strained left oblique...while on the disabled list, it was discovered during an examination in New York on April 9 that he had a torn flexor tendon in his left elbow...had surgery performed on April 10 and was transferred to the 60-day DL on April 14...made one start for Navojoa of the Mexican Winter League on Nov. 22 and pitched 1.0 IP before leaving due to an injured right hamstring.

2005: Season included five trips to the DL and a total of 118 team games missed...compiled a 5-3 record and a 3.50 ERA (27ER/69.1IP) in his 12 starts...placed on the DL five different times for varying reasons: strained left forearm (twice), strained lower back, herniated disk in back and strained left elbow...his final DL stint from a strained left elbow required season-ending Tommy John surgery, which was performed on Sept. 26...appeared in only three games from June 1 through the end of the season...on May 8 vs. HOU, he threw his first CG of the season and his first shutout since May 9, 2001; also hit a home run...allowed only two hits, which are the fewest in a complete game in his career...posted a 4-1 record and a 1.83 ERA (12ER/59IP) through nine starts in April and May.

2004: Ranked among National League leaders in percent of ground balls induced (66.7%) and GDP/9 IP (1.03)...finished the year going 12-2 in his last 16 starts...started Game 2 of the NLDS in Houston, going 6.1 innings, allowing two runs on four hits before leaving the game with tightness in his left forearm...allowed solo HRs by Jeff Bagwell in the first inning and Raul Chavez in the third...appeared in relief in Game 4, tossing a scoreless seventh inning to help the Braves tie the series with a 6-5 win in Atlanta...made his playoff appearances while pitching with torn meniscus cartilage, suffered on Sept. 11 vs. MON...underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair the torn meniscus following the season...went 4-1 with a 4.67 ERA in August and was 5-0, 2.62 in July...started 0-5 for the first time in his career until winning on May 23 vs. LA...was on the losing end of Randy Johnson's perfect game on May 18; Hampton went the distance for his 20th career CG, allowing just two runs on eight hits.

2003: Became the first pitcher ever to win a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in the same season...started Games 2 and 5 in the NLDS vs. the Cubs going 0-1 with a 4.26 ERA...received a no-decision in Atlanta's 5-3, Game 2 win (6.0 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 5 BB, 9 K)...struck out the side in the first and second innings, become just the fourth pitcher in postseason history to strike out six straight hitters (1985 Todd Worrell, STL vs. KC; 1966 Moe Drabowski, Bal. vs. LA; 1919 Hod Eller, Cin. vs. Chi-A)...in Game 5, he got the loss in the 5-1 Cubs' clincher (6.2 IP, 7 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 1 BB, 7 K)...allowed two or fewer earned runs in 18 of his 31 regular season starts, including nine of his last 11...went 11-3 with a 3.26 ERA (41 ER in 113.1 IP) over last 17 starts...ranked eighth in the NL with his 2.89 day ERA...compiled a nine-game winning streak over 10 games from July 6-August 23...his nine-game streak tied for the longest in the NL in 2003...threw a complete game on Aug. 7 at MIL - his first since 2001.

2002: Made 30 starts for the sixth straight season...led the NL in inducing GIDPs, at 1.41 per 9.0 IP...earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award, leading all MLB pitchers with a .344 BA (22x64); his 22 hits were the most by a pitcher...hit three homers to lead all pitchers...made his 30th and final start on his 30th birthday, Sept. 9 at HOU; sprained ligaments in his right foot forced him to leave that game and ended his season...traded to the Braves following the season...had an eight-game hitting streak, the longest by a pitcher in '02 from July 22-Aug. 29...earned his 100th career victory in a combined 10-0 shutout over the Pirates on April 30.

2001: In his first season as a Rookie, led the staff in wins (14), starts (32) and innings pitched (203.0) en route to being named Rockies' Pitcher of the Year by the BBWAA...earned the first All-Star berth by a pitcher in franchise history...tied SF's Kirk Rueter for the NL lead in double plays induced per 9.0 innings pitched at 1.29...with seven homers he tied a pair of Dodgers, Don Drysdale (1958, 1965) and Don Newcombe (1955) for the NL record for a pitcher...his 23 hits and 16 RBI also set new franchise records and the 16 RBI were the most by any big league pitcher since Don Robinson had 16 with Pittsburgh in 1982...became the first pitcher in Rockies history to earn the Silver Slugger Award...started Opening Day, April 2, vs. STL...first hit as a Rookie was his first career homer on April 7 vs. SD...went 3-0 in April and then won his first two starts in May including a complete-game shutout vs. NYM, on May 9...on June 5 vs. HOU, he homered in consecutive at-bats off the Astros Wade Miller to become first pitcher to do so for Colorado...homered for the third time in four at-bats with a solo homer in his first at-bat on June 10 vs. STL.

2000: Spent only campaign with the NL Champion New York Mets...his 3.14 ERA ranked fifth in the NL and sixth in the Majors...his 2.05 home ERA was second in the NL...had a 2.36 daytime ERA, second in the circuit...held the hitters to a .325 slugging percentage, first in the NL...made his fourth consecutive trip to the NLDS (1997-99 with Houston) and sustained a loss in Game 1 at SF...in the NLCS vs. STL, he earned series MVP honors, going 2-0 with 16.0 scoreless innings...started Game 1 and the clinching Game 5 after tossing a complete-game, three-hit shutout...started Game 2 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium vs. Roger Clemens...went 6.0 innings in the defeat...from Game 1 of the NLDS to Game 1 of the World Series, he threw 18.1 consecutive scoreless innings...started MLB season vs. the Cubs on March 29 in Tokyo...in his Met debut, he walked a career-high nine in a 5-3 loss.

1999: Had an NL-leading 22 wins and became the first left-handed 20-game winner in Astros history...ranked first in winning percentage (.846), third in ERA (2.90), fourth in innings (239.0) and tied for second in shutouts (2)...the Sporting News' NL Pitcher of the Year and first-time All-Star, he finished second in the Cy Young voting with 110 points (Randy Johnson, 134)...hit .311 (23x74) to become the first pitcher to win 20 games and hit .300 in the same season since Oakland's Catfish Hunter (21-11; .350, 36x103) in 1971...won NL Silver Slugger award...had one appearance in the NLDS vs. ATL, going 7.0 innings, allowing three runs, while fanning nine; did not factor into the decision...won a career-high 11 straight decisions during the regular season from June 30-Sept. 13...tossed complete games in two straight starts, July 18 vs. CLE and July 23 vs. SD.

1998: Led the National League in ground-ball double-plays induced with 31...got a no-decision in his NLDS start vs. the Padres, despite going 6.0 innings on two hits, one run, one walk and two strikeouts.

1997: Ranked ninth in the NL in innings (223.0), tied for ninth in wins (15), tied for third in both starts (34) and complete games (7), and tied for fifth in shutouts (2)...started Game 2 of the NLDS in Atlanta with the Braves winning 10-3...allowed six runs in 4.2 IP with eight walks in the loss, his first postseason decision...on Sept. 25 vs. CHC, his win clinched the NL Central title...fired a complete-game vs. CLE on July 2 in the Astrodome, his first of seven straight winning decisions...over the nine-start stretch, he hurled five complete games and two shutouts, with a 2.15 ERA.

1996: Had 100+ Ks for the second year in a row (101)...tossed a three-hit complete-game shutout on May 1 vs. ATL, both his first ML complete game and shutout...pitched his second complete game on July 1 at FLA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Is 59-77 with 76 career saves in 688 games (98 starts) during parts of 14 Major League seasons with Minnesota (1995-2003), the Chicago Cubs (2004-05), San Francisco (2005), Baltimore (2006), Colorado (2007), the New York Yankees (2008) and Houston (2008).
- ★ Has appeared in the postseason with Minnesota (2002-03) and Colorado (2007), playing in 15 career postseason games (4.63 ERA, 6ER/11.2IP), including two World Series games in 2007 (4.50 ERA, 1ER/2IP).
- ★ Acquired by Houston, along with cash considerations, from the New York Yankees in exchange for minor league infielder Matt Cusick on July 30, 2008...proceeded to post a 0.43 ERA (1ER/21IP) in 24 games with Houston in 2008...signed to a one-year contract with the Astros running through the 2009 season on Nov. 7, 2008.
- ★ Was one of five Major League relievers to surpass 60 appearances in each of the eight seasons from 2000-07...he and David Weathers were the only two right-handers to reach the plateau in each of those seasons.
- ★ Went 9-3 with a career-low 1.86 ERA (16ER/77.1IP) in 74 appearances in relief for the Twins in 2003...ranked fifth in the American League in relief appearances.
- ★ Won a career-high ten consecutive decisions from April 6, 2002 to May 21, 2003...the winning streak spanned 83 relief appearances, and he posted a 1.91 ERA (21ER/99IP) in that time span.
- ★ Matched his career high and picked up a save after tossing 4.0 innings in relief on June 30, 2000, at CLE.
- ★ In his 10th career start on April 25, 1996 at DET, struck out a career-high 10 hitters...struck out only 22 other hitters in his 11 other starts from 1995-96.
- ★ Has one 9.0-inning complete game in his career on Sept. 24, 1995 vs. CHI (AL)...allowed three runs on five hits and did not issue a walk en route to the victory...also tossed an 8.0-inning complete game in a losing effort on Aug. 18, 1999, at BAL...allowed two runs on five hits.

Astros NOTES

- ★ Graduated from Gary West Side High School (IN) in 1991, where he was all-state in baseball and basketball as a junior and senior...also ran track...selected by the Twins in the seventh round of the 1991 First-Year Player Draft...signed by Twins scout Dan Durst.
- ★ A resident of Frisco, TX, he assists with Lifeline, a non-profit organization in Texas dedicated to helping at-risk children and families...participates in the organization's annual "Fish with the Pros" event.
- ★ A member of the Volunteers of America, he helped with recovery efforts in Alabama, Mississippi and New Orleans after Hurricane Rita and Hurricane Katrina in 2005.
- ★ Avoided free agency by re-signing with Houston to a one-year deal that runs through the 2009 season on Nov. 7, 2008.

2008: Finished the season 3-1 with one save and a 3.92 ERA (27ER/62IP) in 57 appearances with the Astros and Yankees...while with Houston, went 2-0 with one save and a 0.43 ERA (1ER/21IP) in 24 appearances...acquired along with cash considerations on July 30 from the New York Yankees in exchange for minor league infielder Matt Cusick...had been designated for assignment by the Yankees on July 26...did not allow an earned run in his first 22 games for Houston, which ties as the fourth-longest streak in club history...in those 22 appearances, he pitched 19.0 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run...his scoreless inning streak lasted from Aug. 2-Sept. 15 and spanned 17 appearances (14.0 innings)...did not allow a run in 14 August outings (11.0 innings)...posted a 1.95 ERA (6ER/27.2IP) in 28 appearances vs. NL clubs...owned a 1.09 ERA (3ER/24.2IP) in 27 appearances after the All-Star Break...posted a 2.13 ERA (9ER/38IP) from June 1 through the end of the season.

2007: Went 2-5 with a 3.42 ERA (55.1IP/21ER) in 62 relief appearances with the Colorado Rockies...became one of just five Major League pitchers to surpass 60 appearances from 2000-07, joining David Weathers as the only righthanders to make the claim (also left-handers Alan Embree, Steve Kline and Mike Myers)...his 550.2IP over the eight-year stretch was the sixth-highest total among Major League relievers...had a 2.48 ERA at Coors Field and a 4.44 ERA on the road...landed on the 15-day DL on April 24 (retroactive to April 21) with right elbow inflammation...was returned from rehab and reinstated from the DL on May 22...over his final 53 outings after coming off the DL, went 2-2 with a 2.63 ERA (14ER/48IP) to drop his ERA from 8.59 to 3.42 as the Rockies went a National League-best 72-46...suffered a blown save on June 28 at HOU, when he allowed home runs to Lance Berkman and Mike Lamb in the eighth inning...appeared in five postseason games for the Rockies, allowing just 1ER in 5.0IP (1.80 ERA)...held opponents to a .133 batting average (2x15) with 1BB and 3K...appeared in two World Series games vs. BOS (2.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 2K).

2006: Went 3-2 with a 4.48 ERA (30ER/60.1IP) in 60 relief appearances with the Baltimore Orioles...the club had a 36-24 record in games in which he pitched...reached 1,000 career innings pitched on July 26 at KC...spent five days on the bereavement list from July 30-Aug. 3, following the death of his grandmother...was sidelined for 16 days after sustaining a strained right groin on Sept. 2 at OAK...was acquired by the Orioles from the San Francisco Giants in exchange for LHP Steve Kline on Dec. 6, 2005.

2005: Split the season between the Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants, combining to go 2-8 with six saves and a 3.83 ERA in 66 relief appearances...began the season with the Cubs, making 21 appearances before being traded to the Giants on May 28 along with cash considerations in exchange for RHPs Jerome Williams and David Aardsma...went 1-4 with a 4.10 ERA in 45 games for San Francisco...was placed on the DL from June 17-July 4 with ulnar neuritis in his right elbow...from June 6 on, compiled a 2.45 ERA (9ER/33IP) over his final 39 outings, permitting just two home runs in that span.

2004: Made his National League debut after signing a two-year contract with the Chicago Cubs...was 5-4 with 25 saves and a 2.63 ERA in a career-high 77 games...spent the majority of the season as the Cubs' closer after an injury to Joe Borowski...went 25-for-34 in save opportunities as his nine blown saves tied for most in the league...posted a strikeout-to-walk ratio of nearly 5-to-1 (14BB, 69K)...had a 1.99 ERA (9ER/40.2IP) at Wrigley Field.

2003: In his final year with Minnesota, was 9-3 with two saves and a career-best 1.86 ERA (16ER/77IP) in 74 games...ranked fifth in the AL in appearances and seventh in ERA among relievers...recorded a 5-to-1 strikeout-to-walk ratio (75K, 15BB)...had a personal 10-game winning streak, dating back to April 6, 2002, snapped on June 8 at SD...had a 20-game, 20.2-inning scoreless stretch from July 31-Sept. 14...made three appearances in the ALDS vs. the Yankees, surrendering 5H and 2ER in 3.0IP.

2002: Compiled a perfect 6-0 record and 2.13 ERA (19ER/80.1IP) in 65 games out of Minnesota's bullpen with 63K and just 15BB...won the Charles O. Johnson Award as the most improved Twins player...appeared in his first postseason for the AL Central champs...pitched in three Division Series games vs. Oakland, tossing 2.1 perfect innings and striking out five of the seven batters he faced...in four ALCS games vs. the Angels, allowed 3ER over 1.1IP.

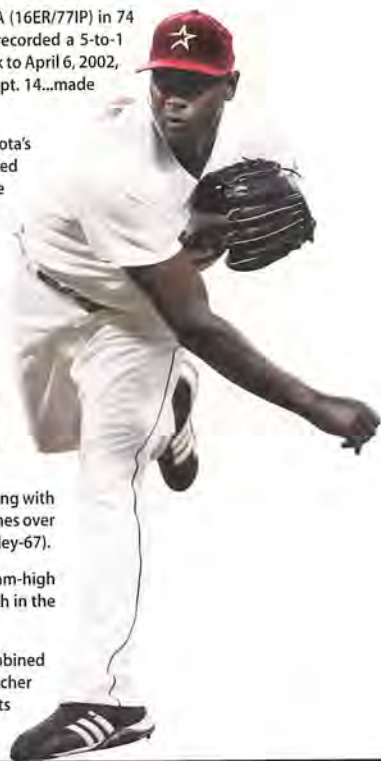

2001: Established a career high with 28 saves in 62 relief appearances with the Twins...tied for eighth in the American League in saves...established a Major League record for consecutive saves to start a career when he saved his 23rd straight game on May 2 vs. NY...recorded his first career blown save in his next appearance on May 5 at KC.

2000: Spent his first season in the bullpen after making just five relief appearances in the first nine years of his professional career...was 2-5 with a team-high 14 saves and a 3.39 ERA in 66 games...ranked fourth among league relievers with 87.2IP...earned his first career save on May 28 vs. TEX...converted all 14 save chances and stranded 27-of-33 inherited runners (81.8%).

10 SEASONS Astros NOTES 10 SEASONS

- ★ Pitched three collegiate seasons (1991-93) for the University of North Carolina-Greensboro...became the first Spartan to be drafted in Major League Baseball's First-Year Player Draft when Detroit selected him in the sixth round of the 1993 Draft.
- ★ Began the 2007-08 seasons as a non-roster invitee to Major League Spring Training...pitched his way onto the team in both Springs.
- ★ Signed to a contract extension on Aug. 29, 2008, that runs through the 2009 season...the deal also includes a club option for the 2010 season.

2006: Went 7-11 with a 6.57 ERA (89ER/122IP) in 29 games (21 starts) for the Marlins in 2006...was 5-11 with a 7.29 ERA in 21 starts and went 2-0 with a 2.45 ERA in relief appearances...began the season as a starter and went 5-7 with a 6.84 ERA in 15 starts before landing on the 15-day DL with a right foot sprain from July 2-30...used twice as a pinch-hitter, the first two pinch-hit appearances of his career...had a sacrifice bunt as a pinch-hitter on May 17 at Atlanta and was hit by a pitch as pinch-hitter on Aug. 2 vs. New York Mets.

2005: Went 6-12 with a 4.55 ERA in 25 starts for the Marlins...made 12 relief appearances, a career-high...picked up first win of the season on April 19 at WSH, marking his first Major League win since Aug. 16, 2002, against Houston while with Cincinnati, a span of 977 days between wins...posted a 4-6 record with a 3.27 ERA in 19 games (15 starts) prior to the All-Star Break...ranked 10th in the Majors, fourth in the NL and first on the Marlins in ERA for the month of May at 2.05...was 1-7 with a 4.20 ERA in 15 games as a starter at Dolphin Stadium...recorded his first Major League hit on May 10 with a single against Houston's Brandon Backe...recorded first career extra-base hit on July 20 at Arizona when he doubled off Greg Aquino.

2004: Despite spending April and the beginning of May on the Disabled List, made 20 starts with Double A Greenville in the Atlanta Braves organization...went 3-9 with a 4.17 ERA with Greenville while allowing 27 walks and 57 strikeouts in 108.0 innings pitched.

2003: Made just three starts with Houston after having season-ending elbow surgery...went 0-3 with a 7.90 ERA in 13.2 innings.

2002: A year removed from shoulder surgery, combined to go 3-5 with a 4.86 ERA in 12 starts (13 appearances) with Detroit and Cincinnati...went 1-1 with a 2.29 ERA in three starts for Detroit prior to being traded to Cincinnati where he went 2-4 with a 6.02 ERA in nine starts (10 appearances)...went on the disabled list for the second time of the season on Aug. 28-Sept. 12 with inflammation in his surgically-repaired rotator cuff.

2001: Had his season cut short after just one regular season start where he experienced problems with his right shoulder...in late May, Moehler experienced more shoulder discomfort and an examination by Dr. James Andrews revealed a strain in a muscle in his right shoulder unrelated to his previous shoulder tendinitis...transferred to the 60-day DL on June 15 and had arthroscopic surgery on July 4 which revealed tears in the rotator cuff and labrum.

2000: Led Detroit with 12 wins in his fourth full season in the Majors, marking his fourth straight season with 10 plus wins and 175 or more innings pitched...went 12-9 with a 4.50 ERA and two complete games in 29 starts...pitched six or more innings in 21 of his 29 starts...started the first game in Comerica Park history (also the 100th start of his career) on April 11 vs. Seattle...scratched from his April 23 start due to an emergency appendectomy and placed on the disabled list retroactive to April 17; activated May 19...established a career-high six-game winning streak from August 2-September 5 through seven starts, posted a 2.61 ERA (14 ER in 48.1 IP) during the stretch.

1999: Went 10-16 with a 5.04 ERA in 32 starts with Detroit...earned the win in his first career Opening Day start, 11-5; held Texas hitless for the first 6.1 innings before Juan Gonzalez singled to break up the no-hitter...tied for second in the AL with two shutouts (June 25 vs. Minnesota and August 30 vs. Texas)...was ejected from his start on May 1 at TB for illegally defacing the ball...was subsequently issued a 10-game suspension by the American League on May 3...was the winning pitcher for the final game at Tiger Stadium on Sept 27.

1998: Finished the season 14-13 with a 3.90 ERA in 33 starts leading the Tigers in wins, ERA and shutouts (3)...set career highs in wins, innings pitched (221.1), starts (33), shutouts, complete games (4), and strikeouts (123)...his three shutouts tied for second in the league behind David Wells' five and were the most by a Tiger since Jack Morris had six in 1986...started the season 9-0 at home (12 starts)...defeated Toronto on July 11 at Tiger Stadium and took a no-hitter through seven innings.

1997: Went 11-12 with a 4.67 ERA in 31 starts for Detroit winning the most games by a Tigers rookie since Dave Rozema won 15 in 1997...finished second among AL rookie pitchers in wins, ERA (4.67) and starts (31)...tied for third among all Major League rookies in victories...earned his first Major League victory April 20 vs. OAK allowing two runs through 7.0 innings...tossed his first career shutout six days later on April 26 at ANA...became the first Tigers rookie to toss a shutout since Jeff Robinson on August 17, 1987 against New York (AL)...finished 2-1 with a 2.45 ERA in five April starts earning Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors.

1996: Went 0-1 with a 4.35 ERA in two starts after having his contract purchased by Detroit from Double A Jacksonville in late September...received a no-decision in his Major League debut on Sept. 22 vs. MIL...posted a league-leading 15 wins for Double A Jacksonville as the Suns captured the Southern League title...was named to Baseball America's Double A All-Star Team and was honored as Detroit's Minor League Pitcher of the Year...led the team in strikeouts (120), starts (28) and innings pitched (173.1) while posting the team's best ERA among starters...went undefeated in his final 11 starts (including playoffs)...earned Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors in June going 5-1 with a 2.30 ERA.

MINOR LEAGUES:

1995: Spent the season at Double A Jacksonville going 8-10 with a 4.82 ERA in 162.1 innings pitched...fourth in the league in games started (27)...1994: His 3.01 ERA with High A Lakeland was sixth-best in the Florida State League...also finished fourth in the FSL in complete games (5) and fifth in wins (12)...led Lakeland in wins, complete games, starts (25), and innings pitched (165.0)...1993: Began his professional career with Short-Season A Niagara Falls going 6-5 with a 3.22 ERA in 12 games (11 starts).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Since joining the Majors in 2001, he leads all MLB pitchers with 129 wins...in that time span, he ranks third in ERA (3.13) and is seventh in winning pct. (.668)...his .668 overall career winning pct. (.668) ranks first in Astros history, and his 3.13 ERA ranks first in franchise history among pitchers with at least 800 IP (Nolan Ryan, 3.13 ERA).
- ★ Ranks fourth on the Houston career strikeout list with 1,335, trailing third-place Larry Dierker (1,487)...ranks third on the Houston career wins list with 129 victories and is eight wins away from second-place Larry Dierker (137-117).
- ★ Ranks eighth in Astros history in games started by a pitcher with 241, immediately trailing Don Wilson, who had 245 starts in his Astros career.
- ★ Has started a club-record six consecutive Opening Day's dating back to 2003...the previous record was five held by Shane Reynolds (1996-2000), J.R. Richard (1976-80) and Mike Scott (1987-97)...Oswalt is tied with Toronto's Roy Halladay for the most consecutive Opening Day starts by an active MLB pitcher.
- ★ Owns the highest winning pct. (.766, 72-22) and ranks first in career ERA (2.68) at home of any active pitcher with at least 70 career starts at home...is the all-time leader in wins at Minute Maid Park with 72...he also posted the longest individual winning streak in the history of the ballpark with a career-best, 10-game winning streak from April 10-July 26, 2005.
- ★ Has double-digit win totals in all eight Major League seasons (2001-08)...has won at least 14 games in each of his last five seasons and in seven of his eight Major League seasons, including consecutive 20-win seasons from 2004-05.
- ★ Ranks third among active pitchers with at least 140 decisions with a .668 winning pct., trailing only Pedro Martinez (.684) and Johan Santana (.681).
- ★ Among players who began their careers after 1957, Oswalt is the sixth-fastest to 100 wins in terms of appearances among pitchers, according to Stats, Inc...he earned his 100th victory in his 191st game (180th start) on April 13, 2007 at PHI.
- ★ His 129 wins from 2001-08 is a greater win total in the first eight years of a career than those posted by Hall of Famers Don Drysdale (123), Warren Spahn (122), Whitey Ford (121), Don Sutton (120), and Bob Gibson (112).
- ★ Is tied with Johan Santana for the most wins in MLB since 2004 with 86.
- ★ Is one of 60 active MLB pitchers with 1,000 career strikeouts (ranks 28th)...recorded his 1,000th career strikeout on Sept. 18, 2006 vs. CIN, becoming the eighth player in Houston franchise history with 1,000 strikeouts.
- ★ Has a career record after the All-Star Break of 67-20, ranking him second behind Johan Santana (58-17, .773) for the best career winning percentage in the second half among all pitchers with at least 50 career wins post-Break (.770)...is also 28-8 (.778) combined in his career in September and October games, the highest combined winning pct. during those two months among active MLB players (min. 25 decisions).

ASTROS NOTES

- ★ Attended Holmes Community College in Mississippi...drafted by Houston after his freshman year in college in the 23rd round of the 1996 June Draft, but did not immediately sign...played his sophomore year at Holmes and was signed by Houston following that season...signed by Astros scouts Ralph Bratton, Brian Granger and James Farrar.
- ★ Is a three-time All-Star (2005-07) and the only Astros pitcher to ever be selected to the team in three consecutive years...was voted by fans on MLB.COM to his first All-Star Game in 2005, becoming the first pitcher elected to the team in fan voting since 1934.
- ★ Has been named Astros Pitcher of the Year by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA in three seasons (2002, 2006-07)...named the recipient of the Darryl Kile Award in 2003.
- ★ Was a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic Baseball team that won the gold medal in Sydney, Australia.
- ★ Received a Caterpillar model D6N XL bulldozer as a gift from Astros owner Drayton McLane for winning Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS vs. the Cardinals...his contract had to be reworked to include the gift, making the first-ever bulldozer clause in a player's contract...uses the bulldozer to build lakes and roads on his 1,000-acre ranch in Weir, MS.
- ★ After pitching in the 1999 Midwest League Playoffs, he could barely lift his arm above his head...that winter, before seeing a doctor, he was fixing his pickup truck and was shocked by an exposed wire...when he came to his senses, his arm was pain-free...he reported to Spring Training that year feeling great, and some trainers have speculated that the shock could have knocked out built-up scar tissue in his arm.
- ★ Houston Oswalt, Roy's grandfather, worked as a logger in Weir until retiring to become a watermelon farmer...during the summer months, Roy and his brother would help their grandfather hoe weeds in the 20-acre watermelon patch.
- ★ Is in his third year of a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2011 season...signed on his 29th birthday: Aug. 29, 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ A long-time member of the Cincinnati organization (1997-2005), Graves has also appeared in the big leagues for the Indians (1996-97, 2006) and Mets (2005) in his 11-year Major League career.
- ★ Averaged more than 32 saves per season from 1999-2002 and 2004 with Cincinnati, not including the year he was mostly a starter in 2003...posted a career-high 41 saves in 2004, establishing Major League marks for fastest to reach the 20, 25, and 30-save plateaus before late season ailments prevented him from compiling a higher total for the year...he is the Reds' all-time saves leader (182).
- ★ Made his last appearance on a Major League roster in 2006 with the Indians...made the club out of Spring Training after being signed to a minor league deal prior to the season.
- ★ Made his second All-Star team in 2004 while with Cincinnati...did not pitch in the game, which was held at Minute Maid Park in Houston.
- ★ Appeared primarily as a starter in 2003 and became only the second pitcher since the inception of the modern save rule to throw a shutout after recording 100 career saves...Boston's Bob Stanley recorded 123 career saves before shutting out the Royals on April 22, 1987.
- ★ In 2000, was named the Reds Team MVP and the club's Most Outstanding Pitcher by the local chapter of the BBWAA...earned his first All-Star appearance by posting a 9-1 record with a 1.99 ERA with 14 saves in 37 games prior to the break...pitched a scoreless second inning in his All-Star Game appearance.
- ★ Made his Major League debut on July 13, 1996, becoming the first Vietnamese-born player to appear in the Majors...received the Bob Feller Award as the Indians organization's top minor league pitcher for the second straight season.
- ★ Received the Bob Feller Award as the Indians organization's top minor league pitcher in 1995...was a Carolina League All-Star and was named the league's best reliever by Baseball America.

2008: Spent the season with the Minnesota Twins organization after signing a minor league deal with the club on March 30...played at two levels before finishing the season with Rochester (AAA)...started 16 games for Rochester, the most he's started in a single season since starting 26 games for the Reds in 2003...following the season, played in the Mexican Winter League, posting a 4.66 ERA (SER/9.2IP) with one save in nine relief appearances.

2007: Signed with Colorado as a minor league free agent with an invitation to Major League Spring Training prior to the season...did not make the club and was given his release on March 23...signed with Independent League Long Island and made 62 relief appearances, posting a 3.90 ERA (28ER/64.2IP) with 33 saves.

2006: After making Cleveland's Opening Day roster as a non-roster invitee to spring training, Graves was designated for assignment on May 13 and spent the rest of the year with Triple A Buffalo...went 2-1, 5.79 (9ER/14IP) in 13 relief appearances for Cleveland...earned win on April 5 at CWS, his first win for the Tribe since Sept. 23, 1996 vs. MIN...took loss and blown save in final outing May 9 at Kansas City, allowing 3-run homer to John Buck, first batter faced, in the 6th inning after entering with a 6-4 lead...designated for assignment on May 13 and outrighted to Buffalo on May 18...went 1-1, 4.01 (23ER/51.2IP) for the Bisons.

Astros NOTES

- ★ Graduated from Brandon (FL) High School in 1991 and went on to major in criminal justice at the University of Miami...during his junior season for the Hurricanes in 1994, went 1-1 with a 0.89 ERA and led the nation with a school-record 21 saves...drafted by Cleveland in the fourth round of the 1994 First-Year Player Draft...signed by Indians scout Gary Tuck.
- ★ A two-time All-Star (2000, 2004), Graves was named the Reds' team MVP and the club's Most Outstanding Pitcher in 2000...also named as the Indian's minor league Pitcher of the Year in his first two professional seasons (1994-95).
- ★ Has always been active in the community and has received multiple recognitions for his efforts...he was the Reds' recipient of the 2001 and 2003 Roberto Clemente Award and was named the recipient of the 2003 Lou Gehrig Award, which is presented annually to the MLB player who best exemplifies the giving character of the Hall of Famer.
- ★ Became the first Vietnamese-born player to appear in the Major Leagues when he made his MLB debut in 1996...he was born on a military base in Saigon to an American serviceman father and a Vietnamese mother who worked in the U.S. Embassy...the family moved to the U.S. shortly before the fall of Saigon.
- ★ If he makes the Big League club he would be the first Vietnamese-born player in franchise history.
- ★ Signed by Houston to a one-year minor league contract with an invitation to Major League Spring Training on Jan. 6, 2009.

SEASON IN REVIEW

SEASON IN REVIEW

THE 2008 SEASON: The Houston Astros finished 86-75 in 2008, in 3rd place in the National League Central Division and 11 games behind the 1st-place Chicago Cubs...Houston finished 3.5 games behind Milwaukee in the NL Wild Card race...the Astros played only 161 games in 2008, marking the first time in franchise history the club did not play at least 162 games in a non-strike season...this was caused by the cancellation of a three-game series vs. the Chicago Cubs (Sept. 12-14) because of the impact of Hurricane Ike in the Houston and Gulf Coast areas, of which only two games were made up, both at Miller Park in Milwaukee.

TURNAROUND: The 86 wins for Houston this season were 13 more than the club's entire win total in 2007 (73-89) and a .083 improvement in winning pct. (from .451 to .534)...the Astros have recorded a winning season for the 7th time in the last 8 years since 2001 and also in 14 of the last 16 seasons since 1993...the 13-game improvement over one season is the highest for the Astros since the franchise-record, 21-game improvement from 2000 (72-90) to 2001 (93-69)...the 86 wins are also the most for the Astros since finishing 89-73 in 2005...the Astros 86-73 record was the 5th-best in the National League in 2008.

MOST IMPROVED CLUBS IN 2008, MAJOR LEAGUES*

Tampa Bay	97-65	66-96	+31, +.192
Chicago White Sox	89-74	72-90	+16.5 (1 gm left)
HOUSTON	86-75	73-89	+13.5, +.083
Florida	84-77	71-91	+13.5, +.084
Chicago Cubs	97-64	85-77	+12.5, +.077

*-Based on records through the same # of games played in '07.

2ND HALF STORY: On July 8, the Astros were 41-50 following a 4-3 loss at PNC Park to Pittsburgh, in last place in the NL Central and 13.5 games out of 1st...in the 70 games after that, Houston was 45-25 (.643) and were not eliminated from the postseason race until Friday, Sept. 26, the club's 159th game of the season.

• Additionally, the Astros were 44-51 (.463) before the All-Star Break and 42-24 in the 2nd Half (.636), the best record in the NL in the 2nd Half and the 2nd-best in the Majors (Angels, 43-24, .642).

• Since 2004, the Astros' post-All-Star Break record of 208-153 (.576) is 4th-best in the Major Leagues, trailing only the Yankees (232-139, .625), Angels (218-146, .599) and Phillies (213-150, .587)...the 42-24 record since the Break marks the 4th-best winning pct. in club history.

SEASON IN REVIEW

THE INFIELD: Here's a look at the offensive production from Astros infielders this season compared with the previous four:

YEAR	AVG.	HR	RBI	OBP	SLG
2008	.267	86	374	.335	.442
2007	.263	78	355	.336	.397
2006	.256	104	408	.335	.418
2005	.259	110	410	.336	.432

ROOKIE ROUNDUP: The Astros used six rookies in 2008: RHP Alberto Arias, RHP Jack Cassel, IF Edwin Maysonet, IF Mark Saccomanno, C J.R. Towles, and LHP Wesley Wright...Wright appeared in 71 games in 2008, tying the club record for a rookie left-hander (71, Al Osuna, 1991), and was later named the Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA.

ROY WONDER: Roy Oswalt's career record after the All-Star Break is 67-20 (.770), ranking him 2nd behind Johan Santana (58-17, .773) for the best career winning pct. in the 2nd Half among all pitchers with at least 50 career wins post-Break...Oswalt is also 28-8 (.778) combined in his career in September and October games, the highest combined winning pct. during those two months in MLB history (min. 25 decisions)...in his last nine starts, Oswalt was 7-2 with a 1.47 ERA (11ER/67.1IP), and he became the 1st pitcher to win 23 of his first 24 career decisions vs. any team with his 23rd win over Cincinnati on Sept. 25.

BEST 2ND HALF WINNING PCT., MLB HISTORY (MIN. 50 WINS)

Johan Santana	58-17, .773
ROY OSWALT	67-20, .770
Warren Spahn	123-50, .711

ROY IN 2008: Roy Oswalt was 17-10 with a 3.54 ERA (82ER/208.2IP) for the Astros in 2008.

- Oswalt set the franchise consecutive scoreless innings streak record with 32.1, breaking the old mark of J.R. Richard's, who threw 31 consecutive scoreless innings from May 26-June 11, 1980.
- threw consecutive complete-game shutouts, as he threw a 1-hit shutout on Sept. 6 at COL (first 1-hitter the Astros since April 28, 2000 at Milwaukee; the club had a no-hitter on 6/6/03 at the Yankees), and a 3-hit shutout on Sept. 11 vs. PIT.
- 4 combined hits are the fewest allowed in consecutive shutouts in franchise history - previous low was 5, by Ken Forsch from Sept. 21, 1978-April 7, 1979. Looking only at a single season, the previous club mark was six - twice -

J.R. Richard, May 15-20, 1978 and Dave Roberts, Aug. 18-24, 1974.

- was the first pitcher to throw consecutive complete-game shutouts in 2008 and the first in MLB since Brandon Webb (3 in a row from Aug. 5-17, 2007)...is the first Astro to throw consecutive complete-game shutouts since Randy Johnson (Aug. 7-Aug. 12, 1998).
- won 10 of his last 12 decisions.
- his 10 2nd-Half wins were the most in the NL and tied Cliff Lee (10-1) for the Major League lead after the All-Star Break.
- recorded career win 125 on Sept. 1...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only 3 active pitchers had as few losses as Oswalt (63) at the time of their 125th win: Pedro Martinez (56), Mike Mussina (60) and Tim Hudson (63).
- leads all Major League pitchers in wins with 129 since joining the Majors in 2001.
- his .668 career winning pct. (129-64) ranks 1st in Astros history...ranks 3rd in club history in wins and 4th in strikeouts.
- Oswalt led the Astros in wins for a franchise-record 6th season...also set the club record by leading the team in wins for the 5th consecutive season.

AUSMUS: Astros C Brad Ausmus completed his 10th and final season with the club in 2008...here's a few highlights of his career with the Astros as well as throughout his 16 Major League seasons overall:

- Winner of three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards (2001, 2002, and 2006).
- Ranks 2nd all-time among catchers in putouts (12,468, trailing only Ivan Rodriguez, 13,124)
- Is the Houston franchise career leader among catchers in games caught (1,249) and games started (1,124)...has caught 10,065.2 innings with the Astros.
- Ranks 8th all-time in games caught (1,887).
- Ranks 25th all-time among catchers in hits (1,537).

LANCE BERKMAN IN 2008

- Hit .312 (173x554) with 46 doubles, 29 homers and 106 RBI in 159 games with Houston in 2008.
- Tied for the league lead with 46 doubles, the 6th-highest single season total in franchise history...hit a league-leading .345 (49x142) with runners in scoring position.
- Scored a career-high 114 runs, besting his previous high of 110 runs scored in both 2001 and 2003...set a career high with seven home runs as a right-handed hitter; previous high was five, set in both 2006 and 2007.
- Finished the season among the top 10 in the National League in multiple categories including runs (4th-114), hitting (5th-.312), total bases (T9th-314), 2B (T1st-46), extra-base hits (4th-79), walks (4th-99), OBP (3rd-.420) and slugging (4th-.567).
- Recorded his 6th career 100-RBI season, trailing only Jeff Bagwell's eight in franchise history...his three consecutive 100-RBI seasons (2006-08) are also the second-most in club history, trailing only Bagwell's six from 1996-2001.
- Posted more than 100 RBI and runs scored, marking the 16th time in franchise history that a player has reached both milestones in a single season...has done it four times (2001-02, 2004)...the last Astro, other than him, to accomplish the feat was Jeff Bagwell in 2003 (100 RBI, 109 R).

- Became the fourth switch-hitter in Major League history with as many as seven seasons with 25-or-more home runs...also Chipper Jones (10), Mickey Mantle (10) and Eddie Murray (12).

HISTORY & RECORDS

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

32 • JIM UMBRICHT

1962-1963

BORN: 9/17/30 IN CHICAGO, IL

B: R T: R

Jim Umbricht broke into the professional ranks with the Milwaukee Brewers farm system in 1953 and was traded to Pittsburgh by Milwaukee for outfielder Emil Ranko on April 6, 1959. He was purchased by the Houston Colt .45s in the 1961 National League player pool for $50,000 from Pittsburgh. Umbricht opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the National League. He posted a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA that year. He then made a remarkable comeback after a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963 and was once again one of the league's leading relievers with a 4-3 record and 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired on April 12, 1965.

BORN: 2/12/45 IN MONROE, LA

B: R T: R

Don Wilson is the only player to hurl two no-hitters while wearing a Houston uniform. He pitched a no-hitter on June 18, 1967 vs. Atlanta (2-0) and May 1, 1969 at Cincinnati (4-0). Wilson established the club record for single-game strikeouts (18) on July 14, 1968 vs. Los Angeles. He compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros and won a career-high 16 games twice in 1969 (16-12), and 1971 (16-10). He was named to the 1971 All-Star team. Wilson died on January 5, 1975 and his number, 40, was officially retired on April 13, 1975.

25 • JOSE CRUZ

BORN: 8/8/47 IN ARROYO, PR

B: L T: L

Jose "Cheo" Cruz ranks in the top 10 in every significant Astros career hitting category. He was the team's most valuable player four times (1977, 1980, 1983, 1984) and named a National League All-Star twice (1980, 1985). He started his career in the St. Louis organization but did not blossom until he was acquired by the Astros in 1975. Cruz made three trips into post-season play with the Astros, batting .400 in the 1980 NLCS against the Phillies and hitting .300 six times in his career. Cruz currently serves as the Astros' first base coach. His number, 25, was officially retired on October 3, 1992.

33 • MIKE SCOTT

BORN: 4/26/55 IN SANTA MONICA, CA

B: R T: R

Mike Scott is still remembered for doing the impossible: on Sept. 25, 1986, he became the first pitcher ever to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco 2-0 to wrap up the NL West title. Scott, who began his career with the New York Mets, was 110-81 with a 3.30 ERA as an Astro from 1983-90, winning the Cy Young Award in 1986 when he led the Majors in strikeouts (306), innings pitched (275.1) and ERA (2.22). He will also be remembered for his feats in the 1986 NLCS. Scott twice beat the New York Mets, limiting them to one run in 18 innings and striking out 19 batters. He became the first player from a losing team to win NLCS MVP honors. In 1989, he became Houston's fourth 20-game winner when he posted a 20-10 record. His number, 33, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

34 • NOLAN RYAN

BORN: 1/31/47 IN REFUGIO, TX

B: R T: R

The all-time strikeout king and 1999 inductee to the Baseball Hall of Fame played nine seasons for the Astros after signing as a free agent on Nov. 19, 1979. Astros fans did not have to wait long to get a glimpse of Ryan magic. In his first game as an Astro, he hit a three-run homer off of Don Sutton as the Astros lost to the Dodgers 6-5 in 17 innings. He helped the Astros to their first National League West Division title in 1980. He tossed his fifth career no-hitter on Sept. 26, 1981 against Los Angeles and posted one of the best post-World War II ERAs (1.69) in helping Houston to the second half title.

On April 27, 1983, he surpassed Walter Johnson as baseball's all-time strikeout king when he fanned Montreal's Brad Mills. He led the league with a 2.76 ERA in 1987 despite an 8-16 record. He led the league in strikeouts in 1987 (270) and 1988 (228). Ryan made two All-Star appearances while wearing a Houston uniform (1981, 1985) and was the owner of 53 Major League pitching records upon his retirement. His number, 34, was retired on Sept. 29, 1996.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

1964-77

BORN: 9/22/46 IN HOLLYWOOD, CA

B: R T: R

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the number 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. In 38 years of service to the organization, Dierker served as a player, front-office member, broadcaster, and manager. In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston, he won 137 games, second only to Joe Niekro in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games, and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Dierker pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976. After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Dierker became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles, and the 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, allowing Dierker to earn NL Manager of the Year honors.

1963-73

BORN: 3/12/46 IN HAMILTON, OH

B: R T: R

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the Top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season. In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Wynn smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. Wynn remains an active member of the Houston community and works closely with the Astros Community Development Department and charities. His number, 24, was officially retired on June 25, 2005.

1991-2005

BORN: 5/27/68 IN BOSTON, MA

B: R T: R

On August 26, 2007, the Astros retired the No. 5 worn by first baseman Jeff Bagwell during his 15-year career with the team. Bagwell is the franchise's career leader in home runs with 449 and in RBI with 1,529, and he is the only Astro to win the National League Most Valuable Player Award, having done so in 1994 after hitting .368 with 39 home runs and 116 RBI. Bagwell is also the only player in franchise history to win the NL Rookie of the Year award, capturing the honor in 1991. One of the most respected players and leaders in recent Major League memory, Bagwell's mark on the Astros franchise is indelible, from his play on the field to his impact on the younger Astros in the clubhouse. He also earned NL Silver Slugger Awards three times (1994, 1997, 1999) and one Rawlings Gold Glove Award (1994), and the four-time All-Star is the only Astro with six consecutive 100-RBI seasons. Bagwell was the Astros Opening Day first baseman for 15 consecutive seasons, and his 2,314 hits rank second in franchise history. He remains a member of the Astros organization as a special assistant to the general manager.

1988-2007

BORN: 12/14/65 IN SMITHTOWN, NY

B: R T: R

On August 17, 2008, the Astros retired the No. 7 worn by second baseman Craig Biggio during his 20-year career with the team. Biggio is the franchise's career leader in runs scored (1844) and hits (3060) and is the only player to reach the 3,000-hit plateau while wearing an Astros uniform. At the time of his retirement, he ranked 20th in Major League history in that category and is one of only nine players to reach the milestone while playing his entire career with the same team. Biggio also leads the franchise in doubles with 668. In 1998, Biggio joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season. He followed his 1998 campaign by hitting 56 doubles in 1999, becoming just the sixth player in MLB history to have back-to-back 50-double seasons. Biggio has played more games (2850) than any other player in franchise history and has been hit by more pitches (285) than any player in modern history (since 1900). A seven-time All-Star, Biggio received five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. He is the only player in Major League history to make the All-Star team at both catcher and second base. Biggio played in a franchise record 20 seasons with the club, including 19 consecutive Opening Day starts (1989-2007).

42 • JACKIE ROBINSON

On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson debuted at first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers, becoming the first African American in the 20th century to appear in a Major League Baseball uniform. He broke the color barrier, and quickly became one of the league's stars and a symbol of hope to millions of Americans. Known for his daring baserunning, Robinson stole home 19 times, and helped the Dodgers win the pennant in six of his 10 seasons. In 1949, he was named the National League MVP after batting .342 with 37 steals and 124 runs. And, in 1962, he became the first black player elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. To mark the 50th anniversary of his historic achievement, Major League Baseball dedicated the 1997 season to Robinson and retired his number, 42, throughout the league. Robinson died October 24, 1972, at the age of 53.

- 1993 The club established several franchise offensive records including batting average (.267), homers (138) and doubles (288)...paced by Craig Biggio's career-high 21 round-trippers, seven Houston players totaled double figures in homers for the first time in club history...Mark Portugal set a club record by winning his final 12 decisions...Darryl Kile posted a nine-game win streak and tosses the ninth no-hitter in Astros history on September 8 against New York.
- 1994 Jeff Bagwell became the first Houston player ever to win the NL Most Valuable Player award...Bagwell was a unanimous selection for only the third time in league history after batting .368 and setting club records with 73 extra base hits, 39 homers and 116 RBI...Bagwell earns All-Star honors along with Craig Biggio, Ken Caminiti, Doug Drabek and rookie John Hudek...Rookie skipper Terry Collins guided the club to a 66-49 mark, one-half game behind Cincinnati, before a players' strike ended the season on August 12.
- 1995 The Astros took the chase for the NL's first-ever Wild Card playoff berth to the final day of the season before finishing one game behind Colorado...Craig Biggio was voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game and slugged a solo homer...he later was voted team MVP and wins a second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.
- 1996 A two-and-a-half game lead at the end of August slipped away and denied Houston a shot at the NL Central title...the Astros suffered through an 8-17 September, which included a nine-game losing streak, to fall out of the playoff chase...Jeff Bagwell slugged 31 homers and set single season records with 48 doubles and 120 RBI...Derek Bell knocked in 113 runs, marking the first time ever the club had two 100-plus RBI players in the same season...Craig Biggio collected his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award...Shane Reynolds won 16 games, while he and Darryl Kile each topped the 200-mark in strikeouts.
- 1997 The Astros captured their first-ever NL Central title and their first division title in 11 years...Jeff Bagwell banged 43 homers and swiped 31 bases to become Houston's first "30-30" man...Bagwell set new single-season club records in homers (43), RBI (135), total bases (335) and extra-base hits (85)...Craig Biggio became the first player in Major League history to have not grounded into a double play in a 162-game season...fans select Bagwell and Biggio to play in the 1997 All-Star Game, marking the first time that two Astros position players were selected to start in the Mid-Summer classic...Darryl Kile won a team-high 19 games and was also selected to the All-Star Team...Larry Dierker became one of only six skippers in Major League history who won a division title in his first year as manager.
- 1998 The Astros won their second consecutive NL Central title en route to a franchise-best 102-win season...the club drew a record 2.45 million fans and drew ten crowds of 50,000 or more...Larry Dierker was voted NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and Baseball America...General Manager Gerry Hunsicker was voted The Sporting News Executive of the Year...Craig Biggio joined Tris Speaker as the only two players in the century who have hit 50 doubles and stolen 50 bases in the same season...Biggio and Moises Alou were selected to represent the Astros in the 1998 All-Star Game in Denver...Biggio broke Cesar Cedeno's record for the most runs scored by an Astro...he and Alou each received Silver Slugger Awards for their offensive contributions and both finished in the top five in NL MVP voting...five Astros starting pitchers, including Randy Johnson who was acquired just minutes before the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline, finished the season with double figures in wins.
- 1999 The Astros bid adieu to the Astrodome in dramatic fashion, clinching their third straight NL Central title on the final day of the regular season before a sold out crowd...standing-room only crowds were commonplace during the last year of baseball in the Dome as a record 2.7 million fans flocked to the Eighth Wonder of the World...despite an injury-riddled year that landed 14 players on the DL and sidelined three members of the coaching staff for significant periods of time, Houston won 97 games, only five victories fewer than its record-setting 102-win season of 1998...the pitching staff produced two 20-game winners for the first time in club history in Mike Hampton (22-4) and Jose Lima (21-10)...Hampton and Jeff Bagwell were recognized as the best offensive players at their respective positions as each was a recipient of the Silver Slugger Award...four Astros were selected to represent the National League in the 70th annual All-Star Game (Bagwell, Hampton, Lima, Billy Wagner)...Wagner was the recipient of the 1999 Rolands Relief Man Award.

2000 History was made as the doors of sparkling-new Minute Maid Park opened for the first time on March 30 before an exhibition game with the New York Yankees...a record 3,056,139 fans passed through the turnstiles during the Astros inaugural season at their new ballpark...Houston finished the season at 72-90 to mark the club's first sub-.500 season since 1991...Jeff Bagwell set single-season franchise records with 47 homers and 152 runs scored... Bagwell ended the 2000 season having logged 310 career homers and became only the 87th Major Leaguer to reach the 300-homer plateau...the Astros set franchise records with 249 homers, 900 RBI and 938 runs scored...Tony Eusebio set a franchise record with a 24-game hitting streak that lasted nearly two months...Shane Reynolds was named to the All-Star team, marking his first career selection to the Mid-Summer Classic.

2001 The 2001 season went right down to the wire as the Astros clinched their fourth division title in five years with a 9-2 win over the Cardinals on October 7 in St. Louis...play stopped throughout the sports world following the tragic terrorist attacks on September 11; the regular season was extended a week...Craig Biggio became the first player in franchise history to log 2,000 hits...after toiling around the .500 mark with a 33-33 record on June 17, the Astros went on to finish the year at a 59-36 (.621) clip to edge the Cardinals for the division title...Major League Baseball announced that the Astros were awarded the 2004 All-Star Game...Moises Alou, Billy Wagner and Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 72nd Mid-Summer Classic...Jeff Bagwell became the sixth player in MLB history to have 30 homers, 100 RBI and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons...after being swept by Atlanta in the NLDS, manager Larry Dierker resigned and was replaced by former Red Sox skipper Jimmy Williams...at the end of the season, utility infielder Bill Spiers announced his retirement...the Astros were named Organization of the Year by SportsTicker, Topps, Baseball America and Baseball Weekly...Brad Ausmus received a Gold Glove award for defensive excellence at his position.

2002 By Houston standards, the 2002 season was a disappointment after the Astros finished with an 84-78 record, good for only second place in the NL Central behind the St. Louis Cardinals. Despite staying in the division race until the final two weeks of the season, the Astros wound up 13 games behind the Cardinals. However, the 2002 season was anything but forgettable for the Astros. The Wade Miller-Roy Oswalt combination went 34-13 on the year while stringing together 12- and nine-game winning streaks, respectively...Astros hurlers threw 10 shutouts at home to contribute to a 47-34 record at home...on April 8th, Craig Biggio hit for the cycle in Colorado, becoming only the fifth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat...in May, the Astros retired Larry Dierker's No. 49 in a pregame ceremony...Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 2002 All-Star game...Houston's downtown ballpark was re-christened Minute Maid Park when the Astros announced an agreement with the local beverage giant for naming rights on June 5...Berkman finished third in MVP voting and led the NL in RBI...Brad Ausmus won his second consecutive Gold Glove Award.

2003 The Astros were favorites to win the NL Central title to start the season behind young aces Wade Miller and Roy Oswalt and new acquisition Jeff Kent. But, injuries intervened and Houston ended the season in second place, one game behind the division champ Chicago Cubs...Craig Biggio made his second career position move and served as the club's primary center fielder...on June 11 at Yankee Stadium, six Astros pitchers combined to no-hit the Yankees for the 8-0 win: Roy Oswalt, Pete Munro, Kirk Saarloos, Brad Lidge, Octavio Dotel and Billy Wagner. It was the first time in ML history that a team used five or more pitchers in throwing a no-hitter...Biggio recorded his club-record 500th double on July 10...Wagner recorded a career-high and franchise-record 44 saves on the season and represented the team at the All-Star game...Jerome Robertson set the franchise record for a rookie with 15 wins, leading all ML rookies...Richard Hidalgo was named Team MVP and led the Majors with 22 outfield assists.

2004 It was going to be a big year in Houston - Minute Maid Park would play host to the 2004 All-Star Game. But no one knew exactly how big it would get when the calendar year began. It started with the signing of Roger Clemens on Jan. 12, and didn't end until Game 7 of the National League Championship series on Oct. 21...Clemens came out of retirement and returned to his hometown to pitch - he won his first nine decisions, and on May 5, he claimed the No. 2 slot on the all-time strikeout list with his 4,137th career strikeout...on May 8, Craig Biggio collected his 2,500th career hit...the Astros acquired outfielder Carlos Beltran on June 24, who finished with a combined 38 home runs and 42 stolen bases between Houston and Kansas City...four Astros were named All-Stars: Clemens, Beltran, Lance Berkman, and Jeff Kent...on July 14, Phil Garner replaced Jimmy Williams as manager...Roy Oswalt led the NL in wins with his first 20-game season, and Clemens tied for second with 18 wins...Houston claimed the NL Wild Card after a 36-10 run in its last 46 games of the season...the Astros won their first postseason series, defeating the Atlanta Braves in Game 5 of the NLDS...the NLCS was pushed to Game 7 before St. Louis defeated Houston...Clemens claimed his unprecedented seventh Cy Young Award.

HISTORY & RECORDS

2005 The Astros advanced to the World Series for the first time in franchise history after defeating the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2 in a rematch of the 2004 NLCS...the Chicago White Sox went on to sweep the Astros in four games to claim their first World Series since 1917...the Astros hosted the first World Series game in the state of Texas, and Game 3 on Oct. 25 turned into the longest in World Series history as the White Sox won in 14 innings, 7-5...Houston won the NL Wild Card for the second season in a row, finishing in second place in the NL Central Division with a record of 89-73...the Astros won the longest game in postseason history, defeating Atlanta in the NLDS, 7-6, in 18 innings after a Chris Burke solo home run in the bottom of the 18th, while Roger Clemens tossed 3.0 scoreless innings of relief...the club started the season with a 2-21 record on the road, and overcame a 15-30 record on May 24 to become the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the postseason after falling to 15 games under .500...on June 29, Craig Biggio was hit by a pitch for the 268th time of his career, setting the modern Major League record...Roger Clemens returned to the Astros for a second year and finished 13-8 with a career-best 1.89 ERA...Roy Oswalt posted his second consecutive 20-win season, finishing 20-12 with a 2.94 ERA...Andy Pettitte won 17 games and recorded a career-low 2.39 ERA...for the second season in a row, four Astros were named to the All Star squad: Clemens, Oswalt, Brad Lidge and Morgan Ensberg...Ensberg set career-highs in home runs and RBI, and took home the National League Silver Slugger Award at third base...Willy Taveras made the jump from Double A to the Majors and led all NL Rookies in hits, runs and stolen bases...Taveras also led the Majors with 70 infield hits and 29 bunt singles.

2006 In a thrilling finish to the season, the Astros spent the final two weeks chasing first-place St. Louis by winning 10 of the last 12 games...the club finished 82-80, in second place, 1.5 games behind the World Champions, giving Houston its sixth consecutive winning season...trailing the Cardinals by 8.5 games on Sept. 20, the Astros picked up eight games in eight days and moved to within a half-game of first place with three to play...but Houston would lose two out of three in Atlanta and missed the playoffs for the first time since 2003...the end of the season was similar to the club's hot start in April...the Astros won 19 of the first 28 games, which represents the best start in franchise history...Lance Berkman made his fourth All-Star appearance and set the single-season franchise record with 136 RBI. Roger Clemens returned for a third season on June 22 and finished 7-6 with a 2.30 ERA...Willy Taveras logged a 30-game hitting streak from July 27-Aug. 27, eclipsing Jeff Kent's franchise-best 25-game hitting streak in 2004...Roy Oswalt won the ERA crown with a 2.98 mark, while winning 15 games...he was the runner-up in the NL Cy Young Award voting...Adam Everett recorded the fourth-best fielding percentage by a shortstop in Major League history, holding down a .990 mark at the position...the Astros finished .500 or better for the 14th time in 15 years and their second-place finish marked 12th time in 13 years that the club has claimed first or second place in the NL Central.

2007 The Astros finished 73-89, the club's lowest winning percentage since 2000 (.451), in 4th place in the NL Central and 12.0 games behind the division-winning Chicago Cubs...the record ended Houston's streak of seven consecutive winning seasons...the club did finish strong, winning five of the last six, eight of 11 and 10 of 15...the Astros drew 3,000,000 fans to Minute Maid Park for the fourth time in franchise history...OF Carlos Lee was named team MVP after driving in a career-best 119 runs, while Lee and teammate Lance Berkman marked the fifth season in which Houston had 30-homer teammates (Berkman 34, Lee 32)...Roy Oswalt finished 14-7 with a 3.18 ERA in 33 games (32 starts), and Hunter Pence became the first rookie in Major League history to lead a league in hitting at the All-Star Break (.342)...Pence set Houston franchise rookie records in doubles, extra-base hits, hitting, and slugging...on June 28, franchise icon Craig Biggio reached the 3,000,000-hit plateau, all collected in an Astros uniform...on August 27, Ed Wade and Cecil Cooper were named to replace General Manager Tim Lincecum and manager Phil Garner, respectively...on Sept. 20, rookie catcher J.R. Towles set a franchise record with eight RBI in a game at Busch Stadium against the Cardinals.

2008 The club finished 86-75, in third place in the NL Central and 11.0 games behind division-champion Chicago...Houston finished 3.5 games behind Milwaukee in the NL Wild Card race and was not eliminated from playoff contention until the season's 159th game...the club's 42-24 second-half record led National League teams and was the second best in the Majors (Angels, 43-24)...the Astros won a season-best 21 games in August and enjoyed season-high winning streaks of eight games, twice (8/7-14, 8/27-9/3)...Jose Valverde led the National League with 44 saves and tied Billy Wagner's franchise single-season saves record, previously set in 2003...Roy Oswalt went 17-10 and set the franchise record for consecutive scoreless innings pitched (32.1)...Oswalt won 10 of his last 12 starts and finished the season with a career winning percentage of .770 (67-20), second best in MLB history (min. 50 wins)...Houston pitchers compiled 13 shutouts, leading National League staffs...LaTroy Hawkins compiled a 0.43 ERA (21.0IP) after being acquired from the Yankees on July 30...in May, Lance Berkman won the NL Player of the Month Award after enjoying a 50-at-bat span in which he hit .620 (31x50)...Berkman led the league with a .345 average with runners in scoring position and tied for the league lead with 46 doubles, while finishing fifth in the NL MVP race...the Astros committed 67 errors, the fewest errors for any team in National League history...shortstop Miguel Tejada anchored the infield defense and committed a career-low 11 errors.

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium would be completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

Current status: The stadium was dismantled in the 1970s and moved to Torreon, Mexico, where it was reassembled and became home to a Mexican League baseball team.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

HISTORY & RECORDS

2005 HOUSTON ASTROS MAKE FIRST TRIP TO WORLD SERIES

The 2005 season was a magical and historic season for the Houston Astros, as the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series for the first time.

For the second consecutive season, the Astros clinched the National League Wild Card berth on the final day of the regular season. Brad Lidge recorded his 42nd save of the year on October 2 at Minute Maid Park as Houston beat the Cubs 6-4 to end the season and clinch a playoff spot.

The historic season had an inauspicious beginning, however, as the Astros began the 2005 campaign with a 15-30 record through their first 45 games. On May 25, the club's reversal of fortune began as Houston and Brandon Backe defeated the Chicago Cubs and Greg Maddux at Wrigley Field 5-1, beginning a 44-18 run that was the best in the Majors and carried the Astros back into the pennant race. The run included a franchise-record-tying 22 wins in July (22-7, .759).

In the 2004 postseason, the Houston franchise won its first playoff series in history by defeating the Atlanta Braves in five games in the Division Series. The club then fell to St. Louis in seven games in the NLCS. The 2005 playoffs were a different story, as the Astros would reach heights the franchise had not previously attained.

The 2005 NL Division Series would put the Astros in a rematch of the 2004 clash with Atlanta. A familiar foe in the postseason, the Braves would be Houston's opponent in the first round for the fifth time in Houston's last six playoff appearances since 1997. The series would have a historic ending, and it would be in Houston's favor.

The Astros took a 1-0 series lead with a 10-5 win at Turner Field, thanks to the 14th career playoff win from Andy Pettitte, a five-run eighth inning, and five RBI from Morgan Ensberg. The 10 runs overshadowed a strong "small ball" performance by Houston, as the club became the ninth team and the first since 1974 to record four sacrifice bunts in one game. The Braves would tie the series after a 7-1 win in Game 2, as John Smoltz turned in a strong performance while facing Astros starter Roger Clemens.

The series journeyed to Minute Maid Park, where the Astros carried a 3-2 lead into the seventh inning of Game 3. Six consecutive Houston hitters reached base against the Atlanta bullpen in the seventh, with four scoring to give the Astros a comfortable lead they would never relinquish. Roy Oswalt earned the win in Houston's 7-3 victory, scattering six hits and three runs over 7.1 innings. Houston needed one more win to advance to the LCS for the second consecutive season. What happened next would be one of most memorable and unique games in postseason history.

By the time the eighth inning rolled around, many in the stands and both dugouts were looking ahead to a trip to Atlanta for another Game 5, the exact scenario that transpired one year before. Atlanta had a seemingly insurmountable 6-1 lead, but what no one knew is that this contest had another three hours left, thanks to Lance Berkman, Brad Ausmus, and some tremendous bullpen work by both clubs.

The longest postseason game in Major League history turned in the bottom of the eighth, when with a 2-1 count and the bases loaded, Atlanta closer Kyle Farnsworth decided to challenge Berkman. The tall right-hander likely had a different result in mind, as Berkman drove the fastball to left field and into the Crawford Boxes for the first postseason grand slam hit by an Astro in franchise history.

It still appeared that Atlanta would win the game, as the Braves clung to a 6-5 lead heading into the ninth. Jason Lane grounded out to third and Jose Vizcaino struck out for two quick outs. One could have easily surmised in two hours, the Astros would be on a flight to Atlanta.

Actually, everyone would still be in the ballpark, thanks to Ausmus.

Ausmus launched a 2-0 Farnsworth pitch to left-center field, and the ball hit the façade above the yellow line, narrowly escaping center fielder Jones's outstretched glove for a solo home run that tied the score at 6-6. The game that was one out away from ending had changed on one swing of the bat.

After a 10th-inning rally fell short, Houston would not have another hit until the game-winner in the 18th. And around the 15th, after a tremendous three-inning effort by Dan Wheeler and the score still deadlocked at 6-6 after 15 innings, a certain right-hander began warming in the Astros bullpen.

It would have been plausible to suggest that there was nothing left for Roger Clemens to accomplish in his career at that point. After throwing 92 pitches in the Game 2 loss three days earlier, the 43-year-old Clemens not only appeared in relief but made the first pinch-hit appearance of his career in the 15th for Wheeler. He advanced Biggio on a sacrifice bunt before the next two hitters were retired. It was Clemens' first relief appearance since as a rookie with Boston on July 18, 1984, and the Rocket would pitch three scoreless innings, throwing a fastball clocked in the mid-90's and showing no effects from the Game 2 loss (and 92-pitch outing) just three days earlier.

Facing Joey Devine, who was the closer for North Carolina State University just four months earlier, Chris Burke deposited a 2-0 fastball into the Crawford Boxes, giving Houston a 7-6 win and ending the longest game in playoff history at five hours, 50 minutes.

In addition to sending the Minute Maid Park crowd into a frenzy and the Astros to the NLCS for the second consecutive season, Burke became the sixth player in postseason history and the first rookie to end a playoff series with a walk-off home run, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The previous longest playoff game had also been held in Houston, the classic 1986 Game 6 at the Astrodome when the Astros fell to the eventual World Champion New York Mets, 7-6 in 16 innings. The "Greatest Game Ever Played," according to one book penned about that game, had been eclipsed in terms of innings. And perhaps in terms of greatness as well.

The abundance of remarkable statistics surrounding this game are too numerous to mention. However, to list a few (many of these are courtesy of Elias):

- The Astros used 23 players, a Division Series record.
- The 5:50 time of game eclipsed the 2004 ALCS Game 4 record by one minute (5:49).
- The 42 combined players were the most used in a DS game and the 14 total pitchers tied the previous standard.
- Houston went hitless from Berkman's double in the 10th until Burke's game-ending homer in the 18th.
- The same fan, Sean Dean of Porter, Texas, caught both Berkman's grand slam in the eighth AND Burke's walkoff.
- It was the first game in playoff history with two grand slams (LaRoche and Berkman).
- As Jim Molony from MLB.COM wrote, the matchup between Franco and Clemens featured "90 years on this earth and 42 years of Major League experience."
- The Braves went 1-for-18 with runners in scoring position, leaving a Division Series-record 18 runners on base.
- The Astros became the third team and the first since the 1993 Blue Jays to win a playoff game after trailing by five runs or more entering the eighth.
- Ausmus' home run in the ninth made him the fifth player in postseason history to tie a game with a home run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning.
- 553 pitches were thrown.
- Clemens became the pitcher with the second most regular-season wins (341) before recording his first relief postseason victory, trailing only Walter Johnson (377), who accomplished the feat in 1914 in the lone Washington Senators' World Series win in franchise history.

HISTORY & RECORDS

The Astros were on to St. Louis, where Chris Carpenter outdueled Pettitte in Game 1 for a 5-3 St. Louis win. Houston evened the series behind seven dominant innings from Roy Oswalt in Game 2, taking a 4-1 victory. With the series moving back to Minute Maid Park, Mike Lamb was the hero with a home run and a double in a 4-3 win. Clemens tossed six strong innings and Lidge recorded his second save of the LCS.

The Houston bullpen was the difference in a 2-1, Game 4 win, as after 5.2 innings from Brandon Backe, four Astros relievers combined to pitched 3.1 scoreless innings, culminating with another Lidge save. Jason Lane homered in the fourth and Ensberg hit a sacrifice fly in the seventh for the only two runs Houston would need.

A three-run homer by Berkman in the bottom of the fifth in Game 5 gave the Astros a 4-2 lead. However, St. Louis would delay Houston's World Series dreams another couple of days, as Albert Pujols hit a three-run home run against Lidge to give the Redbirds a 5-4 win and send the series back to Busch Stadium.

Two days later, Oswalt hosted a going-away party for the Cardinals home, as the NLCS MVP allowed three hits and one run in seven innings. The Astros were National League Champions for the first time ever, as a 5-1 victory sent a Texas team to the World Series for the first time. Oswalt was 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA in the series, while Craig Biggio led the team with eight hits in the series and Burke paced the club with five runs scored.

The Astros would now appear in their first Fall Classic, traveling to Chicago to face the American League's best, the White Sox. Clemens started for Houston in Game 1 but was forced to leave with a left hamstring strain after allowing four hits and three runs in two innings. Lamb would hit the first home run by an Astro in World Series history, and after three innings, the game was tied at 3-3.

Joe Crede homered in the fourth and Chicago added one more in the eighth against Russ Springer, and the White Sox won Game 1, 5-3. Andy Pettitte pitched six strong innings in Game 2, and Houston owned a 4-2 lead heading into the seventh. Slugger Paul Konerko changed that with a grand slam against Chad Qualls in the seventh, but Jose Vizcaino's pinch-hit single scored Jeff Bagwell and Burke to tie the game at 6-6 in the top of the ninth. However, Scott Podsednik would end Game 2 with a walk-off home run against Lidge, and a 7-6 Chicago win gave them a 2-0 series edge.

Already owning the longest game in postseason, Division Series, and League Championship Series history, the Astros completed the cycle by playing the longest game in World Series history on Tuesday, October 25. The game was also the first Fall Classic contest played in the state of Texas.

The Astros raced to a 4-0 lead after scoring one run in the first and fourth and two in the third inning of Game 3 against Chicago's Jon Garland. The lead evaporated in the fifth, however, as the White Sox scored five runs against Houston starter Oswalt. Lane tied the game against Dustin Hermanson in the eighth. Both offenses then went silent until the 14th inning, when a familiar face placed Houston in a deep hole.

With right-handed rookie Ezequiel Astacio on the mound, former Astro Geoff Blum homered to right field to give Chicago the lead. The White Sox added another in the 14th, and then Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle pitched the bottom frame to save the game and give Chicago a 3-0 series lead.

World Series MVP Jermaine Dye was responsible for the only run production in the series-clinching Game 4, driving in Willie Harris with a ground-ball single to center field in the eighth against Lidge. Brandon Backe had started for the Astros and pitched seven shutout innings to keep the game deadlocked until Dye's hit in the eighth.

The 1-0 victory clinched the White Sox first World Championship since 1959 and ended the Astros World Series hopes in 2005.

But despite falling short in the World Series, the 2005 Houston Astros team reached heights not previously attained, and set a standard of excellence and resilience for future clubs to aspire to.

DARRYL KILE GOOD GUY OF THE YEAR AWARD

In 2002, the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America created the Darryl Kile Good Guy of the Year Award, honoring an Astros player who exhibits "character and decency toward teammates, media, and fans." The award is named after the former Astros right-hander and 12-season Major League pitcher who passed away on June 22, 2002. It is designed to honor a player whose character traits reflect those of the late Kile. Astros first baseman Jeff Bagwell was the first recipient of the award. Kile played for the Astros from 1991-97, and also played for Colorado (1998-1999) and St. Louis (2000-02).

DECADES OF IMPROVEMENT

Houston improved its record in each of the first four decades the club was in the National League. The Astros were 555-739 (.429) in the 1960s, 793-817 (.493) in the 1970s, 819-750 (.522) in the 1980s, and 813-742 in the 1990's (.523). Houston is 758-699 (.520) since the beginning of 2000. Only four National League teams have fared better since the turn of the 21st century.

ERROR-PROOF

In committing 67 errors, the 2008 Houston Astros eclipsed the National League record for fewest fielding errors in a single season. Furthermore, Houston compiled a team fielding percentage of .989, tying the 2007 Colorado Rockies and 1999 New York Mets for the best fielding percentage in National League history. Shortstop Miguel Tejada anchored the infield defense in his first year with the club, committing a career-low 11 errors.

Houston outfielders committed only seven errors during 2008. In National League history, only the 2001 Arizona Diamondbacks' outfield committed fewer errors (4).

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40 HR/30SB seasons. Jeff is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

HISTORY & RECORDS

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jeff Bagwell is the only player in franchise history to win the Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year and the NL Most Valuable Player. Astro pitchers have captured the NL Cy Young Award twice, Mike Scott in 1986 and Roger Clemens in 2004. Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the NL MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers was the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte. Lance Berkman is the active club leader in home runs hit at Minute Maid Park, with 130.

HOUSTON'S FIRST HOME RUNS

The first home run ever hit by a Houston player in the National League came on Opening Day in 1962, April 10. Roman Mejias connected off Chicago pitcher Don Cardwell in the third inning with two men on base. Mejias also homered off Al Lary in the eighth inning with two more men on to account for the third Colt .45s home run of the game. Hal Smith had hit one in the third inning.

The first opposition home run came in the seventh inning of the same game when the Cubs' Ernie Banks hit one off Bobby Shantz.

HOUSTON2 GAMES

In one of the best League Championship Series in baseball history, the Phillies took the opener 3-1 on the series' only home run - Greg Luzinski's two-run blast in the sixth inning. Game 1 was the only game without extra innings.

The Astros evened the series in Game 2 - breaking a 3-3 tie with four runs in the 10th - and took the series lead in a Game 3 pitchers' duel that featured 10 shutout innings from Houston's Joe Niekro. Reliever Dave Smith continued the shutout and took the win as Joe Morgan's triple and Denny Walling's sacrifice fly off Phillie ace reliever Tug McGraw scored the game's only run in the bottom of the 11th.

The Phillies rebounded with their own set of extra-inning victories. In Game 4, a single and two doubles pushed across two go-ahead runs in the top of the 10th, and McGraw preserved the edge for his second series save. And in the finale, which featured three lead changes, Del Unser scored on Garry Maddox's 10th-inning double and Dick Ruthven held off Houston to bring the Phillies their first pennant in 30 years.

1981 NATIONAL LEAGUE WEST DIVISION SERIES

LOS ANGELES 3 GAMES
HOUSTON 2 GAMES

Because of a midseason player strike that forced a complete shutdown of Major League Baseball for almost two months, a split-season format and a new tier of playoffs were created after the work stoppage ended. This new format matched the Astros against the Los Angeles Dodgers for a best-of-five National League West Division Series.

Behind Nolan Ryan's pitching and Alan Ashby's two-run homer in the ninth inning, the Astros took a 3-1 victory in Game 1. Houston then took a 2-0 series lead with a 1-0 triumph in Game 2 as Denny Walling stroked a pitch-hit single with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th inning.

Back in their familiar L.A. surroundings, the Dodgers managed to take control of the remainder of the series. They erupted for three first-inning runs in Game 3 and coasted to a 6-1 victory as three pitchers combined on a three-hitter.

Game 4 turned out to be a pitcher's battle. Neither the Dodgers nor the Astros put a runner on base in the first four innings as Fernando Valenzuela and Vern Ruhle were in complete command. Both pitchers allowed four hits in the game, but Pedro Guerrero belted a solo homer in the fifth and Bill Russell added an RBI single in the seventh to give the Dodgers a 2-1 victory that evened the series at two games apiece.

Another pitching struggle ensued in Game 5. Nolan Ryan dominated the Dodgers until the sixth inning, when L.A. put together a three-run rally. Los Angeles starter Jerry Reuss threw a five-hit shutout in the 4-0 victory.

1986 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

HOUSTON.....2 GAMES

Houston pitcher Mike Scott defeated the Mets in Games 1 and 4 and would have faced them a third time in Game 7 if the Astros had won Game 6. Houston scored three runs in the first as Bob Knepper shut out the Mets on two hits through eight innings. But in the top of the ninth, New York tied the game and sent the game to extra innings. No one scored again until the Mets put a run across in the 14th. Astro Billy Hatcher tied it up again later in the 14th with a home run just inside the left field foul pole. Two innings later, the Mets scored three runs. The Astros scored twice in the 16th, but fell just short as Jesse Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with two men on base to win his third game of the series and give New York the pennant.

In the series opener, Houston scored just one run off Dwight Gooden. The one run was plenty, as Mike Scott tossed a five-hit shutout and struck out 14. New York came back with five runs in Game 2 to win behind Bob Ojeda, who gave up 10 hits but only one run. In Game 3, the Astros held the lead into the last of the sixth, when New York tied the score with four runs. Houston retook the lead in the seventh with a run, but Lenny Dykstra won it for New York with a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The Astros win in Game 4 evened the series. Houston scored three runs by the time Scott allowed the Mets' only run of the game. Houston's Nolan Ryan gave up only two hits in the first nine innings of Game 5 while striking out 12, but New York's Gooden also yielded only one run in 10 innings of work. Astros pitcher Charlie Kerfeld shut out the Mets in the 10th and the 11th, and the Mets' Orosco stopped Houston in the 11th and 12th. In the bottom of the 12th, Mets' catcher Gary Carter's RBI single off Kerfeld ended the game and set the stage for the 16-inning marathon the next day.

ATLANTA3 GAMES
HOUSTON0 GAMES

After winning their first-ever National League Central title and their first division crown in 11 years, the Astros were swept in the NL Division Series by Atlanta. Despite a two-hit effort by Darryl Kile in Game 1, Houston fell victim to Braves ace Greg Maddux, who gave up only seven hits on his way to a 2-1 victory. Kenny Lofton's bloop double in the first inning manufactured into a run after two fly outs and teamed with Ryan Klesko's solo home run on the first pitch of the second inning for all the scoring Atlanta would need to win the opener.

In Game 2, a struggling offensive trio of Craig Biggio, Derek Bell and Jeff Bagwell, along with an uncharacteristic fit of wildness from starter Mike Hampton, led to a 13-3 Houston loss that put the Braves within one game of clinching the series. The Astros fell behind early, 3-0, but a two-run double by Brad Ausmus sparked a fourth-inning rally that temporarily tied the score. The Braves then scored a run after walking the bases loaded which opened the floodgates to a huge Atlanta rally.

John Smoltz dominated the Astros with a three-hit performance in Game 3 to seal the Atlanta victory and the sweep of the series. He struck out 11 batters on his way to his 10th post-season win, tying Whitey Ford and Dave Stewart for the Major League record in that category.

HOUSTON 1 GAME

The Astros 1998 season will be remembered as one of the most successful in the organization's 37-year history. The postseason, however, was a disappointment, as the Astros were eliminated in the National League Division Series.

The club entered the playoffs as the most feared team in the NL, featuring the league's most prolific offense and newly-acquired ace lefthander Randy Johnson. But four games later it was the San Diego Padres who advanced while the Astros went home.

Johnson, who was 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts after being acquired in a July 31 trade with the Mariners, lost both of his postseason starts despite a 1.93 ERA. The Houston offense managed just eight runs in the series.

After Kevin Brown shut down the Astros' offense in Game 1, Houston bounced back in Game 2 to beat San Diego 5-4, thanks to late-inning heroics by third baseman Bill Spiers. Games 3 and 4, however, belonged to the Padres, who ended the series on their home field at Qualcomm Stadium to advance to the NLCS.

HOUSTON 1 GAME

The Astros billed 1999 as a season to remember, as the team played their 35th and final season in the Astrodome. Unfortunately for the Astros, the final memory of baseball in the Astrodome is the loss in the Division Series to the Atlanta Braves. After winning Game 1 in Atlanta, 6-1, the Braves returned the favor the next day behind a one-hit gem by Kevin Millwood en route to a 5-1 victory. A 12-inning, 5-3 heartbreaking loss to the Braves in Game 3 gave Atlanta a two games to one lead entering the fourth and decisive game. Despite a come-from-behind effort during which the Astros erased a 7-0 deficit to inch within two runs of the Braves, Houston fell just short of sending the series to a Game 5, as the final box score in the last game to ever be played at the Astrodome read Atlanta 7, Houston 5.

HISTORY & RECORDS

HOUSTON 0 GAMES

The Atlanta Braves combined outstanding pitching performances with timely hitting en route to a three-game sweep over Houston in the 2001 National League Division Series. Atlanta starters posted a 1.77 ERA in three games while John Smoltz saved two of the three wins and the Braves bullpen as a whole allowed only one run in 6.2 innings pitched. Houston took a 3-2 lead in Game 1, but Chipper Jones' three-run home run in the top of the eighth propelled Atlanta to a 7-4 win. In Game 2, Atlanta's Tom Glavine and John Smoltz combined to shut out the Astros while a second-inning error allowed the only run the Braves would need in a 1-0 win. The Braves closed out the series back in Atlanta with a 6-2 Game Three win that included home runs from Atlanta's Paul Bako, Julio Franco, and Chipper Jones, his second homer of the series.

HISTORY & RECORDS

ATLANTA 2 GAMES

The Astros won their first playoff series in franchise history, defeating longtime playoff nemesis Atlanta in five games. Carlos Beltran homered twice and Houston exploded for 17 hits in a 12-3 win over the Braves in the deciding Game 5. Beltran collected four hits and drove in five runs in the clincher while hitting .455 with four home runs and nine RBI in the entire series, a series which saw the Astros set virtually every team offensive playoff record. Beltran became the second player in postseason history to drive in at least five runs in a clinching game.

The Astros scored four in the third and three in the fifth to win the series opener at Atlanta 9-3. Beltran, Jason Lane, Lance Berkman, and Brad Ausmus homered in the win, while Roger Clemens recorded career playoff victory number nine by allowing three runs in seven innings.

Atlanta evened the series in Game 2 on Rafael Furcal's two-run home run in the 11th against Dan Miceli. Roy Oswalt allowed one run in 6.1 innings in the loss, while Raul Chavez went 2x3 with a home run. Houston took a 2-1 advantage in the series in Game 3 in Houston, winning 8-5 thanks to a three-run sixth, a Beltran home run, and three RBI from Morgan Ensberg. Brandon Backe earned the win in his first playoff start and Brad Lidge earned the save.

The Braves knotted the series at two games apiece, scoring once in the ninth to win a 6-5 decision. Andruw Jones had three hits and Adam LaRoche three RBI in the Atlanta win, while Craig Biggio was 3x4 with a home run and three RBI. Russ Springer allowed the ninth-inning run to suffer the loss.

The series moved back to Atlanta for Game 5, which is where the Astros exploded for 12 runs and 17 hits to clinch the 2004 NLDS series victory.

ST. LOUIS 4 GAMES
HOUSTON 3 GAMES

The Astros came within one game of their first trip to the World Series but fell just short, losing the 2004 NLCS to St. Louis in seven games. Home runs by Albert Pujols and Scott Rolen against Houston starter Roger Clemens were the difference in the clincher, a 5-2 Redbird win at Busch Stadium that sent St. Louis to its first World Series since 1987. Offensively in the NLCS, Carlos Beltran paced Houston with a .417 average, four home runs, and eight RBI. Beltran's eight home runs in the 2004 playoffs tied Barry Bonds for the most in a single postseason. Lance Berkman homered three times and drove in nine runs, while Jeff Kent also hit three home runs while plating seven runners.

All seven games of the series were won by the home club, including 10-7 and 6-4 wins, respectively, by St. Louis in Games 1 and 2. The Cardinals scored six in the sixth in Game 1 (including five against Chad Qualls), while two runs in the bottom of the eighth against Astros reliever Dan Miceli gave Julian Tavaraz the win and the Redbirds a 2-0 series lead.

Roger Clemens earned the win in Game 3, with Kent, Beltran, and Berkman each homering in a 5-2 Astros victory. The Astros overcame a 5-3 deficit in Game 4, scoring two in the seventh and one in the eighth en route to a 6-5 win that gave Dan Wheeler his first postseason victory.

Game 5 was perhaps the most exciting in Astros playoff history, with Jeff Kent's three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth breaking a scoreless tie and propelling Houston to a 3-0 victory and a 3-2 series lead. Brandon Backe allowed only one hit and three baserunners in eight scoreless innings, while Kent's homer gave Brad Lidge the win after the right-hander recorded saves in Games 4 and 5.

Jim Edmonds' two-run home run in the 12th off Miceli allowed the Redbirds to even the series at three games apiece with a 6-4 St. Louis victory. Jeff Bagwell had three hits and two RBI in the loss, while Mike Lamb homered for Houston in a losing cause. In the deciding Game 7, Clemens allowed four runs and six hits in six innings, and the St. Louis bullpen held the lead for Jeff Suppan as the Cardinals advanced to the World Series.

ATLANTA 1 GAME

The Astros knocked Atlanta out of the playoffs for the second season in a row as Houston won the 2005 NLDS in four games. Chris Burke and Roger Clemens emerged as the heroes of clinching Game 4, the longest in postseason history. In the bottom of the 18th inning, Burke snapped a 6-6 tie and won the game with a solo home run, ending an eight-inning scoreless streak by both teams. Clemens earned the win after pitching three scoreless innings, on three day's rest in his first relief appearance in 21 years. Lance Berkman socked an eighth-inning grand slam to bring the Astros within one run, and with two outs in the bottom of the ninth, Brad Ausmus sent the contest into extra-innings with a game-tying solo home run. The decisive Game 4 lasted a postseason-record five hours and 50 minutes and the teams used a NLDS-record 42 combined players.

A five-run outburst in the eighth inning made Game 1 a blowout in the Astros favor, as Houston took a 1-0 series advantage with a 10-5 win. Morgan Ensberg led the attack with five RBI and three hits while Andy Pettitte earned the win. Craig Biggio doubled and scored three times as the Astros banged out 11 hits.

Atlanta secured its only win in Game 2 as the Braves scored five times off losing pitcher Roger Clemens in a 7-1 contest. Brian McCann hit a three-run homer and Adam LaRoche belted a two-run double as the Braves evened the series at one game apiece. John Smoltz allowed one run over seven innings and set a Major League record with his 15th postseason win.

Roy Oswalt pitched into the eighth inning of Game 3 and earned the win as the Astros took a 2-1 lead in the series. Houston set a NLDS record with seven doubles, including three by Craig Biggio, tying a postseason record. Mike Lamb broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning and put the Astros ahead for good with his third career postseason home run.

ST. LOUIS 2 GAMES

Houston advanced to its first World Series after 44 years as the Astros defeated the Cardinals 4-2 in the 2005 NLCS. Roy Oswalt earned MVP honors as he picked up wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6. Oswalt allowed only two runs in the series, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA and 12 strikeouts in 14 innings. Craig Biggio led the Astros with eight hits in the series and Chris Burke led the team with five runs scored.

Game 6 was decided in St. Louis, with Oswalt allowing three hits over seven innings to earn the win. Houston had 11 hits, including a home run by Jason Lane, in the 5-1 clinching game. Brad Ausmus went 3x4 in the contest and finished with a .318 NLCS average.

In Game 5, the Astros led 4-2 in the ninth and were on the verge of advancing to the club's first World Series when Albert Pujols smashed a three-run home run off Brad Lidge, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 comeback win. The blast by Pujols forced Game 6 and gave Lidge his first career postseason loss after going 1-0 with six saves to start his October career. Lance Berkman gave the Astros the lead in the seventh with a three-run home run off Chris Carpenter before St. Louis mounted its comeback.

St. Louis won the opening game of the series by a score of 5-3, but the Astros bounced back with wins in Games 2, 3 and 4 to take a 3-1 advantage overall. Reggie Sanders shined for the Cardinals in Game 1, with a home run and two RBI, as Andy Pettitte took the loss. Oswalt earned the win and Chris Burke homered in Game 2 as the Astros knocked off St. Louis 4-1. Brad Lidge earned a two-inning save and struck out three of the seven batters he faced.

Roger Clemens allowed two runs over six innings and was the winning pitcher in Game 3. Mike Lamb led the Astros offense, going 2x4 with a double, a home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Astros batters managed 11 hits and Lidge nailed down his second save of the series.

After trailing 1-0 in the fourth inning, the Astros battled back to win Game 4, 2-1. Jason Lane tied the contest at one with a solo home run in the fourth and Morgan Ensberg put the Astros ahead with a sacrifice fly in the seventh. Chad Qualls entered in the seventh and earned the win with a perfect inning of work. Lidge closed out the game and picked up his third save of the series.

HOUSTON0 GAMES

National League Champions for the first time in club history, the Houston Astros fell short in their first World Series appearance against the Chicago White Sox. For the series, the Astros were outscored just 20-14 in four games, marking the lowest run-differential in a World Series sweep since 1950. Two of the four games were decided by two runs and two were decided by a lone run, including the series finale. In Game 4, World Series MVP Jermaine Dye, singled home the game's only run in the eighth inning to make the score 1-0. Brandon Backe battled through seven scoreless frames, but Brad Lidge took the loss, falling to 0-2 in the World Series.

Roger Clemens had to exit Game 1 in the second inning with a left hamstring strain as the Astros lost 5-3. Mike Lamb homered and Lance Berkman tied the game early with a two-run double, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a home run in the fourth. Jose Contreras nailed down the win for Chicago and Bobby Jenks earned his first save of the series.

Game 2 was decided in the bottom of the ninth inning on a Scott Podsednik home run. With the game tied at six and the Astros two outs away from forcing extra innings, Podsednik hit a home run off Lidge, giving the White Sox a 2-0 lead in the series. Morgan Ensberg homered in the second and Berkman drove in two runs to stake the Astros to a 4-2 advantage, but Houston lost its lead on Paul Konerko's seventh-inning grand slam.

After five hours and 41 minutes and 14 innings, the Astros lost the longest game (time; tied in terms of innings) in World Series history by a score of 7-5. The Astros spotted Roy Oswalt four runs in the first three innings, but Oswalt was unable to hold the lead as the White Sox rallied for five runs in the fifth. Jason Lane hit a home run and drove in two, including the tying run off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth. Chad Qualls tossed three innings of scoreless relief before Ezequiel Astacio allowed Geoff Blum's game-winning homer in the 14th. The Astros pitching staff had gone eight consecutive innings without allowing a run.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the first inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the first and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched two perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed three perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the second. In the seventh inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, sitting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

ALL-STAR GAME #75

MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON

JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the first inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two first-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched two innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run fourth, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the sixth ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final five innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MINOR LEAGUE COORDINATORSAL PEDRIQUE*MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Al Pedrique begins his first season as the Astros minor league field coordinator and his fifth season with the Houston Astros. He previously served as an administrative coach for the club, serving as part of the club's field staff during Spring Training and in pre-game workouts before regular season home games. Pedrique has also worked closely with Astros scouting and player development program during the regular season and Spring Training, evaluating players at all levels of the organization.

Pedrique joined the Astros on November 11, 2004 as a special assistant to the general manager, a position he held for three seasons (2005-07). In October of 2006, his duties were expanded to include responsibility for all of the club's Latin American operations. Pedrique, a native of Venezuela, oversaw the franchise's academies in Venezuela, Colombia and the Dominican Republic while also being included in all aspects of the club's player development and scouting efforts in Latin America.

Pedrique joined the Astros from the Arizona franchise, where he served as interim manager for the Diamondbacks for the second half of the 2004 season after opening the year as the team's third base coach. That season marked his first opportunity to coach at the Major League level after dedicating the previous nine years to working in the minor leagues, including eight years as a manager. He spent the 2002-03 seasons with the Tucson Sidewinders, Arizona's Triple A affiliate, posting back-to-back winning records each season for the first time in Tucson franchise history and the first time since 1994-95 when it was affiliated with the Astros organization. Pedrique owns a lifetime record of 463-433 (.517) as a minor league manager. He was also a coach for the World Team in the 2003 MLB All-Star Futures Game held at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago.

Pedrique served as a minor league manager from 1995-2003, including two seasons with the Astros then-Class A affiliate in Michigan from 1999-2000. The 2000 Michigan club won the Midwest League title. He also managed the Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League in 1998-99 and 2007. He managed the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League during the 2002 season and led the team to a 29-15 record before falling to Peoria in the title game.

In his career, Pedrique played three seasons at the Major League level from 1987-89 as an infielder with the New York Mets, Pittsburgh Pirates and Detroit Tigers. In 174 games, he hit .247 (111x449) with one home run, 18 doubles, and 36 RBI. In 1987, he was selected by Baseball Digest as the shortstop for the All-Rookie Team. He saw his last big league action in 31 games for Detroit in 1989. As a minor leaguer, he led all Texas League shortstops in fielding percentage in both 1983 and 1984 with Jackson. He was also named a 1985 International League All-Star while playing for the Tidewater Tides.

Al Pedrique makes his home in Tucson, AZ and has two daughters, Mariana and Liliana.

BRITT BURNSMINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

In November 2007, former Major League left-hander Britt Burns was named as the Astros minor league pitching coordinator. Burns works in the coordination and oversight of the pitching aspect of the Astros player development program at all levels.

Burns joins the Astros after spending six seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization. He was the pitching coach for Triple A Toledo in 2007 after spending three years as the pitching coach for Class A Lakeland (2004-06) and one year in that role as the coach at Double A Erie. He joined the Tigers midseason in 2002 as the pitching coach at Toledo. Before joining the Tigers, Burns spent nine seasons as a coach in the Florida organization from 1993-2001, including one year as the pitching coach at Triple A Calgary (2001), three years as the minor league pitching coordinator (1998-2000), and two years each as the pitching coach at Class A Brevard County (1994-95) and Double A Portland (1996-97). He joined the Marlins as the pitching coach for the GCL Marlins in 1993.

Burns pitched for eight seasons at the Major League level with the Chicago White Sox. He owned a career record of 70-60 with a 3.66 ERA in 193 appearances. He debuted for the White Sox in 1979 at age 19 and earned Rookie Pitcher of the Year honors from The Sporting News in 1980. A 1981 All-Star, he pitched for Chicago in the American League Championship Series in 1983.

JAIME GARCIAASSISTANT PITCHING COORDINATOR

Jaime Garcia begins his third season with the Astros organization as the assistant pitching coordinator after four seasons in the Reds organization as pitching coach. Garcia joined the Reds organization in 2003 as the pitching coach at Class A Daytona and spent the next three seasons in the same capacity with the Rookie Gulf Coast League Reds. Garcia spent two seasons as the Latin American pitching instructor for the Kansas City Royals before joining the Reds. Prior to that role, he served the Royals as pitching coach at Class A Charleston and has held various coaching positions in the Chicago-AL (1988-96), Milwaukee (1997) and Texas (1998-99) organizations.

MIKE BARNETT

MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Mike Barnett begins his first season as minor league hitting coordinator after spending three seasons as the Kansas City Royals hitting coach (2006-08). From 2002-05, he was the hitting coach for the Toronto Blue Jays.

Barnett also spent four seasons from 1998-2001 as hitting coach for Triple A Tucson of the Arizona Diamondbacks organization. Prior to his time in Tucson, he served as hitting coach at all levels with the Chicago White Sox from 1990-97. He spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the University of Tennessee from 1988-89 following a six-year stint as an assistant administrator of baseball operations for the New York Yankees from 1982-87.

A graduate of Ohio University with a degree in sports administration, Barnett resides in Knoxville, Tenn., with his two children.

GARY REDUS

MINOR LEAGUE OUTFIELD/BASERUNNING INSTRUCTOR

Gary Redus begins his second season in 2009 as the Astros minor league outfield and baserunning instructor. Redus joined the Astros after seven seasons as a coach in the Pittsburgh organization (1997, 2002-07) in the same capacity.

Redus was the head baseball coach at Calhoun Community College in Decatur, AL from 1998-2001, a position he also held from 1995-96. He played 13 seasons in the Major Leagues as an outfielder with Cincinnati (1982-85), Philadelphia (1986), the Chicago White Sox (1987-88), Pittsburgh (1988-92) and Texas (1993-94). Redus hit .252 (886x5313) during his big league career with 90 home runs, 352 RBI, and 322 stolen bases in 1,159 games. He played in the National League Championship Series with the Bucs in three consecutive years (1990-92). He played collegiately at Athens State College (AL), where he was an NAIA All-American.

Gary and his wife, Minnie, reside in Decatur, AL and have four children: daughters Lakesha, Manesha and Nakosha and son Gary III.

DANNY SHEAFFER

MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Danny Sheaffer begins his third season in the Astros organization and his second as the club's minor league catching instructor. He spent the 2007 season as a coach with Triple A Round Rock.

Sheaffer joined the Astros organization in 2007 after six seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system. He served four years with the Triple A Memphis Redbirds as manager. In 2002, he managed the Peoria team to an 85-53 record and the Midwest League Championship. He made his coaching start with the Cardinals in 2001 as manager at New Haven and spent 1999 and 2000 managing the Chicago Cubs single A affiliate in Eugene, Ore.

Sheaffer began his Major League career when he was briefly called up in 1987 while playing with Boston. He also played in the big leagues with Cleveland and Colorado before going to St. Louis in 1995 for three seasons. Sheaffer played for the Cardinals Triple A Memphis club in 1998 and retired from baseball during the Cubs' Spring Training camp in 1999.

Sheaffer graduated in 1979 from Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., where he was the school MVP and earned all-state honors in baseball. He played baseball while attending Harrisburg (PA) Junior College and Clemson University and appeared in the 1980 College World Series with Clemson. Sheaffer was the 20th selection overall in the first round of the 1981 draft by Boston. He and his wife, LaDonna, have two sons and a daughter.

PETE FAGAN

MEDICAL COORDINATOR

Pete Fagan begins his eighth season in the Astros farm system as the medical coordinator of training, conditioning, and rehabilitation. Before joining the Astros, he spent 18 years as an athletic trainer in the St. Louis Cardinals system, including serving as the athletic trainer at Triple A Memphis for four seasons (1998-2001). He has been recognized as one of the top trainers in minor league baseball, winning Trainer of the Year honors in 1994, 1999, and 2000.

Fagan has also worked as an athletic trainer for the past 24 years during the offseason in sports therapy clinics in Boston and St. Petersburg, Fla. He holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Florida.

MIKE SMITH

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Mike Smith enters his ninth season in the Houston Astros organization and his third as strength and conditioning coordinator. Prior to taking on the role, he spent three seasons with the Lexington Legends as the athletic trainer. He previously served on the Legends staff in 2002, and also worked as athletic trainer at Salem (2003), Pittsfield (2001) and Auburn (2000). He spent the 2005 season at Mount Union College.

Smith received his bachelor of science degree in sports medicine from Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio. He went on to earn a masters degree in athletic training from Indiana State University.

Round Rock finished the 2008 season 64-79. The Express finished fourth in the Pacific Coast League's American South Division, 11.5 games behind the division champion Oklahoma RedHawks. Round Rock dominated early in the season, including a 4-game sweep over the Iowa Cubs in May. The Express also won a season-high 17 games in May and enjoyed a season-best eight consecutive wins from June 28-July 5.

AT THE PLATE: Mark Saccomanno, a PCL All-Star and Round Rock's team MVP, tied for ninth in the Pacific Coast League with 27 home runs (led all Astros minor leaguers) and ended the season with a team-high 84 RBI. Saccomanno also finished first on the Express and second in the league with 157 hits. C J.R. House (139) ranked second in the league and led the Express with a .306 average (139x454). C J.R. Towles hit .304 (51x168) in his time with the Express. Home runs became a popular trend at Dell Diamond with a powerful trio of Saccomanno (27), OF Ray Sadler (21) and OF Nick Gorneault (19). Sadler also led the team in slugging (.530), while OF Yordany Ramirez led Round Rock with 19 stolen bases.

ON THE MOUND: RHP Jack Cassel led the team with nine wins, while posting a 3.69 ERA (44 ER/107.1IP). LHP Josh Muecke made a PCL All-Star Game appearance and finished second in the PCL with 165.2 innings pitched, leading the Express in strikeouts (107) and starts (29) with a 4.89 ERA on the season. RHP Nick Regilio maintained a 3.00 ERA with a team-high of nine saves in 2008.

ROUND ROCK EXPRESS STAFF

MARC BOMBARD

MANAGER, ROUND ROCK

Marc Bombard begins his first season as the manager at Triple A Round Rock after two years as the manager of the Chicago White Sox Triple A Charlotte Knights (2007-08) and 25 years overall as a minor league manager. Bombard also served as a minor league coach/manager in farm systems for the Reds (1977-87, 1993-95), Brewers (1989), Pirates (1990-92) and Phillies (1997-2006). He made his Major League coaching debut as the third base coach for the Cincinnati Reds in 1996.

In 2002, Bombard was named the Minor League Manager of the Year by USA Today after collecting 91 victories at Triple A Scranton-Wilkes Barre. He also garnered Minor League Manager of the Year honors by Baseball America and was dubbed Triple A Manager of the Year by USA Today "Baseball Weekly" in 1995. He led Triple A Indianapolis to the American Association championship in 1994, and earned the title of Double A Manager of the Year that same season.

In his second managerial year in 1983, Bombard led Rookie Billings to the Pioneer League finals and won the Pioneer League Championship. Bombard has led teams to minor league playoffs in seven seasons, and he holds a 1,619-1,430 (.531) overall record as a minor league manager. His 1,619 wins are the most among all active minor league managers.

A former pitcher in Cincinnati's farm system, Bombard played seven seasons (1971-77) in the minors, during which he posted a 2.72 ERA and 39-29 record. He closed out his minor league career with 10 saves in 152 games (73 starts).

Bombard attended the University of El Paso and graduated from Eastwood High School in El Paso, Texas. He was also the roommate of professional wrestling star "Macho Man" Randy Savage in 1974 while playing in the Reds' farm system.

He and his wife, Gema, make their home in Tampa, FL., with their two daughters: Janet Claire and Amy Elizabeth.

BURT HOOTON

PITCHING COACH, ROUND ROCK

Burt Hooton returns to Triple A Round Rock for a fifth season, following parts of five seasons (2000-04) as the pitching coach for the Houston Astros. Hooton previously served as the pitching coach for the Express in 2000 after four seasons as the pitching coach for the University of Texas, his alma mater, from 1996-99. The pitchers who flourished for the Astros during Hooton's tenure include Roy Oswalt, Brad Lidge, Wade Miller, Octavio Dotel, Brad Lidge, Ricky Stone and Jeriome Robertson.

Hooton played in the Major Leagues for 15 years with the Chicago Cubs (1971-75), Los Angeles Dodgers (1975-84) and Texas (1985). On April 16, 1972, as a 22-year-old rookie in his fourth big league start over two seasons, he threw a no-hitter for the Cubs against Philadelphia. In 15 big league seasons, Hooton compiled a 151-136 record (.526) with 1,491 strikeouts over 2,652 innings. Over 11 postseason games, Hooton was 6-3 with a 3.17 ERA. He was 3-3 in six World Series outings, posting a 3.70 ERA. Hooton was the winning pitcher in the clinching Game 6 of the 1981 World Series for the Dodgers over the Yankees, and he finished the '81 postseason with a 4-1 mark and a 0.82 ERA in five starts.

Following his junior year at UT, Hooton was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the secondary phase of the 1971 draft and made his Major League debut nine days later. He fanned his first batter, Lou Brock, and went on to set a Cubs rookie record by striking out 15 batters in a game later that season. Hooton is one of just 17 players since the draft era began in 1965 to advance directly to the big leagues after being selected.

After finishing his playing career with the Texas Rangers in 1985, Hooton began his coaching career with Class A Salem of the Northwest League from 1988-89. He served as the pitching coach for Double A San Antonio of the Dodgers organization from 1990-94, and coached the 1995 season with Triple A Albuquerque.

Hooton went 15-1 to lead Corpus Christi's Richard King High School to the Texas state title as a high school pitcher before beginning his career with the Longhorns. His dominating tenure at Texas culminated in a 35-3 record and 1.14 ERA. He is among UT's all-time pitching leaders in almost every category, including 13 career shutouts. He was the first pitcher ever to be named First Team All-American three consecutive seasons (1969-71).

"Happy" Hooton and his wife Ginger reside in San Antonio during the offseason. The couple has two grown children. He got his nickname from his former manager, Tommy Lasorda, because he seldom looked as if he were happy.

ROUND ROCK EXPRESS STAFF

RON JACKSON

HITTING COACH, ROUND ROCK

Ron Jackson joins the Astros organization for his 21st year as a Major League or minor league hitting coach and his third with Houston. He previously spent four seasons with the Boston Red Sox as that club's Major League hitting coach (2003-06).

Jackson also spent three seasons as hitting coach for the Dodgers' Triple A clubs in Albuquerque and Las Vegas from 2000-02. A veteran hitting coach, Jackson also spent time with the Brewers (1999) and the White Sox (1997-98). He began his coaching career as a minor league coach with the White Sox, first as hitting and first base coach with Triple A Vancouver then as hitting and third base coach at Double A Birmingham. Jackson joined the Brewers as minor league hitting instructor in 1991-92, then served as hitting coach at Triple A New Orleans from 1993-95 until becoming Chicago's first base coach on June 2, 1995. He was later named the hitting coach on Aug. 16, 1997.

Jackson played first base, third base, the outfield and DH during a 10-year career with the Angels (1975-78, 1982-84), Twins (1979-81), Tigers (1981) and Orioles (1984). He hit .259 with 56 homers and 342 RBI in 926 games, hitting a career-best .297 for the 1978 Angels and in 1979 set personal highs with 158 hits, 40 doubles, 14 homers, 68 RBI and 85 runs for the Twins. His .9943 fielding percentage at first base in '79 broke Rod Carew's team record. He was selected by the Angels in the second round of the 1971 June Draft.

Ron and his wife, Cheryl, have five children, and his older brother, Lawrence, played in the White Sox organization. A graduate of Wenonah High School in Birmingham, AL, "Papa Jack" was honored as the BoSox Club's Man of the Year in 2003.

MIKE FREER

ATHLETIC TRAINER, ROUND ROCK

Mike Freer, the athletic trainer at Triple A Round Rock, is in his 20th season with the Astros minor league system and his 13th at the Triple A level. In 2003, he was named the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Freer worked his way up in the organization, beginning at Class A Kissimmee (1990-93), continuing with Double A Jackson (1994-96), and now at the Triple A level (1997-present). He joined the organization in 1990 after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Richmond. He was also previously the head athletic trainer for the New York Mets Triple A affiliate at Norfolk.

Freer is a 1976 graduate of Baylor University, where he also earned a master's degree.

CLASS AA TEXAS LEAGUE

734 East Port Avenue • Corpus Christi, TX 78401
(361) 561-4665 • (361) 561-4666 (fax) • cchooks.com

Corpus Christi completed the first half of their 140 game schedule with a 30-40 record. The Hooks finished fourth in the Texas League's South Division, 13 games behind first-half division winner Frisco (RoughRiders). Corpus Christi went 25-45 during the season's second half, once again in fourth place and 16 games behind division winner Frisco. April was Corpus Christi's best month, as the team won a season-high five consecutive games to start the season and 15 games overall.

Corpus Christi had major impact players at virtually every position, evidenced by the selection of eight Hooks players to the Texas League All-Star Game. IF Richie Paz, 2B Drew Sutton, 3B Chris Johnson and SS Tommy Manzella represented the Hooks position players. Pitchers Brad James, Ryan McKeller and Chris Blazek rounded out Corpus Christi's All-Star representation. OF Billy Hart was selected to the All-Star team but did not play because of injury.

AT THE PLATE: 2B Drew Sutton, Corpus Christi's team MVP and Postseason All-Star, led the Texas League in hits (165), runs (102) and doubles (39). He also tied for second in the TL with a .408 on-base percentage and tied for fifth with a .317 batting average (165x520). OF Mitch Einertson finished second on the team with 62 RBI while batting .262 (100x382). SS Wladimir Sutil led the Hooks with 22 stolen bases, while outfielder Brian Bogusevic collected 10 doubles and 20 RBI for the Hooks.

ON THE MOUND: Showcasing his talent in the XM Futures Game at Yankee Stadium in July, starting LHP Polin Trinidad finished 2008 with a 6-5 record in 18 starts and a 3.61 ERA (43ER/107.1IP). RHP Bud Norris and LHP Christopher Blazek led the team with 84 strikeouts each, while RHP Samuel Gervacio (4.13 ERA) led Corpus Christi's bullpen with five saves in 2008.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS STAFF

LUIS PUJOLS

MANAGER, CORPUS CHRISTI

Luis Pujols begins his second season as the manager of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks after being named to the post on Dec. 10, 2007.

Pujols enters his 22nd season of professional coaching in 2009, including his 13 years at the big league level. The former Major League catcher joined the Astros organization after serving four years as the first base coach for the San Francisco Giants from 2003-06. Pujols joined a Double A club that was 67-73 and third place in the Texas League's South Division in 2007.

Before joining the Giants organization, Pujols was a bench coach for the Detroit Tigers under manager Phil Garner in 2002 and became just the second Dominican-born manager in Major League history on April 8 after Garner was dismissed. Pujols held that post on an interim basis for the remainder of the 2002 season. In 2001, Pujols served as manager of Detroit's Double A club, leading that club to the Eastern League Southern Division crown and was named manager of the American League squad for the Double A All-Star Game. He served eight years on the Montreal big league coaching staff from 1993-2000. The former catcher played with Houston (1977-83), Kansas City (1984) and Texas (1985) during nine MLB seasons and was a member of the Astros 1980 NL West championship team.

Pujols and wife Xiomara have two sons, Alexis and Luis, Jr., and a daughter, Genesis.

STAN BOROSKI

PITCHING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

A versatile member of the Astros organization, Stan Boroski begins his third season on the Corpus Christi staff as pitching coach. He previously served four seasons at Class A Salem (2003-06). Boroski served in the same role at Class A Michigan from 2001-02, where he was named a coach for the 2002 Midwest League All-Star Game. Boroski has worked as both a scout and a coach for the Astros over the past 15-plus years. He served as a scout for the Astros from 1991-93 and in 1997; was both a scout and a coach from 1994-96; and was a coach from 1998-2000 with the Gulf Coast Astros and Martinsville Astros.

The Milwaukee Brewers selected the Ohio native as a catcher in the 20th round of the June 1981 draft. Boroski, who attended Ohio University, played two seasons for the Milwaukee organization. He signed with the Royals in 1985 and finished his playing career as a pitcher in Kansas City's system.

CORPUS CHRISTI HOOKS STAFF

KEITH BODIE

HITTING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

Keith Bodie is in his first season with Corpus Christi and his second season with the Houston Astros organization, spending 2008 as the hitting coach at Class A Salem. Bodie spent nine years as a player for the NY Mets and Houston Astros farm systems before accepting a coaching position in 1983 with the Auburn club. He also coached at Double A Columbus for two years from 1984-85 before being named Auburn's manager in 1986. He also managed for Class A Asheville in 1987 and for the Florida State League club in Osceola in 1988.

Bodie also managed at Class A Clinton of the Giants organization in 1989, Class A San Bernadino in 1990, and three years at Triple A Calgary from 1991-93. He rejoined the Giants in 1994, serving that year as the minor league hitting coordinator before returning to the dugout to manage Triple A Phoenix in 1995. Bodie served four years as the club's minor league field coordinator from 1996-99.

Bodie returned to the dugout for four seasons as the manager for Double A Wichita from 2000-03, moving into a position as the outfield and baserunning instructor in 2004. His last role was as the manager for Double A Harrisburg in the Washington organization in 2005. In 14 years as a manager, Bodie's clubs won division titles on seven occasions.

Bodie resides in Gilbert, AZ with his wife, Stacy, daughters Brittney and Breeana, and son Robert.

JAMEY SNODGRASS

ATHLETIC TRAINER, CORPUS CHRISTI

Jamey Snodgrass, the 2001 and 2002 Midwest League Trainer of the Year, begins his 11th season in the Houston Astros organization and his fifth in Corpus Christi. Snodgrass was named to the Texas League All-Star staff in 2006. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as the athletic trainer at Double A Round Rock after serving two seasons at Class A Michigan from 2001-02. Snodgrass worked his first two years in the Astros system (1999-2000) as the athletic trainer at Class A Auburn.

A graduate of Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, Snodgrass previously worked for the Concorde Therapy Group, performing athletic training duties for high school student-athletes. He also worked with student trainers as an affiliated instructor for Mount Union's athletic training program. In his final year at Mount Union, he was honored as the Senior Athletic Trainer of the Year.

The Houston Astros signed a two-year Player Development Contract (PDC) with the Class A Lancaster JetHawks, replacing the Salem Avalanche affiliate, in late September of 2008.

2008 HIGH CLASS A SALEM AVALANCHE RECAP:

With a first-half record of 30-40, Salem finished third in the Carolina League's Southern Division. The Avalanche finished the season's first 70 games 15.0 games behind first-half division winner Myrtle Beach (Pelicans). With a second-half record of 26-44, Salem finished fourth, 18.0 games behind Myrtle Beach. The Avalanche won a season-best five consecutive games from July 25-29 and won a season-high 12 games in each: April, May and August.

AT THE PLATE: Salem's team MVP, 1B Mark Ori, led the Carolina League in hits (151) and finished third in batting average (.304, 151x497) and RBI (89, tops among Astros minor leaguers). Ori also led Salem with 11 home runs and tied with SS Tim Torres for the team lead in doubles (36). Ori and OF Jordan Parraz were named to the Carolina League's postseason All-Star team. Parraz, in addition to finishing fourth in the league with a .399 on-base percentage, led minor league baseball with a 38-game on-base streak that stretched from June 21-August 8. Parraz also finished fourth in the league with 82 runs. C Koby Clemens and OF Jimmy Van Ostrand were selected to play in the Carolina League's mid-season All-Star Game. Van Ostrand also took a brief hiatus from the Avalanche during August in order to represent Canada during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China.

ON THE MOUND: LHP Douglas Arguello finished the season with the league's third-best ERA (3.30 ERA, 52 ER/142.0 IP). The southpaw tossed 142.0 innings, eighth-best in the league, on his way to a team-high 10 wins (tied fifth-best, Carolina League). LHP Christopher Salamidia recorded a team-high 11 saves while reliever Bryan Hallberg collected six saves and a 2.68 ERA (24 ER/80.2 IP) on the year.

LANCASTER JETHAWKS STAFFWES CLEMENTS*MANAGER, LANCASTER

Wes Clements begins his first managerial stint this year with the Lancaster Jethawks, the club's first season as an affiliate of the Houston Astros. Clements, a former minor league player in the Houston organization, rejoins the Astros after spending the past few seasons as a hitting coach in the Chicago White Sox organization, most recently at the Double A Birmingham Barons and the Caguas Creoles of the Puerto Rican Winter League in 2008. He has coached in the Milwaukee Brewers and Los Angeles Angels farm systems, as well as managed teams in Mexico. Clements also spent three seasons as the head baseball coach at Calabasas High School, located an hour south of Lancaster.

A sixth-round draft pick by the Houston Astros in 1980, Clements spent 11 seasons as a player in the minor leagues, hitting 173 home runs and 664 RBI in his career.

A native of southern California, Clements attended the University of Arizona where he was a member of the 1980 NCAA Championship team and was named All-American and Academic All-American by The Sporting News. Clements is single and resides in Pomonca, California.

DON ALEXANDERPITCHING COACH, LANCASTER

Don Alexander begins his first season with Lancaster following five seasons on the coaching staff at Tri-City. He spent the previous four years coaching at the high school level.

Alexander began his professional coaching career in the Astros organization at Class A Auburn in 1990. His seven seasons in the Houston system (1990-96) included stints at Class A Quad City, Class A Asheville, and with the Rookie-league Gulf Coast Astros. From 1996-99, he was the Double A pitching instructor with the San Diego organization. The 1998 Mobile squad claimed the Southern League title, and the pitching staff led the league in ERA, complete games, shutouts, fewest hits allowed and fewest walks allowed. He was also a pitching coach in the Cincinnati system from 1999-2000.

A longtime pitching instructor at the San Diego school of baseball, Alexander played collegiately at the University of San Diego from 1976-80. He served as pitching coach at San Diego Mesa College for six years and was an associate scout for the Astros from 1986-89.

DARRYL ROBINSONHITTING COACH, LANCASTER

Darryl Robinson enters his first season as a coach in the Astros organization in 2009. During his playing career, Robinson split time in the minor league systems with Kansas City (1986-93), Boston (1995) and Chicago (1998). He was originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in 1986.

He is a graduate of Whitney-Young High School in Illinois and currently makes his home in Woodbury, MN.

ERIC MONTAGUEATHLETIC TRAINER, LANCASTER

Eric Montague returns for his ninth season as a trainer in the Astros organization and fourth at Houston's Class A level. This season will be Montague's 13th in professional baseball, as he previously spent five years with the New York Mets organization (1997-2001).

Montague also served as a student trainer at Mississippi State University in Starkville, Miss., where he earned a bachelor of science degree in fitness.

Lexington, of the Southern Atlantic League's Northern Division, ended the season's first half 21-48, in eighth place and 19.5 games behind first-half division winner Lake County (Captains). The Legends completed the second half of their season with a 24-45 record, in seventh place and 20.5 games behind second-half division winner West Virginia (Power).

The Legends won a season-best four consecutive games from July 28-31 against the Delmarva Shorebirds and the Hagerstown Suns, outscoring their opponents 24-9 during that span. Lexington won 14 games during the month, the most wins for any month all season.

AT THE PLATE: OF Brian Pellegrini tallied a team-high 21 home runs (fourth-best in the league) and 69 RBI. Legends' MVP 1B Eric Taylor and OF Russell Dixon led the team in walks, each with 48, and OF Collin DeLome and 2B Matthew Cusick each produced a team-high six triples. Taylor also stole 27 bases while posting a .992 fielding percentage at first base, while DeLome produced a .513 slugging percentage. Cusick led Lexington's club with a .285 batting average (100x351) and notched 100 hits for the Legends, just second behind Taylor (123).

ON THE MOUND: All-Star Anthony Bello led Lexington with seven wins. The southpaw struck out 80 hitters while walking only 38. LHP Sergio Severino also earned a spot on the SAL All-Star list and completed the season with a 2.66 ERA (15ER/50.2IP). RHP Jose Duran maintained a 1.66 ERA, while RHP Jay Pacella, the Legends' closer, finished among the league leaders with 12 saves. The Legends' pitching staff combined for a 4.40 ERA, 1,059 strikeouts and 28 saves in 2008.

LEXINGTON LEGENDS STAFF

TOM LAWLESS

MANAGER, LEXINGTON

Tom Lawless begins his first season at the helm of the Lexington Legends after spending the last five seasons with the Orioles organization. He was the minor league roving infield/baserunning instructor during the last three years (2006-08), and before joining the Orioles, Lawless spent the 2002 season working for the Office of the Commissioner of Major League Baseball as an on-field operations assistant under the supervision of former Astro Bob Watson. Prior to that, he managed three different Midwest League clubs over an eight-year span, and he began his coaching career in 1992 as a minor league infield/baserunning instructor for two seasons in Anaheim's system before becoming manager of their Class A Cedar Rapids affiliate in 1994.

Lawless played eight seasons in the Major Leagues for Cincinnati, Montreal, St. Louis and Toronto and was traded from the Reds to the Expos for all-time hits leader Pete Rose in 1984. He played in two World Series for St. Louis and hit a three-run homer off Frank Viola in a 7-2 Cardinals' win in Game 4 of the 1987 World Series.

Lawless is a graduate of Stong Vincent (PA) High School and the Behrend College of Penn State University with a degree in political science. He and his wife of 28 years, Cheryl, have three daughters; Jessica (26), Samantha (22) and Hillary (16) and reside in St. Louis, Missouri.

CHARLEY TAYLOR

PITCHING COACH, LEXINGTON

Charley Taylor enters his 28th season as a coach in the Houston system and his ninth year as the pitching coach at Class A Lexington. The 2005 season marked his 33rd season overall with Houston after spending seven seasons (1969-75) as an Astros minor league hurler. Taylor has been pitching coach for five different championship clubs, including the 2001 South Atlantic League champion Lexington Legends and the 2000 Midwest League champion Michigan Battle Cats. His other championship teams include 1984 South Atlantic League champion Asheville, 1986 Southern League champion Columbus, and the 1993 Texas League champion Jackson.

Taylor retired as a player after the 1975 season and worked in Cincinnati's front office from 1977-81. His coaching career began at Asheville in 1982 and includes stops at Osceola (1985), Columbus (1986, 1990) and again at Asheville (1987-89). He had two stints as the Jackson pitching coach from 1991-95 and again from 1998-99. Taylor also served as pitching coach at Tucson (1996), Quad City (1997), and Michigan (2000).

PETE RANCONT

HITTING COACH, LEXINGTON

Pete Rancont begins his first year as Lexington's hitting coach after a two year managerial stint with the Tri-City ValleyCats. He completed three seasons with the Greeneville Astros coaching staff after spending the 2003 season with the Class A Salem Avalanche. He served 2002 with the Class A Lexington Legends and the 2001 season at Class A Michigan. He first joined the professional ranks in 2001 after nearly 30 years of coaching at the high school and college levels in Alabama. During Rancont's tenure as head coach of the University of Alabama-Birmingham, UAB won three conference championships.

Rancont was a two-year letterman and a two-time All-SEC Eastern Division shortstop for Auburn during his college playing days, and he received his Master's degree from Auburn in 1983. Before starring for the Tigers, he lettered for two seasons at Gulf Coast Junior College in Panama City, Florida.

JOHN PATTON

ATHLETIC TRAINER, LEXINGTON

John Patton enters his sixth season in the Astros organization and his second at Lexington after spending three seasons at Short Season Tri-City. He originally joined the Houston system as athletic trainer for Rookie League Martinsville in 2003. Prior to the Astros, Patton completed an internship as an athletic trainer in the Baltimore Orioles organization in 2002.

Patton received a bachelor of science degree in athletic training from Manchester College in North Manchester, Ind., in 2001. At Manchester he served as a student athletic trainer, working with the baseball, football, basketball, track, wrestling and soccer teams. During the offseason, he works at Orthopaedics Northeast in Fort Wayne, Ind., in the SportONE sports medicine division.

TRI-CITY VALLEYCATS

SHORT-SEASON A NEW YORK-PENN LEAGUE

PO Box 694 • Troy, NY 12181
(518) 629-2287 • (518) 629-2299 (fax) • tcvvalleycats.com

Tri-City completed the 2008 season 28-45 and in fourth place in the New York-Penn League's Stedler Division, 12.0 games behind division winner Lowell (Spinners). The ValleyCats won a season-high four consecutive games from June 24-27 and won a season-best 12 games in July.

AT THE PLATE: 1B Phil Disher led the team with a .304 batting average (85x280), .536 slugging percentage, 85 hits and a .916 OPS. Disher, Tri-City's team MVP, ranked second in the New York-Penn League with 13 home runs, 20 doubles and 56 RBI. OF Jack Shuck led the ValleyCats with 51 runs, five triples, 35 walks, eight stolen bases and a .385 on-base percentage. IF David Flores launched 11 home runs, second behind Disher (13), and hit .266 (58x218).

ON THE MOUND: Starting RHP Robert Bono led all qualifying ValleyCat pitchers with a 4.68 ERA (39 ER/75.0 IP), while starting a team-high 15 games. LHP Michael Hacker led the ValleyCats with five saves and maintained a 2.73 ERA through 23 games. Hacker also recorded 27 strikeouts and allowed less hits (17) than innings pitched (26.1) this season. RHP Philip Rummel, NYPL All-Star, completed his 2008 campaign with a 3-2 record and 2.84 ERA (12ER/38.0IP).

IN THE STANDS: In 2008, Tri-City set a new single-season attendance record by attracting 140,631 fans to Joseph L. Bruno Stadium. The ValleyCats also attracted an average of 4,018 fans per game, another organizational attendance record. This season marks the fifth consecutive season that the ValleyCats have broken the attendance mark.

TRI-CITY VALLEYCATS STAFF
JIM PANKOVITS
MANAGER, TRI-CITY

Former Astros infielder Jim Pankovits returns to the managerial ranks for his first season with Tri-City, after spending the past three seasons (2006-08) at the helm of the Salem Avalanche. Named the Carolina League Manager of the Year in 2006, Pankovits led the Avalanche to its first playoff berth since 1988 with a 44-23 second-half record that helped the club clinch the CL's Southern Division second-half crown. He spent the previous six seasons in the Houston organization as the minor league defense coordinator. He also served as the minor league infield coordinator in 2000.

Pankovits had two previous stints as a manager in the Astros system. He spent two seasons (1995-96) as manager at Class A Quad City of the Midwest League and two seasons as manager at Double A Jackson (1998-99). As skipper of Quad City, he guided the River Bandits to two Midwest League Western Division crowns, advancing to the second round of the playoffs each season. He also managed the Venezuelan League's Caracas club in 1998.

Before managing Quad City, he spent the 1992-94 seasons guiding Boston's Double A affiliate in New Britain (CT).

Pankovits was drafted by the Astros in the fourth round of the June 1976 draft. He spent six years in the Houston system before being traded to San Diego in 1982. In 1983, he rejoined the Astros organization and made his big league debut with the club in 1984. Pankovits spent parts of five seasons in Houston, compiling a .250 average in 318 games.

Following his years with Houston, the infielder played in the Pittsburgh and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations. He signed a minor league contract with Boston in 1990 and made a brief appearance with the parent club.

GARY RUBY
PITCHING COACH, TRI-CITY

Veteran minor league coach Gary Ruby joins the Astros organization for his first season as the pitching coach at Short-Season A Tri-City. He spent the previous two seasons as the pitching coach at Class A Salem. Ruby joined the franchise after six seasons as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before working with the Pirates, he worked four seasons in the Philadelphia organization from 1998-2001 and with Triple A Buffalo of the Cleveland organization from two years.

Ruby served as a pitching coach in the Angels organization for nine years (1987-95). He attended Arizona State University and the University of Tampa, and played three years in the Indians farm system after being selected by Cleveland in the 22nd round of the June 1969 draft.

JOEL CHIMELIS
HITTING COACH, TRI-CITY

Joel Chimelis begins his fourth season as the Houston Astros organization as the hitting coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats. He spent the previous two years (2004-05) on the coaching staff of the Class A Savannah Sand Gnats in the Washington Nationals organization.

A former infielder, Chimelis was selected by Oakland in the 11th round of the 1988 Major League draft. He was traded to the San Francisco Giants in 1991 and spent the 1996 season in the New York Mets organization. He reached the Triple A level in the Giants system, playing for Phoenix from 1992-95, and he was called up to the Majors during the 1995 season. During his 13-year minor league career, he also enjoyed stints in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, Korea and Canada. In 2000, he posted career-highs in home runs (30) and RBI (98) while playing for Dos Eceres of the Mexican Summer League.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Chimelis played baseball at Howard Junior College in Big Spring, Texas, and was a member of the 1988 University of Texas squad. He was named to the 1988 NCAA Central Region team with the Longhorns.

The Greeneville Astros closed out their 2008 campaign 30-36 and in fifth place in the Appalachian League's West Division, 11.0 games behind division winner Elizabethton (Twins). The Astros won a season-best six games in a row from July 8-13, while Greeneville posted a season-high 15 wins in July.

AT THE PLATE: 1B Kody Hinz led Greeneville and tied for 12th in the league with eight home runs. He also led the Astros with 29 runs, 13 doubles, 32 RBI and 34 walks. OF Nathan Metroka led the team in batting average (.327), slugging percentage (.531) and OPS (.918). Metroka also hit three triples, tying OF Frank Almonte, 3B Ebert Rosario and 2B Jose Altuve for best on the team. Almonte led the Astros in hits (54) and also provided flawless defense throughout the year, committing no errors in 53 games in the field.

ON THE MOUND: Starting RHP Kyle Greenwalt tied for third in the Appalachian League with six wins. In addition, Greenwalt's 71.2 innings pitched were fifth-most in the Appalachian League, earning him the team MVP title. RHP Jose Trinidad finished with the league's seventh-best ERA (2.73) and eighth-best WHIP (1.13). RHP Henry Villar tied for sixth in the league with 65 strikeouts (65.1 IP). LHP Colton Pitkin earned Greeneville's Pitcher of the Month Award in August, posting a 1.13 ERA in five appearances (16.0IP). Pitkin carried a 3.07 ERA through the end of the season, striking out 45 batters from the mound.

TRAVIS DRISKILL

PITCHING COACH, GREENEVILLE

Travis Driskill begins his second season as a coach with Rookie League Greeneville of the Astros organization. Driskill retired as a player following the 2007 season, which was his 15th in professional baseball.

Driskill appeared in 57 Major League games (19 starts) and was 11-14 with one save and a 5.23 ERA in five combined seasons with Baltimore (2002-03), Colorado (2004), and Houston (2005, 2007). His first professional season was in 1993 after being selected in the fourth round of the June 1993 draft by Cleveland. Driskill recorded a career-high eight wins with Baltimore in 2002, finishing 8-8 with a 4.95 ERA.

Driskill pitched in 466 career minor league games and was 97-76 with a 4.03 ERA and 72 saves. He pitched in the Houston organization for five seasons over two stints, including time with Triple A New Orleans (2000-01) and Triple A Round Rock (2005-07). Driskill pitched collegiately at Texas Tech University.

STUBBY CLAPP

HITTING COACH, GREENEVILLE

Stubby Clapp begins his third season as a coach in the Houston organization and returns for his second stint as a coach for Rookie Greeneville. He served as the hitting coach for Class A Lexington for the 2008 season and spent the 2007 season as a coach with Rookie League Greeneville.

A former Texas Tech Red Raider, Stubby appeared in 23 games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 2001. He played professionally for nine seasons from 1996-2004, and his number 10 was retired by the Memphis Redbirds in 2007. Stubby also played for Team Canada in the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece, and his team finished fourth in those games. He won a bronze medal in the 1999 Pan Am Games for Team Canada and also played for his country in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006.

A new addition to the Astros affiliates, the Rookie Gulf Coast League Astros will be based at the club's Spring Training facility in Kissimmee, Fla., and will be managed by Omar Lopez. Lopez was the manager of the Venezuelan Summer League in 2008 and also served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Venezuelan program. Rick Aponte rejoins the organization as pitching coach, marking his 33rd season in Houston's minor league system as either a player, coach or scout. He served as bullpen coach for the Washington Nationals during the last two seasons. D.J. Boston enters his second season with the Houston organization and first as hitting coach for the GCL Astros. Former Houston Astros scout Gordy McKenzie will also be an instructor.

GCL ASTROS STAFF

OMAR LOPEZ

MANAGER, GULF COAST LEAGUE

Omar Lopez begins his first season as the manager of the GCL Astros team after previously serving as the manager of the Venezuelan Summer League in 2008. He also served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and as a full-time scout for the Astros. A native of Valencia, Venezuela, Lopez played three seasons of minor league baseball in stints with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998).

Lopez played his first season of pro baseball with Rookie Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. The third baseman played in 49 games in '97 at Bristol, hitting .276 with 23 RBI and setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in '98 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend and hit .324. Gonzalez finished his career at Charleston by playing in 11 games in 1995.

D.J. BOSTON

HITTING COACH, GULF COAST LEAGUE

D.J. Boston begins his first year as the GCL hitting coach after spending two seasons as the hitting coach at Rookie League Greeneville. He joined the Houston organization after one year as a coach for Camden of the Atlantic League in 2007.

Boston played professionally for 17 years from 1990-2006, including stints with the Toronto, Pittsburgh, Oakland, and Colorado organizations. He also played professionally in independent leagues and in Mexico. Boston played collegiately at San Jacinto Junior College in Pasadena, TX.

A native of Cincinnati, Boston resides in Atlanta with his wife, Shenille, and their son, Jalen.

PITCHING COACH, GULF COAST LEAGUE

Ricardo (Rick) Aponte enters his first season as the pitching coach for the GCL Astros, following a two-year stint with the Washington Nationals as a bullpen coach. Aponte spent 32 years prior to the 2009 season in Houston's minor league system as a player, coach or scout. He spent more than 10 seasons domestically as a pitching coach in Houston's minor league system at various levels, including stints in Auburn (1987), Kissimmee (1988-89), and Burlington (1992). Aponte also managed Houston's Rookie Dominican Summer League for seven seasons (1993-1999), before shifting into the DSL pitching coach position from 2000-06.

As a player, Aponte pitched in the Houston chain for six seasons (1975-1980) and reached the Triple A level with the Charleston Charlies of the International League and the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League before completing his minor league career.

Aponte lives in The Bronx, New York with his wife of 28 years, Juana, and has five children: Kenny, Lindsey, Ricardo Jr., Phedias and Odrie Ricardo. Ricardo Jr. plays baseball at Bronx Community College.

GORDY MCKENZIE

ASSISTANT COACH, GULF COAST LEAGUE

Gordy McKenzie moves into his first role as an assistant coach in the Astros system in 2009. He has previously served as an instructor (1999-2001) and a scout (2004-2008) for the organization.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE AND ACADEMY STAFF

LUIS MARTINEZ

MANAGER, DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE

Luis Martinez begins his first season in the Astros organization after spending the 2008 season as an infield coordinator in the Dominican Republic. In 1989, Martinez began his career as an infield instructor with the Oakland Athletics organization and became a minor league manager for the A's farm system in 1991-96. Martinez was signed by Oakland in 1984 and played until 1988 for the Athletics' High A affiliate in the California League as a second baseman.

LUIS MATEO

HITTING COACH, DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE

Luis Mateo is in his first season as hitting coach with the Dominican Summer League. He played professionally as a shortstop with Oakland's organization as well as the Arizona League from 1987-88. In 1998, he began working as a coach with the Arizona Diamondbacks as an infield instructor. He joins the Dominican Summer League after a two-year stint as a manager with the Oakland Athletics organization.

HECTOR EDUARDO

PITCHING COACH, DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE

The 2009 season marks the Astros 25th Spring Training at Osceola County Stadium.

After 21 spring camps in Astrotown at Cocoa, Fla., the Astros decided to try something new in 1985. They cleared ground near U.S. 192 and started from scratch, building the state-of-the-art Osceola County Stadium complex in Kissimmee, Fla.

When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as a blueprint for many teams as they built new spring facilities - Kansas City, Cincinnati, and Minnesota. The stadium and complex has been more than the Astros Spring Training home for the past 24 seasons. It has played host to many local civic events. The playing field at Osceola County Stadium was also recognized by Sports Turf Magazine and the Beam Clay Company as its Baseball Field of the Year for 1990-91.

The Astros opened Osceola County Stadium on March 3, 1985, when a then-record crowd of 6,742 saw Houston defeat the New York Yankees 9-6. In 2003, the stadium opened its doors once again against the Yankees, but with a whole new look. It underwent an $18.4-million renovation, featuring a new facade, new seating, expanded clubhouses and training facilities, a picnic area, and a re-designed press box and concession areas. A recent lease agreement will keep the Astros in the upgraded Kissimmee facility through 2016. The team is currently riding on the sixth-longest tenure in the Majors at a Florida spring home.

Beginning in 2009, the complex will serve as the home venue of the newly-affiliated Gulf Coast League Astros.

Houston first conducted Spring Training in Apache Junction, Ariz., in 1962 and 1963 before moving to Cocoa in 1964.

- Four executive suites
- Picnic area along the first base side
- Party deck to accommodate private functions for up to 80 guests
- Autograph Alley
- Playground for children
- Two multi-purpose meeting rooms

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- enter the ballpark through the South Home Plate media entrance, located on the Texas Ave. side of the ballpark adjacent to the Media Will Call Window 28.
- provide photo identification and sign in at the media entrance.
- allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- clearly display working credentials at all times.
- allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

All 2009 season credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or by the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis...daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must be applied for via the online credential system. This will be the process for Astros regular season, Spring Training and National League Division Series credential applications.
- daily credentials will be available at the Minute Maid Park Media Will Call located at Window 28 on Texas Avenue, four hours prior to first pitch.
- no spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes and credentials are not transferable.
- credential media are also prohibited from requesting autographs...any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with their photo season credential or BBWAA credential. Contact the Astros media relations department at (713) 259-8900.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box is located on the Main Concourse on the street level...all broadcast positions are located on the Club Level and are accessible from the press box elevator or the press box stairs.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Located on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a $10 charge per meal. Media dining is open for service two-and-a-half hours prior to first pitch to accredited members of the media.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible by the press box elevator or stairs...the Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side...pre- and post-game access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball...clubhouses are open three-and-one-half hours before game time and close one hour before first pitch, with the exception of batting practice, when clubhouses will be closed.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch...no person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball -- in play or dead -- should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

HOUSTON MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

On Aug. 13, 2008, former Astros radio broadcaster Gene Elston was chosen as the second inductee to the Houston Media Wall of Honor. The Wall of Honor, which is a display on the broadcast level of the Minute Maid Park press box, honors a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts.

There will be an inductee to the Wall of Honor each season, nominated and selected by the Houston baseball media. In May of each year, a nominating committee will solicit nominations from all media members who receive season credentials from the Astros, and wish to submit a name for consideration. The nominating committee, consisting of selected members of the Houston-area media and Astros front office staff, will compile the nomination forms and create a final ballot of candidates for that year.

In June, the final ballot will be sent to Astros season-credentialed media, with the winner of the balloting (that year's inductee) announced in July.

HOUSTON WALL OF HONOR INDUCTEES:

2007	Anita Martini
2008	Gene Elston

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

- ★ The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.
- ★ If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- ★ The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- ★ Houston, Arizona: Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.
- ★ If the game begins with the roof closed: (Houston, Arizona, Milwaukee) it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.
 - > The roof may only open once during a game.
 - > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
 - > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
 - > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.

ASTROS HAMILTON AMONG WHO'S WHO IN BROADCASTING HISTORY, INDUCTED INTO FOUR HALLS OF FAME

With 58 years of broadcasting baseball, Milo Hamilton is truly one of the giants in the game today. The man who called Henry Aaron's 715th home run in 1974 is among a short list of baseball broadcasting pioneers who have been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, receiving the honor in 2000. Mel Allen, Red Barber, Jack Brickhouse, Jack Buck, Harry Caray, Ernie Harwell, Harry Kalas, Vin Scully and Bob Uecker are also members. The 2000 class of inductees included Oldies radio innovator Dick Bartley, engineering genius Dr. Amar G. Bose, legendary comedian Eddie Cantor, announcer Fred Foy and veteran New York broadcaster John A. Gambling. In 1992, Hamilton received the Ford C. Frick Award from the Baseball Hall of Fame. The prestigious award goes to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball." The Iowa native has been broadcasting baseball for 58 years, including the past 24 as the highly popular "Voice of the Astros." He first began broadcasting baseball in 1950 in Davenport, Iowa. Milo was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994 and the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in 2005.

NIGHT GAME: Any game that starts at 5 p.m. or later.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, including official times at bat, bases on balls, hit by pitch, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base due to interference or obstruction.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at-bats.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if a player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide [hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch] by [at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies]. For purposes of this percentage, ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total number of games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MINUTE MAID PARK GROUND RULES

CAMERA WELLS: Any ball hitting camera – DEAD BALL. Any ball hitting rail and/or padding – IN PLAY.

FLAG POLE: Any ball hitting flag pole and leaving the field -- HOME RUN. Any ball hitting flagpole and remaining on the field -- IN PLAY. Any ball hitting flagpole, bouncing on the ground, and then leaving the field -- TWO BASES.

HOME PLATE SIGNS: Any ball hitting or resting on the ledge of the signs behind home plate -- IN PLAY.

OUT-OF-TOWN SCOREBOARD: Any ball going through or lodging in the Out-of-Town Scoreboard -- TWO BASES.

OUTFIELD PADDING: Any ball lodging on top of outfield padding -- TWO BASES.

ROOF: Any ball hitting roof in fair territory -- IN PLAY. The striking point on the ground determines if ball is fair or foul. Any ball hitting roof in foul territory -- DEAD BALL.

TARP: Any ball lodging under or behind tarp -- DEAD BALL.

MINUTE MAID PARK

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 2009 season marks the 10th season of baseball in Minute Maid Park. Through the previous nine seasons, the venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the 2005 World Series, numerous concerts, weddings, graduations and galas.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, Bayou City hardball faithful also enjoyed another first in Minute Maid Park's 242-foot-high retractable roof. Fans approved the new ballpark overwhelmingly, resulting in a then-record of more than 3,000,000 fans through the Minute Maid Park turnstiles in the 2000 season. The club has welcomed more than 25,000,000 visitors in the facility's nine seasons of play.

A jewel in the crown of the majestic downtown Houston skyline, Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. The downtown ballpark continues the proud tradition of visionary innovation in stadium construction, beginning with the club's previous home — the Astrodome. Minute Maid Park's retractable roof technology brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass surface and classic architecture provided Minute Maid Park the atmosphere of the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year from its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on a local, state and national awards level. Following are the first three major awards to honor the new home of the Astros:

Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.

Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), the professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.

National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the Top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played in the game, including NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent, and Lance Berkman.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bounded by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the South, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

ARCHITECT: HOK Sports Facilities Group. Construction Manager: Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated that the popular Minute Maid Squeeze Play attraction at the ballpark will continue for the length of the 28-year agreement, along with pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on February 27, 2002, by agreement of the Houston Astros and Enron Corp.

MINUTE MAID PARK

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. The building is a symbol of the important role the railroad has played in the city's relatively short history, especially early in the 20th century. The director of Minute Maid Park's identity and graphics takes its cue from this period.

The railroad created Houston. Flourishing trade established a base of wealth and culture, an infrastructure of banks, a port and railheads. By 1910, railroads constituted the city's largest industry. In 1911, Union Station – already key to the rail industry's growth and influence – was redesigned and reopened.

Built at a cost of $500,000 at the corner of Texas Avenue and Crawford Street, Union Station was dedicated on March 2, 1911. It has been estimated that between 7,000 and 10,000 Houstonians passed through the front doors into the 45-foot-high lobby, which included three varieties of polished marble. By the mid-1940's, Union Station was handling 5,000 travelers daily on 36 passenger trains.

Team officials note that approximately 60 percent of fans enter Minute Maid Park via Union Station. Walk-up or booked Minute Maid Park tours, offered year-round, also begin in the Union Station lobby.

The second and third floors comprise the Conference Center, open 365 days a year and providing a wide array of meeting rooms that can give businesses and organizations state-of-the-art facilities. Nestled in different areas of the ballpark are additional meeting rooms and areas that provide the perfect atmosphere for a meeting or luncheon.

The Houston Astros executive offices are housed in the fourth and fifth floors. The sixth floor features the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where private groups of up to 100 can enjoy the game and an incredible view of the Houston skyline.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also proves a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 12-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path.

Forged steel wheels measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels. Each of the 140 wheels has its own braking mechanism and 60 are equipped with electric motors.

If the track is slightly out of alignment, all the weight of a roof panel could come to rest on one wheel, causing severe structural damage. To prevent this, a polyurethane suspension pad that acts as a spring is attached above each wheel to distribute the roof's weight. The low track/high track configuration and the roof's built-in glass wall not only offer valuable efficiency, but afford a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape unlike any other roofed ballpark.

PLAYING FIELD: Three wall heights, various angles in the corners and power alleys, a 10-degree, uphill slope – "Tal's Hill" – for a center field warning track, and a flag pole in the field of play create unique actions for any ball that gets past an outfielder.

Featuring Seashore Pas Palum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 78 irrigation heads help make the job for head groundskeeper Dan Bergstrom and his staff much easier.

SOUNDS: A total of 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

MINUTE MAID PARK

TECHNOLOGY: Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. The Daktronics black-and-white matrix board and Daktronics color matrix board present baseball fans with a unique experience at Minute Maid Park. The primary scoreboard, measuring 35 feet by 131 feet, displays player and team stats on the left side while the right features graphics and animation, including the recreation of several of the Astrodome's effects of yesteryear. A speed pitch board, four auxiliary scoreboards and an old-fashioned manually operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. Two 100-foot LED ribbonboards stretch above the club level, displaying high-quality animations, graphics and out-of-town baseball scores. The state-of-the-art video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions that is unlike anywhere in Major League Baseball.

SEATING: With visually redirected seats and baseball-only sightlines, Astros fans are as close to the action as any in big league baseball. Seats along the right and left field foul lines are only five feet from the line, while the nearest spectator along the first and third base lines can be as close as 43 feet to the game.

The overall seating capacity of Minute Maid Park is 40,950, featuring nine different seating areas: Dugout Boxes, Field Boxes, Crawford Boxes, Bullpen Boxes, Club I, Club II, Terrace Deck, Mezzanine, and View Deck. Each of the ballpark's four levels – Main Concourse, Club Level, Suite Level, and Upper Concourse – afford fans a uniquely different perspective.

Minute Maid Park's seats are a deep green to match the retro look and design of the ballpark. Approximately 6,500 seats in the Diamond Level and Charter Seat License areas in the lower bowl and Club Level include cup holders.

Fans sampling the various Minute Maid Park ticket options will find the following at Houston's ballpark: seats on top of the action, various one-of-a-kind amenities like the Minute Maid Squeeze Play, the "9 Amigos" patio in center field, and panoramic views of the ballpark and spectacular views of the downtown Houston skyline.

One of the most popular seating areas are the Crawford Boxes, located in left field. This area provides fans with a unique perspective of what it is like to be a Major League outfielder.

The Diamond Club, Club Level and Suites provide the ultimate in entertaining areas, while groups can take advantage of special mezzanine seating and "The Champions" party room. "Home Run Alley" is a 810-foot long fan arcade, including the fan-favorite "Conoco Home Run Porch" in left-center field that is actually over the field of play, and features a classic gasoline pump to keep track of the number of Astros home runs that are hit.

The Astros Suites, located between the Club Level and Terrace Deck, provide luxury and comfort for watching Major League games. Beautifully appointed with a bar/buffet, socializing area and closed-circuit TVs, the suites offer privacy and comfort for personal and business entertainment. Sliding glass doors open to stadium chairs, designed to seat guests in two rows.

Keeping with Astros tradition, children 14-and-under are still able to purchase a $1 ticket for seats in the Outfield Deck section.

Food courts and concession stands are designed to preserve the spirit of Houston's Union Station. Regional fare and ballpark favorites are located on the main concourse and in the upper deck.

SPECIAL AMENITIES: Inside the ballpark, the "FiveSeven Grille" center field restaurant and sports bar offers restaurant or outdoor seating options for fans seeking a one-of-a-kind dining experience. The Minute Maid Squeeze Play area along the right field line provides children with a fun, safe, interactive experience. The Conoco Home Plate Tower along Texas Avenue is a popular gathering point for fans, and it also features a carillon to provide music at appropriate times of the day.

MINUTE MAID PARK, A VENUE FOR ANY EVENT

NOTABLE EVENTS

As Minute Maid Park enters its 10th season in existence, the downtown Houston facility has developed into much more than just a venue for Houston Astros games. From music festivals and concerts to graduations, galas, and a variety of events including everything from former President Bush's 80th birthday and American Idol auditions, Minute Maid Park is a perfect place for any event, sports-related or otherwise. Here's a partial list of the events that have been held at the ballpark, outside of Astros games:

- ♥ 2000 George Strait Music Festival
- ♥ MD Anderson 60th Anniversary Gala
- ♥ Annual Houston College Classic, considered the premier early-season tournament in college baseball.
- ♥ Astros FanFest, a two-day event that features Astros player autographs, a memorabilia show, and many other activities.
